Country racing

Raised with: Minister for Racing

Raised by: Mr O'Brien

Raised on: 12 February 2015

REPLY:

The Labor Government is committed to a strong Victorian racing industry. A recent industry study has shown that country thoroughbred racing contributes around $850 million each year to the Victorian economy and is responsible for around 8300 full time equivalent jobs.

Responsibility for the racing calendar rests with Racing Victoria, in consultation with Country Racing Victoria and the clubs.

In its recently released Country Racing Infrastructure Plan, Racing Victoria has committed to retaining each of the 62 Victorian country racetracks.

The Racing Act 1958 specifically precludes the Minister from directing a controlling body about where, when and on which racecourses race meetings should be held.

Police numbers

Raised with: Minister for Police

Raised by: Mr O'Donohue

Raised on: 11 February 2015

REPLY:

A well-resourced police force, with a strong commitment to community engagement and policing, is critical to keeping communities safe. Victoria Police has now completed the recruitment of 1700 police budgetted for by Labor in 2010. Other additional recruitment provided for by the previous government is almost complete.

As part of our election commitments, the Government undertook to provide $148.6 million to transition the management of police cells to new custody officers, releasing frontline police back into the community where they can focus on tackling crime and keeping the community safe. Victoria Police is working to implement this important initiative.

The actual deployment of police resources is a matter for the Chief Commissioner of Police in accordance with legislation.

We will continue to work with the Acting Chief Commissioner to ensure that Victoria Police has appropriate resources.
