

26/01/2013 10:09

Karen Pope

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] [REDACTED]

Canterbury Girls Secondary College

Parent

Cutting funding to programs such as music, has an adverse affect to my daughters well being. By keeping children engaged in programs such as music, there leaves less time for them to get involved with unsupervised activities outside in our community. I was of the opinion the Federal Labour Government had a mandate to improve education across the board.