As a long-time resident of Ascot Vale public housing estate I would like to formally record my rejection of the Victorian government's selling of public housing estates. The crux of the problem is that we need to increase public housing and NOT decrease it. Selling public housing estates to private property developers will decrease access to public housing. The government is not providing a guarantee that all the residents will be able to return to the new estates once they are in the hands of private owners. Reducing public housing is unacceptable as there is a 34,000 waiting list.
