Do you have any additional comments or suggestions?:

The health benefits and overall positive impact of cannabis on the individual as well as society as a whole is easy to find, understand and report on. Ultimately it is harder to hide from the truth of the positives involved with the use of cannabis than it is to find the detrimental impacts it can have. Alcohol's negatives far outweigh its positives and most certainly is a larger problem for society than cannabis, however, somehow it is not only legalized but not even regulated. It makes little to no sense to me or anyone who has Correct knowledge of cannabis.

Personal use of cannabis should be legal. Sale of cannabis should be legal and regulated. Cultivation of can-nabis for personal use should be legal.
