My Name is Teresa Mankowska and I leaving in Noon St Renewal Program Area. I leave in current house for over 27 years and I cosidere this as my home. my children grew in this house , attended local schools and are now valuable members in our community. I am 62 years old and still working full time in local council as child care educator. I worked all my life and even that I could not afford to bye a house . I am very grateful for this house and cant imagine starting my life all over in some unknown area,. Let government support people like me who need this services.
