YOUR SUBMISSION

I want to drink a drink called CBD Kill Cliff. It has 25mg of CBD per can, no THC and doesn't get you high. It can help reduce inflammation and that is what I want to try, it's ridiculous that I cannot buy this in Australia.

I also support full legalisation, I am not a user nor do I intend to use but I believe the benefits are too great to ignore. Lots of tax money to make our state even better. I want to see Victoria as the clear best state to live in. I think of great places in the world like Canada, Colorado and other US states and they are progressive, new and moving forward. Australia is stuck in the past and Victoria needs to lead the way. The plant is great for the environment and has many uses which I'm sure you are all aware of. Small benefits like treating headaches and getting rid of big pharma and painkillers is also of great interest to me.

Do you have any additional comments or suggestions?:

This would make us the envy of Australia, the only people that could possibly stand against this must need some more information. Please let us move into the future.
