Dear Sir,

I OPPOSE the legalisation of euthanasia and assisted suicide. However I do support increased resources for palliative care. Elderly people are vulnerable to pressure from society and even family that they are a “burden” rather than being cared for with dignity and respect.

Kind regards,
Sue Pollock