YOUR SUBMISSION

Submission:

Illegal trade of cannabis will always exist and should be made legal in order to remove all criminal activity related to it plus allow it to be regulated and taxed like alcohol and tobacco which are both considered to also be worse for you than cannabis.

It will also benefit the public's health by providing a clean form of cannabis where the consumer knows exactly what's inside it without having to worry about other health issues that arise from improper growing of the plant

Do you have any additional comments or suggestions?:

This will also provide many economic benefits by providing jobs in a time where we have a lot of unemployed. Tax money can go into education of the substance and into our health care systems. There are unlimited benefits to the legalisation of cannabis as seen in states around the world which have done it. It is our chance to be in the world leading influence rather than being left behind.
