I would recommend that country roads should be managed by local country shires and not Vic roads, Vic roads has had more than enough time to do its job but has failed dismally. It should be noted that all moneys be managed and this could be achieved via an accounting team made up from the remainder of Vic roads.