YOUR SUBMISSION

I've lived in the Us and Australia and have witnessed the harm that prohibition causes first hand. My worst days were being forced into rehab by the Us legal system because I had two cannabis joint roaches. I've now used it on and off for more than ten years and am now a professional with a Masters degree. Cannabis is far less harmful than tobacco or alcohol and actually could reduce the use of both of those substances. Legal sales could take money away from illegal operators and could generate tax revenue. I want to access canna-bis in a legal and safe way that ensures I am of age. I hate that access to cannabis now sometimes can put innocent people at risk with dodgy dealers.
