Inquiry Name: Inquiry into End of Life Choices

If a person has had enough of their suffering and doesn't wish to continue. Who is anyone to say no you must stick around and ensure you suffer the maximum possible. And if religion is a reason, I refuse to have my rights decided by a god who wants to ensure people suffer rather than make their own choices about their life.

I don't even understand how this is a topic for debate, it's so obvious to me.
