The roads around this area and most of country Victoria are appalling and dangerous. I had to travel to work on the same road 5 days a week and some of the problems with the road that remained for the entire year. Also on this road a new pothole would appear almost everyday without fail. Granted they would be fixed somewhat quickly since it is a major highway, however a decently built road wouldn't need repairing quite as often.