Inquiry into end of life choices

Role of the committee

The Legal and Social Issues Committee is one of three Standing Committees appointed by the Parliament of Victoria's Legislative Council.

The Committee has eight members, representing government and opposition parties.

The function of the Committee is to inquire into and report on any proposal, matter or thing concerned with community services, education, gaming, health, and law and justice.

Committee Inquiries result in policy recommendations to the Victorian Government and can lead to legislative change.
