YOUR SUBMISSION

Submission:

With the Covid-19 outbreak, I believe it more important than ever that the mental health of Victorians (and everyone) is taken care of. Cannabis has evidence to support that it does help with depression, anxiety, eating disorders, and sleep troubles, of which I and my close friends and family deal with. Many more people may come out of isolation with these same issues.

I also hope that if cannabis were legalised, the economy in Victoria may get the boost it needs, with an opportunity for new businesses in an important market. Thank you
