It baffles my mind that it seems that the government is simply ignoring the both the US and Canada who have successfully implemented the legalisation and we are still pussyfooting behind the big alcohol and tobacco giants who'll lose money. Look at other countries, see what they're doing right and wrong. Understand how to implement. Understand how to tax. Understand what needs to change (laws). Understand that it's beneficial medically to so many more than those who will use it maliciously. Understand that people are already fucking using it and want a way to buy it easily, that's safe, and will go back to the government (taxes). Just have people to understand how to grow, and price it accordingly or you'll have no one to buy and it'll flop.

Why do we have to wait for other countries to follow when we can lead in some reformations to be one of the first. Just implement it

Select all that apply. Do you think there should be restrictions on the use of cannabis? :

(Decriminalised: there are no criminal or civil penalties instead a person is referred to a drug diversion program or other health/ treatment service), Personal use of cannabis should be legal. , Sale of cannabis should be legal and regulated. , Cultivation of cannabis for personal use should be legal.
