YOUR SUBMISSION

Submission:

Making Cannabis illegal was a poor idea from the very start. Making it illegal has history deep rooted in racism and corporate greed. It has far too many economic & health benefits to ignore and if it stays legal in only medicinal form, it will stay incredibly hard for the people that need it most to afford and access it easily. It is time we stop forcing the agenda that cannabis is an evil plant down peoples throats, the opioid crisis kills plenty more people and yet opioids are prescribed and recommend to people like it's candy. Be better, do the right thing, and legalise it. Statistics have shown that in Colorado, cannabis use among young people has actually lowered since it has become legal. This is because young people generally want things they are denied.
