YOUR SUBMISSION

Submission:

To whom it may concern I'm writing in hope of any assistance that may be available to individuals who have been cultivating cannabis for private use for medical purposes I have just been charged with up to 50 plants all randomly grown and have been making trial samples of CBD oils for the use on animals and humans for internal and external use. I also have daughters both with bracket gene including myself and had been hoping to provide them privately rather than at an extraordinary cost as I have discovered I have asked many doctors to certify themselves to be able to prescribe CBD oils for my use I have also applied to participate in trials and I am currently a carer of my 10 year old son with autism ASD and husband (seperated) I'm currently attempting to separate from with undiagnosed ASD ADHD. Coping as a wife carer and mother and juggling prescribed medication has been a nightmare and resulted in a loss of licence of 6 months followed by failed drive by drug test of methamphetamine generally trying to keep up with my husband. prescribed medications and methamphetamine use are absolutely no use to me or in my life and I'm shocked at how long it is taking society to catch up with ancient traditional.medicine use. I'm only hoping I may be able to use this platform to highlight that not all people are not rampant pot smoking drug users some people may be healers. Thank you in anticipation kindest regards Narelle Maddison Victoria, [REDACTED]
