I believe that cultivating and commercialising cannabis can greatly boost Victoria's economy especially right now with covid 19 it will create hundreds to thousand of new jobs and put money into the economy. It will also make it safer for Victorians as they will know what they are buying is from a credible source and know exactly how strong a product is whilst at the same time taking profit away from drug dealers. More tax payers dollars can be spent on dealing with more serious crimes as well as clear the system of low offences. I think if it were to become legal the age to be able to legally buy would be 21 and laws should be put in place so that one individual person cannot possess too much. Obviously with driving with The in your system can be a very hard thing to regulate and I wonder likewise to 0.5 alcohol limit could their be scientific research put in place to discover what a safe The limit be if not invent and create products to digest or rid The out of peoples system ?
