Dear Mr Edward O'Donohue,

As a citizen, member of the community as a parent of three daughters, resident and a tax payer in the council of Whittlesea, I would like to respectfully include my submission to the Committee of review of Human rights charter a request that when your team considers Section 44(2) of the Act (which sets out the rights protected by the Charter) it be noted certain rights are omitted and should be included such as:

1. the right to life of unborn children

2. the right to life saving medical treatment for babies born alive after abortions

3. the right to pregnancy support for mothers facing an unplanned or unwanted pregnancy

"A nation unwilling to accept an unplanned or unwanted pregnancy is a nation in love with death" Ben Chifley former Australia Prime Minister

4. the right to conscientious objection for doctors and allied health professionals to refuse to participate in abortions and abortion referrals

ANY HUMAN RIGHTS CHARTER WHICH FAILS TO GUARANTEE THE RIGHT TO LIFE IS MEANINGLESS AS THE EXERCISE OF ANY HUMAN RIGHTS DEPENDS ON BEING ALIVE. THE FIRST HUMAN RIGHT MUST THEREFORE BE THE RIGHT TO LIFE!

Respectfully,
Catherine E Hayes
