YOUR SUBMISSION

The amount of criminal bodies utilizing the sale of cannabis in order to gain illegal income within Victoria is at an all time high. Decriminalization of cannabis for personal use and cultivation should be swiftly enacted in order to bring an end to one of the most profitable sources of income for criminal gangs. Along with this, legalization and taxation of sales should also be thoroughly considered as revenue from taxation could easily rival that of the tobacco industry and provide Victoria the resources for further growth in public education and healthcare.
