to the Parliamentary Committee to include. The road from cockatoo to pakenham is better kept than the south gippsland highway, when the roads become unsafe, instead of repairing it they just drop the speed limit to a safer speed to compensate. why should a major tourist gateway to gippsland like the sth gippy highway become a long exhausting trip for visitors because the Victorian govt hasn't looked after it's tourist industry access routes?

from Leonie McDonald