dear sir/madam

i was a student a st patrick's college ballarat 1973-75[16-18 years].

at a school assembly the headmaster brother [REDACTED] berated the students for bullying a brother.
soon afterards the brother was moved to another school & now you can read on broken rites....brother dowlan was charged.

brother [REDACTED], denied any knowledge of abuse but broken rites states abuse complaints were made to him.
thankfully i was not abused but i don't go to church anymore.

commonsense tells me if abusers are charged why isn't their boses.

i watch recently abctv 7.30 report...i can't believe the lack of response from cardinal pell.

i wish you well with your work

regards

paul
