age restricted to 25 or any age deemed appropriate by health body due to harmful affect on developing brain. There is very little medical benefit. I as a doctor have found that there is already a huge proportion of the population smoking. I personally don't like it but I think this country could benefit from the industry gain

YOUR SUBMISSION

Submission:

I am a gp. I find there is very little to be gained from ongoing criminal action against this recreational drug that a large proportion of people are using illegally already. They should be free from prosecution. As a body that represents the people I urge you to represent their view on the matter. We need to focus on harm minimisation instead of punitive attitudes towards abuse of this or any drug.
