

PARLIAMENT OF VICTORIA
Legal and Social Issues Committee

MEDIA RELEASE

Next hearing on youth justice centres

The parliamentary inquiry into youth justice centres in Victoria will hold its next public hearing on Wednesday 22 March.

The Legal and Social Issues Committee will hear from WorkSafe and Mr Vincent Schiraldi from 7:00-8:00 pm in the Legislative Council Committee Room at Parliament House.

The inquiry is examining issues arising at the Parkville and Malmsbury Youth Justice Centres. The Committee will investigate incident reporting; the security and safety of staff and young offenders; management culture and practices; as well as the oversight role of the Department of Health and Human Services.

The schedule for the public hearing and more details on the inquiry are available from the Committee's website.
