YOUR SUBMISSION

Submission:

It is a fact that Victorians are using Cannabis currently despite the laws that surround it. This funnels money into illegal drug dealers and the illegal drug business. This is a large business that is unregulated in the community. With Cannabis law reform, that money could be regulated and create another stream of cash flow to the government via gst. This would redirect a larger portion of funds out of illegal circles and into the public sphere. I implore that this inquiry turn to other places around the world which have reformed their Cannabis laws. Consider the effects of the laws in places such as Colorado, US.
