Some people already commit suicide, either alone or surrounded by family members or close friends. Legalising euthanasia encourages it and opens the gate for the medical profession and nurses to be involved and perhaps make money from this practice.

Those who want it do it already: there is no need to encourage euthanasia by legalising it.

Rev Norman Ford SDB STL PhD

Email: [redacted]

Mob: [redacted]