YOUR SUBMISSION

I'm in my mid 40s with a chronic pain disorder, 3 mental health diagnoses and have had cancer twice. I've been on multiple medications for mental health and am on opioids for pain, which I hate. None of them are affective.

Marijuana is the only thing that consistently helps with depression, anxiety, nightmares and pain. The ONLY thing.

It is time for us to make this natural product legal like it once was, and allow people to access it for health and personal reasons without having to resort to skulking around finding drug dealers to buy medicine from.

Do you think there should be restrictions on the use of cannabis? :

Personal use of cannabis should be legal. Cultivation of cannabis for personal use should be legal. There should be no restrictions.
