YOUR SUBMISSION

Submission:

I believe that marijuana is a relatively harmless drug in comparison to other legal drugs right now. I also believe that the 14 billion dollar black market should be brought to the surface, regulated and taxed, to make it healthier and make the government some money. I believe if we are to believe we are keeping marijuana illegal for health reasons, we should criminalise or at least acknowledge our hypocrisy, with our lax laws regarding alcohol and tobacco. Whatever the government decides to do; dont let your personal or religious beliefs to be the steam on the inside of your glasses.
