YOUR SUBMISSION

Making the cultivation and personal use of cannabis legal for adults will not only allow adults to make their own choices, but will also cut away that underbelly of criminal activity around the sale of cannabis. Further-more, it will give the user complete control over the quality and safety of the product they use. I have been a regular user at various periods throughout my life and have found it useful in social situations as well as for pain relief and symptomatic relief for Complex Post Traumatic Stress Disorder.

Do you have any additional comments or suggestions?:

No my submission is a simple one that is about the right of adults to choose to use intoxicating substances that are otherwise safe, and the criminal activity problem that can be minimised by making it legal to grow and use.
