Tuesday 10 February 2015
The Speaker takes the Chair at 2.00 pm

BUSINESS TO TAKE PRECEDENCE

GOVERNMENT BUSINESS

NOTICES OF MOTION

- 1 *MS ALLAN — To move, That the following sessional orders be adopted, to come into operation with immediate effect:

‘1 Days and times of meeting

Unless otherwise ordered, the House will meet each Tuesday at 12.00 pm, and each Wednesday and Thursday at 9.30 am.

2 Incorporation of statements of compatibility

A statement of compatibility tabled under s28 of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 will be incorporated in Hansard, without leave being required.

3 Interruption of business for adjournment

Standing Order 32 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the Speaker will interrupt the business before the House at:
  - (a) 7.00 pm each sitting Tuesday and Wednesday;
  - (b) 5.00 pm on any other sitting day.
- (2) If a division is taking place when the time for the interruption arises, the division will be completed and the result announced. If the division is on a closure motion, and the motion is agreed to, the question or questions then required to be put to close the issue before the House will also be dealt with. The Speaker will then interrupt business.
- (3) If the time for the interruption arises:
  - (a) at the same time as the completion time set by the government business program; or
  - (b) after the interruption for the completion time of the government business program, but before all business on the program has been dealt with —all business on the government business program will be completed first. The Speaker will then interrupt business for the adjournment.
- (4) After the interruption:
  - (a) before a motion for the adjournment is proposed by the Speaker, a minister may move that the sitting be continued. That motion must be put immediately without amendment or debate. If it is agreed to, the House will resume debate at the point at which it had been interrupted; or

- (b) if a motion is not moved, the Speaker will immediately propose the question 'That the House now adjourns'. Any business under discussion and any other business not concluded at the time of the adjournment will be listed on the notice paper for the next sitting day. Any member speaking at the time of the interruption may, when debate resumes, continue his or her speech.

4 Condolence motions

Where a condolence motion occurs under SO 42(1)(a), the House may adjourn for a period of one hour at the conclusion of the motion.

5 Who may ask oral questions without notice

Only non-government members may ask questions without notice under Standing Order 55.

6 Supplementary questions without notice

- (1) At the conclusion of each answer to an oral question without notice, the questioning member may ask the responding minister a supplementary question to elucidate or clarify the answer.
- (2) Supplementary questions must actually and accurately relate to the original question and must relate to or arise from the answer.

7 Ministers' statements

After each oral question without notice and any related supplementary questions, any minister may seek the call to make a statement of up to two minutes to advise the House of new government initiatives, projects and achievements.

8 Time limits on answers under SO 55 and sessional order

The time limit for the answer to each oral question is three minutes, and for the answer to each supplementary question is one minute.

9 Constituency questions

- (1) At the conclusion of oral questions without notice and ministers' statements, five government members and five non-government members may ask ministers oral questions relating to constituency matters.
- (2) Replies to constituency questions must be given in writing within 30 days by delivering a reply to the Clerk. A copy must be given to the member who asked the question, and printed in Hansard.

10 Duration of question time

Standing Order 55(2) is suspended and the following to apply:

Question time will last until five oral questions and related supplementary questions have been answered, and up to five ministers' statements have been made.

11 Content of answers

- (1) Standing Order 58(1)(a) be suspended and all answers to questions must be direct, factual, succinct and relevant.
- (2) The Speaker may determine that an answer to an oral question without notice or supplementary oral question is not responsive to the question, and may accordingly direct the minister to provide a written response to the question and lodge it with the Speaker by 2.00 pm on the next sitting day. A copy of any written response provided under this sessional order must be given to the member who asked the question and printed in Hansard.
- (3) The Speaker will determine the adequacy of a written response to a question provided under this sessional order. The Speaker may determine that a written response does not appropriately answer the question and may direct that the minister provide another written response by 2.00 pm the next sitting day. The Speaker will forward the written response to the member who asked the question, and a copy printed in Hansard.

12 Answers to questions on notice

A reply to a question on notice delivered to the Clerk under SO 54(3) must be submitted within 30 days.

13 Notices of motion

Standing Orders 140(1) and 141 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) A member may only move a motion to discuss a subject if he or she has given notice of that motion on a previous sitting day.
- (2) Copies of all notices, whether to be given verbally or in writing, must be provided to the Clerks at the table before notices are called on by the Speaker.
- (3) All notices given by ministers must be verbal.
- (4) Verbal notices must be read to the House. They can only be given before the House proceeds to the business of the day as set out in the notice paper.
- (5) All notices, except notices given under paragraph (6) given by members who are not ministers, must be given in writing. Members may give notice by lodging a copy with the Clerks in accordance with paragraph (2).
- (6) A motion by a member expressing no confidence in the Premier and ministers, in the terms set out in s 8A of the Constitution Act 1975, may only be given verbally or, where a member seeks to move the motion during formal business by leave, and leave is refused, the member may give notice of that motion.
- (7) The Clerk must notify the Speaker of a notice of a motion by a member to disallow a statutory rule to which Standing Order 151 applies, and the Speaker will report details to the House at the first convenient opportunity.

14 Responses to adjournment matters

If the minister responsible is not present in the House to respond to issues raised by members under SO 33, the minister will provide a written response to the member who raised the matter within 30 days.

15 Second reading speeches incorporated in Hansard

A second reading speech for a bill being introduced by a member or minister will be incorporated into Hansard at the request of the member or minister, with the following exceptions:

- (1) Where the speech contains a statement under s 85(5)(c) of the Constitution Act 1975, that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.
- (2) Where a speech contains a statement under s 31(1)(c) of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 must be delivered verbally to the House.

16 Time limit for lead speakers

For the purposes of Standing Order 131, and subject to any agreement to the contrary, additional time provided for the lead speaker of any other party does not apply where such a party has advised the Speaker that it is in a coalition arrangement with another party.'

- 2 *MS ALLAN — To move, That this House authorises and requires the Clerk to table copies of proclamations of the Governor in Council fixing dates for the coming into operation of Acts, as published in the Government Gazette from time to time.

ORDERS OF THE DAY

- 1 *BACK TO WORK BILL 2014 — Second reading.
- 2 *EDUCATION AND TRAINING REFORM AMENDMENT (FUNDING OF NON-GOVERNMENT SCHOOLS) BILL 2014 — Second reading.

- 3 *WRONGS AMENDMENT (ASBESTOS RELATED CLAIMS) BILL 2014 — Second reading.
- 4 *STATUTE LAW REPEALS BILL 2014 — Second reading.
- 5 *ADDRESS-IN-REPLY TO THE GOVERNOR'S SPEECH — Motion for — Resumption of debate (Mr Crisp).

GENERAL BUSINESS

NOTICES GIVEN ON 23 DECEMBER 2014

- 1 *MR WALSH — To move, That this House condemns the Premier and the Minister for Roads and Road Safety for not committing to fund the new Echuca bridge and commends the former Deputy Premier for previously allocating $96 million for construction.
- 2 *MR WALSH— To move, That this House condemns the Andrews Labor Government for failing to commit funding for the replacement of the white ant infested class rooms at the Kyabram P-12 school.
- 3 *MR HODGETT — To move, That this House condemns the Premier for ripping up the contracts for East West Link and putting Victoria in a parlous financial situation.
- 4 *MR SMITH (Warrandyte) — To move, That this House urges the Labor Government to recognise that Warrandyte High School has been without urgent capital works funding for the past 15 years and calls on the Minister for Education to match the former Coalition Government's funding commitment of $4 million for the school's redevelopment.
- 5 *MR WALSH — To move, That this House condemns the Andrews Labor Government for not funding a new school in Echuca for the merger of the Echuca South, Echuca West and the Echuca Specialist School as promised by the Coalition in government.
- 6 *MS VICTORIA — To move, That this House condemns the Andrews Labor Government for their myopic view on Melbourne's transportation system, ignoring the need for the East West Link in a rapidly growing city.
- 7 *MR HODGETT — To move, That this House condemns the Minister for Public Transport for having no plans to establish a rail link to the Melbourne Airport.
- 8 *MR SMITH (Warrandyte) — To move, That this House urges the Labor Government to recognise that Donvale Primary School has been without urgent capital works funding for the past 15 years and calls on the Minister for Education to match the former Coalition Government's funding commitment of $1.5 million for the school's redevelopment.
- 9 *MR SMITH (Warrandyte) — To move, That this House urges the Labor Government to recognise that Wonga Park Primary School has been without urgent capital works funding for the past 15 years and calls on the Minister for Education to match the former Coalition Government's funding commitment of $1 million.
- 10 *MR SMITH (Warrandyte) — To move, That this House calls on the Labor Government to support the inspiring young Victorians of Scouts Victoria, and further calls on the Minister for Youth Affairs to support the Warrandyte/Park Orchards Scouts by matching the former Coalition Government's commitment of $30,000 to upgrade their Scout Hall at Stiggants Reserve, Warrandyte.

- 11 *MR SMITH (Warrandyte) — To move, That this House calls on the Labor Government to support the growing sport of mountain biking, and further calls on the Minister for Environment, Climate Change and Water to match the $250,000 commitment made by the former Coalition Government to expand the mountain bike trails in Warrandyte State Park.
- 12 *MR NORTHE — To move, That this House condemns the State Labor Government for failing to pledge any pre-election support for Gippsland Carers Association and Barrier Breakers, and further notes that such a lack of commitment verifies that Labor simply does not care for carer or mental health advocate organisations in Gippsland.
- 13 *MR NORTHE — To move, That this House notes the failure of the Labor Government to announce any pre-election funding commitment to rebuild the 50 year old Newborough CFA station, and further notes the Coalition's pledge of $1.2 million towards this vital project.
- 14 *MR HODGETT — To move, That this House condemns the Government for having no plans to address Melbourne's growing road requirements to cater for the city's increasing car and truck traffic.
- 15 *MR BURGESS — To move, That this House calls on the State Government to stop playing political games with the future of Victorians, in particular the people of the Hastings district, and continue developing the Port of Hastings in keeping with the process put in place by the previous government's plans.
- 16 *MR BURGESS — To move, That this House calls on the State Government to honour the previous government's commitment to provide $500,000 to the Langwarrin Football, Netball and Cricket Clubs, to upgrade the pavilion and install night football and night cricket lights at Lloyd Park in Langwarrin.
- 17 *MR BURGESS — To move, That this House calls on the State Government to honour the previous government's commitment to provide $250,000 to the Pearcedale Football, Netball and Cricket Clubs to install night football and night cricket lights.
- 18 *MR BURGESS — To move, That this House calls on the State Government to honour the previous government's commitment to provide $250,00 to the Somerville Football, Netball and Cricket Clubs to install night football and night cricket lights at the Jones Road Reserve.
- 19 *MR BURGESS — To move, That this House calls on the State Government to continue the previous government's commitment to provide $100,000 to the Tyabb Football and Netball Club to allow it to build two netball courts with lighting.
- 20 *MR BURGESS — To move, That this House calls on the State Government to continue the previous government's commitment to provide $100,000 to the Crib Point Football and Netball Club to allow it to install lighting on its two new netball courts.
- 21 *MR HODGETT — To move, That this House condemns the Minister for Ports for risking the jobs of the staff and contractors at the Port of Hastings Development Authority only days before Christmas.
- 22 *MS VICTORIA — To move, That this House condemns the Andrews Labor Government for misleading the Victorian public on their already failing jobs plan, which now sits at less than negative 3700.
- 23 *MS VICTORIA — To move, That this House condemns the Andrews Labor government for ignoring the needs of the Bayswater district residents who have lost all hope of their daily commute being shortened with the building of the East West Link.

- 24 *MS VICTORIA — To move, That this House congratulates the former Premier and Member for South-West Coast, Dr Denis Napthine, for his leadership, compassion and unwavering dedication to the people of Victoria over many years.
- 25 *MR WAKELING — To move, That this House condemns the Minister for Education for callously axing $21.7 million to upgrade six Knox schools including Scoresby and Rowville Secondary Colleges and Fairhills High School.
- 26 *MR HODGETT — To move, That this House condemns the Premier for destroying the thousands of jobs that there would have been if he had not ripped up the East West contracts.
- 27 *MR MORRIS — To move, That this House condemns the Andrews Government for its complete and absolute disdain for public education in the Mornington electorate, and calls on the Minister for Education to fund the proposed $960,000 refresh and refurbishment works at Osborne Primary School in Mount Martha.
- 28 *MR MORRIS — To move, That this House notes the tragic death in late 2014 at the intersection of Forest Drive and Nepean Highway, Mount Martha, and calls on the Andrews Government to take immediate action to ensure the safety of the many drivers, and their passengers, who pass through the intersection each day.
- 29 *MR MORRIS — To move, That this House condemns the Andrews Government for its complete and absolute disdain for public education in the Mornington electorate, and calls on the Minister for Education to fund the proposed relocation of the Mornington Special Development School.
- 30 *MR MORRIS — To move, That this House notes Victorian Labor's absolute lack of commitment to road safety improvements in the Mornington electorate, and calls on the Andrews Government to urgently address the emerging issue of driver safety at the intersections of Nepean Highway and Tower Road, and Nepean Highway and Volitans Avenue, Mount Eliza.
- 31 *MR MORRIS — To move, That this House condemns the Andrews Government for their complete and absolute disdain for public education in the Mornington electorate, and calls on the Minister for Education to fund the proposed $713,000 refresh and refurbishment works at Mornington Primary School in Mornington.
- 32 *MR BULL (Gippsland East) — To move, That this House condemns the Labor Government for showing no interest in rural Victoria, having made no election commitments east of the Latrobe Valley and west of the Grampians in the lead up to the 2014 election.
- 33 *MR BULL (Gippsland East) — To move, That this House calls on the Labor Government to commit to funding the ongoing modernisation of the Macalister Irrigation District, which commenced under the previous Government and requires ongoing investment to benefit and grow local production.
- 34 *MR BATTIN — To move, That this House condemns the Deputy Premier's failure to make any commitment to fund an upgrade for Emerald SES, leaving one of Victoria's busiest units with an outdated facility for the four years from 2014, facing challenges with training, safety, storage and keeping up with local demand.
- 35 *MR BATTIN — To move, That this House condemns the Victorian Labor Party for cutting the planned upgrade to the Pakenham/Cranbourne rail line, one of the busiest rail corridors, demonstrating their contempt for local families who rely on public transport in this major growth area.
- 36 *MR BATTIN — To move, That this House congratulates the Coalition for its significant investment in education in the Officer area from 2010 to 2014, delivering the Officer Specialist School and the soon to open Officer Secondary College, creating an education hub that students, parents and the broader community will be proud of for many years to come.

- 37 *MR BATTIN — To move, That this House calls on the Andrews Labor Government to commit to continuing the work with the CFA volunteer brigades by announcing they will ensure local stations in need of replacement will be replaced and not just get a new toilet upgrade as per their policy.
- 38 *MR BATTIN — To move, That this House calls on the Andrews Government to come clean on their future plans for Landcare, with no policy at the 2014 election that had financial backing or support to Landcare groups across the state, and ensure the ongoing funding to continue to improve our environment.
- 39 *MR BATTIN — To move, That this House condemns the Andrews Labor Government for their first act as a new Government, cutting funding to the Urban Fringe Weed Management Initiative that has been instrumental in the reduction of weeds around the Dandenong Ranges, improving environmental outcomes and reducing fire risk.
- 40 *MR NORTHE — To move, That this House notes the investment to the Morwell electorate from 2010 to 2014 and the Coalition's commitments before the 2014 election to the towns of Traralgon, Traralgon South, Newborough, Churchill, Boolarra, Yinnar, Cowwarr, Toongabbie, Glengarry, Tyers and Yallourn North, and further notes Labor's pledge to these towns is zero.
- 41 *MR NORTHE — To move, That this House condemns the Andrews Labor Government for its failure to commit any additional train services on the Gippsland line, in contrast to the Coalition, and further notes the previous neglect of Gippsland rail services by Labor, such as excluding the region from the Regional Rail Link project.
- 42 *MR NORTHE — To move, That this House calls upon the Andrews Labor Government to match the Coalition's pre-election pledge of $9 million towards the Gippsland Regional Aquatic Centre development in Traralgon, and further notes the failure of Labor to provide even one dollar of election funding for the 28,000 residents of Traralgon.
- 43 *MR WAKELING — To move, That this House condemns the Minister for Public Transport for axing $1.1 million in urgent funding to provide the construction of additional car parking at Ferntree Gully railway station.
- 44 *MR WAKELING — To move, That this House condemns the Minister for Education for his callous attack on the South Barwon community by ripping out over $18.4 million in funding to rebuild important schools including Belmont High School, Grovedale Secondary College and Bellaire Primary School and calls on the Minister to visit these schools to justify these savage cuts.
- 45 *MR WAKELING — To move, That this House notes that one of the first actions taken by the Premier Andrews was to unceremoniously dump the Member for Yan Yean from the front bench, and further notes that if this is how the Premier will treat one of his own members of Parliament then how will he treat the Victorian community.
- 46 *MR BULL (Gippsland East) — To move, That this House calls on the Labor Government to commit to funding the completion of the Sale Specialist School, given Labor pointed out the great need for this to occur when in opposition and it would be very hypocritical not to act on this great need.
- 47 *MR BULL (Gippsland East) — To move, That this House calls on the Labor Government to commit to funding Stage Two of the Bairnsdale Secondary College as the Coalition did before the 2014 election, so that East Gippsland's biggest school for enrolments does not remain half built.
- 48 *MR BULL (Gippsland East) — To move, That this House calls on the Labor Government to commit to the continuation of the extremely successful wild dog bounty that it has disastrously proposed to scrap and recognise that all forms of control are required to combat the wild dog problem in the east of Victoria.

- 49 *MR CLARK — To move, That this House calls on the Premier to declare whether he condones the conduct of John Setka and the CFMEU as set out in the Royal Commission into Trade Union Governance and Corruption Interim Report and whether he will refuse to accept the support of Mr Setka and the CFMEU.
- 50 *MR CLARK — To move, That this House calls on the Premier to inform the House whether he condones the conduct of Mr Cesar Melhem as set out in the Royal Commission into Trade Union Governance and Corruption Interim Report and whether he supports Mr Melhem continuing as a member of the Labor Party.
- 51 *MR CLARK — To move, That this House calls on the Premier to declare whether he condones the culture revealed by the Royal Commission into Trade Union Governance and Corruption of trade union officials and ALP members ripping off Victorian workers and trade union members in order to advance their own personal and political careers.
- 52 *MR CLARK — To move, That this House calls on the Premier to declare whether he and his faction will support moves to reform the ALP to end the culture of rorts, branch stacking and abuse of elected union offices that has been revealed by the Royal Commission into Trade Union Governance and Corruption.
- 53 *MR CLARK — To move, That this House calls on the Premier to declare whether in light of findings of the Royal Commission into Trade Union Governance and Corruption and recommendations of criminal charges against CFMEU officials he will call on his federal Labor colleagues to support legislation re-establishing the Australian Building and Construction Commission.
- 54 *MR SOUTHWICK — To move, That this House notes the big spending promises of the Labor Government that are set to spiral out of control, and further notes that Victorians will remember 23 December 2014 as the turning point from when Victoria's strong economy and budget surpluses will be a thing of the past.
- 55 *MR SOUTHWICK — To move, That this House condemns the Labor Party's misleading election commitments including the claim that only they will remove the North Road level crossing which was already funded by the Victorian Coalition in the 2014–15 state Budget.
- 56 *MR SOUTHWICK — To move, That this House condemns Premier Andrews for his plans to rip up Government contracts signalling a dangerous sign to industry that this Government does not honour commitments and has no idea how to manage money.
- 57 *MR SOUTHWICK — To move, That this House condemns the Premier for flagging to rip up Government contracts which will destroy 3,000 Victorian jobs, demonstrating the only jobs Labor will protect are their own.
- 58 *MR SOUTHWICK — To move, That this House calls on the Premier to show consistency and transparency by releasing the costings for all the bungled Labor projects including the desalination plant, myki, smart meters and the north–south pipeline.
- 59 *MR KATOS — To move, That this House condemns the Andrews Labor Government for wanting to tear up the East West Link contracts, hence consigning Geelong commuters to be stuck in traffic indefinitely.
- 60 *MR KATOS — To move, That this House condemns the Andrews Labor Government for not committing to upgrade Grovedale Secondary College, Highton Primary School, Bellaire Primary School, Nazareth Catholic Primary School and Belmont High School.
- 61 *MR KATOS — To move, That this House condemns the Andrews Labor Government for only committing $11.35 million to the South Barwon electorate despite it containing the second largest growth area in the state in Armstrong Creek.

- 62 *MR KATOS — To move, That this House condemns the Andrews Labor Government for not committing to fund the Grovedale Football Club, Grovedale Tennis Club, Barwon Soccer Club and Torquay Netball Club, hence completely ignoring grass roots local sporting clubs in the South Barwon electorate.
- 63 *MR KATOS — To move, That this House asks the Andrews Labor Government to explain to the ratepayers of Geelong and the Surf Coast which services will be cut by their proposed rates cap despite Labor councillors in both municipalities voting in 2013 to increase rates above the consumer price index.
- 64 *MR DIXON — To move, That this House calls on the Government to categorically rule out any further deepening of the shipping channel through Port Phillip Heads.
- 65 *MR DIXON — To move, That this House calls on the Government to explain how ships of more than 14 metre draught will be able to enter Port Phillip Heads.
- 66 *MR DIXON — To move, That this House calls on the Government to tell drivers of cars, trucks and vans stuck on the Monash and Eastern Freeways how and when they will decongest these roads and cater for Melbourne's growth.
- 67 *MR DIXON — To move, That this House notes that while Labor members of Parliament pretend to dislike the Greens, most of them could not get half of their electorate to vote for them and are only in this House thanks to the preferences of their good friends, the Greens.
- 68 *MR DIXON — To move, That this House congratulates the Athurs Seat Skylift group for their successful application to build and operate the new all weather, all access gondola skylift.
- 69 *MS ASHER — To move, That this House calls on the Labor Government to honour its $10 million election commitment to Elwood Secondary College, and further calls on the Government to honour the verbal commitment made by the Minister for Creative Industries on 5 September 2014 that this will be in Labor's first budget.
- 70 *MS McLEISH — To move, That this House notes the lack of leadership and backbone shown by the Premier, who has happily deferred control of the state to his mates in the union, showing he has no vision or plans for Victoria, and that he is prepared to betray Victorians by putting his mates first.
- 71 *MS McLEISH — To move, That this House condemns the Premier for his irresponsible decision to rip up the East West Link contracts, providing a signal to businesses locally, nationally and internationally that Victoria is now "closed for business" and consigning the state to the economic back blocks and employment doldrums for the coming years.
- 72 *MS McLEISH — To move, That this House condemns the Premier for so willingly contributing to the Victorian unemployment rate by sending hundreds of workers involved in the East West Link to the dole queues at Christmas and at a time when he continually claims the state is in the midst of a jobs crisis.
- 73 *MS McLEISH — To move, That this House condemns the Premier and his cabinet colleagues for willingly contributing to the Victorian unemployment rate through the cessation of works on the East West Link, flying completely in the face of their claim the state is in a jobs crisis and they are going to tackle it.
- 74 *MS McLEISH — To move, That this House condemns the Premier and the Labor Government for ripping $4.2 million from the Coalition's community ice budget, which will have an immediate impact on front line services and education programs, much needed components in the fight to tackle the ice problem and support families in Victoria.

- 75 *MS McLEISH — To move, That this House applauds the CFA for their great efforts so early into the fire season and notes the intent of the Labor Government to rip the voluntary spirit from the CFA by giving control of the organisation to the union in a move condemned by Volunteer Fire Brigades Victoria.
- 76 *MS McLEISH — To move, That this House condemns the Premier and his ministry for letting down the people of the Eildon electorate with only one commitment made prior to the election across the electorate's entire 10,000 square kilometres, indicating that Labor will again focus on the city and neglect country Victoria.
- 77 *MS McLEISH — To move, That this House condemns the Minister for Education, who despite big noting himself during the election campaign, has actually let down the teachers, staff and students at the Upper Yarra Secondary College by failing to make a commitment to improve their facilities.
- 78 *MS McLEISH — To move, That this House congratulates the former Government for the great initiative to fund free CBD/Docklands trams and notes the appalling lack of integrity shown by the Premier in trying to claim the initiative as his own.
- 79 *MS McLEISH — To move, That this House congratulates the former Government for the great initiative to provide zone one and two travel for the price of zone one.
- 80 *MR THOMPSON (Sandringham) — To move, That this House calls upon the Labor Government to cease its plans for Bay West so as to not jeopardise the coastline of Port Phillip.
- 81 *MR THOMPSON (Sandringham) — To move, That this House calls upon the Labor Government to respect the Neighbourhood Residential Zones in the City of Bayside and the diminution of the density of development along the Frankston train line.
- 82 *MR THOMPSON (Sandringham) — To move, That this House calls upon the Labor Government to deliver on its commitment made on 11 November 2014 to grade separate road and rail in Mentone and remove the Balcombe Road level crossing.
- 83 *MR THOMPSON (Sandringham) — To move, That this House calls upon the Labor Government to work with Transdev Melbourne to both maintain and extend the level of bus services 600, 922 and 923 in the Sandringham electorate.
- 84 *MR THOMPSON (Sandringham) — To move, That this House calls upon the Labor Government to deliver on its commitment on 11 November 2014 to grade separate road and rail in Cheltenham and remove the Charman Road level crossing.
- 85 *MRS FYFFE — To move, That this House condemns the Andrews Labor Government for removing $42 million from result-producing ice drug prevention programs and replacing it with an advisory body which, although having a worthy membership, will not produce any results for some time.
- 86 *MRS FYFFE — To move, That this House condemns Premier Andrews for stopping work on East West Link, putting hard working Victorians out of work just before Christmas, and stopping the employment of 3,700 Victorians on stage one.
- 87 *MRS FYFFE — To move, That this House condemns the Minister for Environment, Climate Change and Water for claiming that science is already in on alpine grazing when the trial is still underway, and announcing that the trial was stopped without even attempting consultation with the mountain cattlemen.
- 88 *MRS FYFFE — To move, That this House condemns the Premier for downgrading agriculture by putting the Department of Primary Industries in a super department and downgrading an industry worth over $11 billion that is rapidly growing and could double food production by 2030.

- 89 *MRS FYFFE — To move, That this House condemns the Premier for scheduling a sitting day on 11 November 2015, preventing members of Parliament from paying their respects in their local area when communities come together to honour those men and women who served and those who did not come home.
- 90 *MR CRISP — To move, That this House urges the Government to fund the Almond Industry Centre of Excellence in Mildura.
- 91 *MR CRISP — To move, That this House urges Labor to invest in the extension of the Mildura Airport runway to allow 737 aircraft to safely operate in all weather conditions.
- 92 *MR CRISP — To move, That this House urges the Labor Government to honour the 2014–15 budget commitment of $220 million for the Murray Basin Rail Project to allow the economic and effective transport of grain, mineral sands and high value horticulture to markets.
- 93 *MR CRISP — To move, That this House urges the Labor Government to fund the completion of the Merbein P–10 College as part of its commitment to making Victoria the ‘Education State’.
- 94 *MR CRISP — To move, That this House urges Labor to demonstrate its commitment to making Victoria the ‘Education State’ by funding the completion of the Robinvale P–12 school.
- 95 *MR McCURDY — To move, That this House condemns the disappointing and lacklustre response by the Government into the Law Reform, Drugs and Crime Prevention Committee’s report on the inquiry into the supply and use of methamphetamines, particularly ‘ice’, in Victoria.
- 96 *MR McCURDY — To move, That this House calls on the Premier to urgently support fruit farmers affected by the recent hail damage to crops.

- 106 *MR ANGUS — To move, That this House calls on the Government to apologise to the veteran community for scheduling a parliamentary sitting day on remembrance day, thereby preventing members of Parliament attending local commemorative events and supporting local veterans and their families on this important day.
- 107 *MR ANGUS — To move, That this House calls on the Labor Party to apologise to the residents of the electorate of Forest Hill for discontinuing with the much needed East West Link project, thus condemning road users to traffic chaos for years to come.
- 108 *MR ANGUS — To move, That this House expresses its support for the much needed East West Link project, and condemns the Labor Party for committing to scrap this project, thereby costing Victoria over 3,000 direct jobs and countless indirect jobs.
- 109 *MR ANGUS — To move, That this House calls on the Government to condemn the inappropriate and most likely illegal activities being undertaken by various trade unions as disclosed in the Royal Commission into Trade Union Governance and Corruption Interim Report.
- 110 *MR ANGUS — To move, That this House calls on the Premier to take action against the Member for Western Metropolitan Region, Cesar Melham, following the revelations disclosed in the Royal Commission into Trade Union Governance and Corruption Interim Report.
- 111 *MS RYALL — To move, That this House notes that since Labor's election, Victorians have to pay Labor's $540 million to Tatts, a $28 million former Labor Government slush fund was uncovered, the CFMEU blockaded a construction site, there have been two bus strikes and Victoria is exposed to business uncertainty with East West Link.
- 112 *MS RYALL — To move, That this House condemns the Labor Party for failing to care about or understand the needs of business in Victoria by stopping work on the East West Link and consigning the future of Victoria's businesses to the emergency lane of the Australian economy.
- 113 *MS RYALL — To move, That this House condemns the Labor Party for leaving Victoria in structural deficit when last in government, not knowing how it would have repaired it while preserving Victoria's AAA credit rating, and notes Labor's learnt nothing by now committing Victorians to unfunded promises and increased pressure on productivity and jobs.
- 114 *MS RYALL — To move, That this House condemns the Labor Party for their hypocrisy, on one hand saying that they will fix schools and on the other ripping $10.1 million out of Ringwood schools in this term of Government, and further notes their failure to invest in schools across the former Mitcham electorate.
- 115 *MS RYALL — To move, That this House commends the Coalition on the $4.5 billion spending on hospital infrastructure across Victoria to deal with Labor's appalling legacy of massive waiting lists and limited capacity in emergency departments and hospitals, and for making sure that Labor's failure to plan for Victoria's future hospital infrastructure needs was addressed.
- 116 *MR WATT — To move, That this House calls on the Andrews Labor Government to give the people in the electorate of Burwood an assurance that it will not reintroduce the previous Labor Government's closure plan for the Ashburton Police Station.

BUSINESS TO TAKE PRECEDENCE

STATEMENTS BY MEMBERS — Under SO 40

GRIEVANCES — Debate on the question — That grievances be noted

NOTICE OF MOTION

1 MS ALLAN — To move, That the following sessional orders be adopted, to come into operation with immediate effect:

‘1 Days and times of meeting

Unless otherwise ordered, the House will meet each Tuesday at 12.00 pm, and each Wednesday and Thursday at 9.30 am.

2 Incorporation of statements of compatibility

A statement of compatibility tabled under s 28 of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 will be incorporated in Hansard, without leave being required.

3 Interruption of business for adjournment

Standing Order 32 be suspended and the following to apply:

(1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the Speaker will interrupt the business before the House at:

- (a) 7.00 pm each sitting Tuesday and Wednesday;
- (b) 5.00 pm on any other sitting day.

(2) If a division is taking place when the time for the interruption arises, the division will be completed and the result announced. If the division is on a closure motion, and the motion is agreed to, the question or questions then required to be put to close the issue before the House will also be dealt with. The Speaker will then interrupt business.

(3) If the time for the interruption arises:

- (a) at the same time as the completion time set by the government business program; or
- (b) after the interruption for the completion time of the government business program, but before all business on the program has been dealt with —

all business on the government business program will be completed first. The Speaker will then interrupt business for the adjournment.

(4) After the interruption:

- (a) before a motion for the adjournment is proposed by the Speaker, a minister may move that the sitting be continued. That motion must be put immediately without amendment or debate. If it is agreed to, the House will resume debate at the point at which it had been interrupted; or

- (b) if a motion is not moved, the Speaker will immediately propose the question 'That the House now adjourns'. Any business under discussion and any other business not concluded at the time of the adjournment will be listed on the notice paper for the next sitting day. Any member speaking at the time of the interruption may, when debate resumes, continue his or her speech.

4 Condolence motions

Where a condolence motion occurs under SO 42(1)(a), the House may adjourn for a period of one hour at the conclusion of the motion.

5 Who may ask oral questions without notice

Only non-government members may ask questions without notice under Standing Order 55.

6 Supplementary questions without notice

- (1) At the conclusion of each answer to an oral question without notice, the questioning member may ask the responding minister a supplementary question to elucidate or clarify the answer.
- (2) Supplementary questions must actually and accurately relate to the original question and must relate to or arise from the answer.

7 Ministers' statements

After each oral question without notice and any related supplementary questions, any minister may seek the call to make a statement of up to two minutes to advise the House of new government initiatives, projects and achievements.

8 Time limits on answers under SO 55 and sessional order

The time limit for the answer to each oral question is three minutes, and for the answer to each supplementary question is one minute.

9 Constituency questions

- (1) At the conclusion of oral questions without notice and ministers' statements, five government members and five non-government members may ask ministers oral questions relating to constituency matters.
- (2) Replies to constituency questions must be given in writing within 30 days by delivering a reply to the Clerk. A copy must be given to the member who asked the question, and printed in Hansard.

10 Duration of question time

Standing Order 55(2) is suspended and the following to apply:

Question time will last until five oral questions and related supplementary questions have been answered, and up to five ministers' statements have been made.

11 Content of answers

- (1) Standing Order 58(1)(a) be suspended and all answers to questions must be direct, factual, succinct and relevant.
- (2) The Speaker may determine that an answer to an oral question without notice or supplementary oral question is not responsive to the question, and may accordingly direct the minister to provide a written response to the question and lodge it with the Speaker by 2.00 pm on the next sitting day. A copy of any written response provided under this sessional order must be given to the member who asked the question and printed in Hansard.
- (3) The Speaker will determine the adequacy of a written response to a question provided under this sessional order. The Speaker may determine that a written response does not appropriately answer the question and may direct that the minister provide another written response by 2.00 pm the next sitting day. The Speaker will forward the written response to the member who asked the question, and a copy printed in Hansard.

12 Answers to questions on notice

A reply to a question on notice delivered to the Clerk under SO 54(3) must be submitted within 30 days.

13 Notices of motion

Standing Orders 140(1) and 141 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) A member may only move a motion to discuss a subject if he or she has given notice of that motion on a previous sitting day.
- (2) Copies of all notices, whether to be given verbally or in writing, must be provided to the Clerks at the table before notices are called on by the Speaker.
- (3) All notices given by ministers must be verbal.
- (4) Verbal notices must be read to the House. They can only be given before the House proceeds to the business of the day as set out in the notice paper.
- (5) All notices, except notices given under paragraph (6) given by members who are not ministers, must be given in writing. Members may give notice by lodging a copy with the Clerks in accordance with paragraph (2).
- (6) A motion by a member expressing no confidence in the Premier and ministers, in the terms set out in s 8A of the Constitution Act 1975, may only be given verbally or, where a member seeks to move the motion during formal business by leave, and leave is refused, the member may give notice of that motion.
- (7) The Clerk must notify the Speaker of a notice of a motion by a member to disallow a statutory rule to which Standing Order 151 applies, and the Speaker will report details to the House at the first convenient opportunity.

14 Responses to adjournment matters

If the minister responsible is not present in the House to respond to issues raised by members under SO 33, the minister will provide a written response to the member who raised the matter within 30 days.

15 Second reading speeches incorporated in Hansard

A second reading speech for a bill being introduced by a member or minister will be incorporated into Hansard at the request of the member or minister, with the following exceptions:

- (1) Where the speech contains a statement under s 85(5)(c) of the Constitution Act 1975, that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.
- (2) Where a speech contains a statement under s 31(1)(c) of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 must be delivered verbally to the House.

16 Time limit for lead speakers

For the purposes of Standing Order 131, and subject to any agreement to the contrary, additional time provided for the lead speaker of any other party does not apply where such a party has advised the Speaker that it is in a coalition arrangement with another party.<sup>7</sup>

- 2 MS ALLAN — To move, That this House authorises and requires the Clerk to table copies of proclamations of the Governor in Council fixing dates for the coming into operation of Acts, as published in the Government Gazette from time to time.

ORDERS OF THE DAY

- 1 BACK TO WORK BILL 2014 — Second reading.

NOTICES GIVEN ON 10 FEBRUARY 2015

- 180 *MS McLEISH — To move, That this House condemns the Premier for misleading the Victorian public by claiming the East West Link contracts are invalid and not worth the paper they were written on and now risking Victorian taxpayers to foot the bill for huge compensation payout and at the same time jeopardising Victoria's reputation.
- 181 *MR McCURDY — To move, That this House calls on the Premier to introduce a country roads and bridges policy that will meet the needs of regional Victoria, notes that Victoria doesn't stop at the outskirts of Melbourne and implores the Government to invest in country roads not white elephants.
- 182 *MR WATT — To move, That this House calls on the Andrews Labor Government to explain why they need to ask for Federal Government funding for the Bourke Road level crossing that was fully funded in the 2014/15 Budget.
- 183 *MR SOUTHWICK — To move, That this House condemns the Andrews Government for its lack of leadership and hypocrisy by introducing their flagship Back to Work Bill 2014 and then axing over 3,000 future jobs by ripping up the East West Link contract.
- 184 *MR NORTHE — To move, That this House congratulates the former Member for Gippsland South, Peter Ryan, on his incredible service to his community and the Parliament of Victoria, notes his 15 years of outstanding leadership to the Nationals, and wishes Peter, Trish and family every success for the future.

- (2) If a division is taking place when the time for the interruption arises, the division will be completed and the result announced. If the division is on a closure motion, and the motion is agreed to, the question or questions then required to be put to close the issue before the House will also be dealt with. The Speaker will then interrupt business.
- (3) If the time for the interruption arises:
  - (a) at the same time as the completion time set by the government business program; or
  - (b) after the interruption for the completion time of the government business program, but before all business on the program has been dealt with —all business on the government business program will be completed first. The Speaker will then interrupt business for the adjournment.
- (4) After the interruption:
  - (a) before a motion for the adjournment is proposed by the Speaker, a minister may move that the sitting be continued. That motion must be put immediately without amendment or debate. If it is agreed to, the House will resume debate at the point at which it had been interrupted; or

- (b) if a motion is not moved, the Speaker will immediately propose the question 'That the House now adjourns'. Any business under discussion and any other business not concluded at the time of the adjournment will be listed on the notice paper for the next sitting day. Any member speaking at the time of the interruption may, when debate resumes, continue his or her speech.

NOTICES GIVEN ON 11 FEBRUARY 2015

- 185 MS RYAN — To move, That this House condemns the Andrews Labor Government for showing contempt for the Rushworth community by failing to commit to much needed funding for the co-location of Rushworth's Hospital and its residential aged care facilities as promised by the previous Coalition Government.
- 186 MR SOUTHWICK — To move, That this House condemns the Andrews Government for proposing to rip up Victoria's move-on laws, thereby watering down police powers to allow their militant union mates to again threaten businesses with blockade protests, signalling the only jobs Labor are interested in are their own.
- 187 MR BULL (Gippsland East) — To move, That this House recognises how well received and successful the Regional Growth Fund was for rural and regional Victoria, delivering an enormous number of projects and significant investment right across rural Victoria, and calls on the current Government to commit to an equal level of investment into the regions.
- 188 MS McLEISH — To move, That this House condemns the Minister for Employment for her blatant hypocrisy in the Chamber on 10 February 2015, accusing the former Government of wrecking TAFE when she knows that when she was the Minister responsible for TAFE, she refused to listen to stakeholders and undermined the public TAFE sector.
- 189 MS RYALL — To move, That this House condemns the Labor Party for sacking employees they promised would not prior to the election and then spending $100 million of tax payer funds in an attempt to create jobs and notes that you just cannot trust what Labor says because they will do the opposite.

- (1) At the conclusion of each answer to an oral question without notice, the questioning member may ask the responding minister a supplementary question to elucidate or clarify the answer.
- (2) Supplementary questions must actually and accurately relate to the original question and must relate to or arise from the answer.

7 Ministers' statements

After each oral question without notice and any related supplementary questions, any minister may seek the call to make a statement of up to two minutes to advise the House of new government initiatives, projects and achievements.

8 Time limits on answers and questions

- (1) The time limit for each oral question, supplementary question and constituency question is one minute.
- (2) The time limit for the answer to each oral question is three minutes, and for the answer to each supplementary question is one minute.

9 Constituency questions

- (1) At the conclusion of oral questions without notice and ministers' statements, five government members and five non-government members may ask one oral question each to ministers relating to constituency matters.
- (2) Replies to constituency questions must be given in writing within 30 days by delivering a reply to the Clerk. A copy must be given to the member who asked the question, and printed in Hansard.

10 Duration of question time

Standing Order 55(2) is suspended and the following to apply:

Question time will last until five oral questions and related supplementary questions have been answered, and up to five ministers' statements have been made.

11 Content of answers

- (1) Standing Order 58(1)(a) be suspended and all answers to questions must be direct, factual, succinct and relevant.
- (2) The Speaker may determine that an answer to an oral question without notice or supplementary oral question is not responsive to the question, and may accordingly direct the minister to provide a written response to the question and lodge it with the Speaker by 2.00 pm on the next sitting day. A copy of any written response provided under this sessional order must be given to the member who asked the question and printed in Hansard.
- (3) The Speaker will determine the adequacy of a written response to a question provided under this sessional order. The Speaker may determine that a written response does not appropriately answer the question and may direct that the minister provide another written response by 2.00 pm the next sitting day. The Speaker will forward the written response to the member who asked the question, and a copy will be printed in Hansard.

12 Answers to questions on notice

A reply to a question on notice delivered to the Clerk under SO 54(3) must be submitted within 30 days.

13 Notices of motion

Standing Orders 140(1) and 141 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) A member may only move a motion to discuss a subject if he or she has given notice of that motion on a previous sitting day.
- (2) Copies of all notices, whether to be given verbally or in writing, must be provided to the Clerks at the table before notices are called on by the Speaker.
- (3) All notices given by ministers must be verbal.
- (4) Verbal notices must be read to the House. They can only be given before the House proceeds to the business of the day as set out in the notice paper.
- (5) All notices, except notices given under paragraph (6) given by members who are not ministers, must be given in writing. Members may give notice by lodging a copy with the Clerks in accordance with paragraph (2).

- (6) A motion by a member expressing no confidence in the Premier and ministers, in the terms set out in s 8A of the Constitution Act 1975, may only be given verbally or, where a member seeks to move the motion during formal business by leave, and leave is refused, the member may give notice of that motion.
- (7) The Clerk must notify the Speaker of a notice of a motion by a member to disallow a statutory rule to which Standing Order 151 applies, and the Speaker will report details to the House at the first convenient opportunity.

14 Responses to adjournment matters

If the minister responsible is not present in the House to respond to issues raised by members under SO 33, the minister will provide a written response to the member who raised the matter within 30 days.

15 Second reading speeches incorporated in Hansard

A second reading speech for a bill being introduced by a member or minister will be incorporated into Hansard at the request of the member or minister, with the following exceptions:

- (1) Where the speech contains a statement under s 85(5)(c) of the Constitution Act 1975, that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.
- (2) Where a speech contains a statement under s 31(5) of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.

16 Time limit for lead speakers

For the purposes of Standing Order 131, and subject to any agreement to the contrary, additional time provided for the lead speaker of any other party does not apply where such a party has advised the Speaker that it is in a coalition arrangement with another party.

17 Order of business

- (1) So much of standing orders as provide for question time to be held at 2.00 pm on sitting days other than Tuesdays is suspended to allow for question time to be held at 11.00 am on those days.
- (2) In Standing Order No 55, for '2.00 pm', wherever occurring, read '11.00 am'.
- (3) So much of Standing Order Nos 36, 38, 39 and 41 be suspended so as to enable the following order of business on:

Wednesdays

SESSIONAL ORDERS

Sessional orders were adopted by the House on 12 February 2015.

1 Days and times of meeting

Unless otherwise ordered, the House will meet each Tuesday at 12.00 pm, and each Wednesday and Thursday at 9.30 am.

2 Incorporation of statements of compatibility

A statement of compatibility tabled under s28 of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 will be incorporated in Hansard, without leave being required.

3 Interruption of business for adjournment

Standing Order 32 be suspended and the following to apply:

Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the Speaker will interrupt the business before the House at:

- (a) 7.00 pm each sitting Tuesday and Wednesday;
- (b) 5.00 pm on any other sitting day.

If a division is taking place when the time for the interruption arises, the division will be completed and the result announced. If the division is on a closure motion, and the motion is agreed to, the question or questions then required to be put to close the issue before the House will also be dealt with. The Speaker will then interrupt business.

If the time for the interruption arises:

- (c) at the same time as the completion time set by the government business program; or
- (d) after the interruption for the completion time of the government business program, but before all business on the program has been dealt with —

all business on the government business program will be completed first. The Speaker will then interrupt business for the adjournment.

After the interruption:

- (e) before a motion for the adjournment is proposed by the Speaker, a minister may move that the sitting be continued. That motion must be put immediately without amendment or debate. If it is agreed to, the House will resume debate at the point at which it had been interrupted; or
- (f) if a motion is not moved, the Speaker will immediately propose the question 'That the House now adjourns'. Any business under discussion and any other business not concluded at the time of the adjournment will be listed on the notice paper for the next sitting day. Any member speaking at the time of the interruption may, when debate resumes, continue his or her speech.

4 Condolence motions

Where a condolence motion occurs under SO 42(1)(a), the House may adjourn for a period of one hour at the conclusion of the motion.

5 Who may ask oral questions without notice

Only non-government members may ask questions without notice under Standing Order 55.

6 Supplementary questions without notice

- (1) At the conclusion of each answer to an oral question without notice, the questioning member may ask the responding minister a supplementary question to elucidate or clarify the answer.
- (2) Supplementary questions must actually and accurately relate to the original question and must relate to or arise from the answer.

7 Ministers' statements

After each oral question without notice and any related supplementary questions, any minister may seek the call to make a statement of up to two minutes to advise the House of new government initiatives, projects and achievements.

8 Time limits on answers and questions

- (1) The time limit for each oral question, supplementary question and constituency question is one minute.
- (2) The time limit for the answer to each oral question is three minutes, and for the answer to each supplementary question is one minute.

9 Constituency questions

- (1) At the conclusion of oral questions without notice and ministers' statements, five government members and five non-government members may ask one oral question each to ministers relating to constituency matters.
- (2) Replies to constituency questions must be given in writing within 30 days by delivering a reply to the Clerk. A copy must be given to the member who asked the question, and printed in Hansard.

10 Duration of question time

Standing Order 55(2) is suspended and the following to apply:

Question time will last until five oral questions and related supplementary questions have been answered, and up to five ministers' statements have been made.

11 Content of answers

- (1) Standing Order 58(1)(a) be suspended and all answers to questions must be direct, factual, succinct and relevant.
- (2) The Speaker may determine that an answer to an oral question without notice or supplementary oral question is not responsive to the question, and may accordingly direct the minister to provide a written response to the question and lodge it with the Speaker by 2.00 pm on the next sitting day. A copy of any written response provided under this sessional order must be given to the member who asked the question and printed in Hansard.
- (3) The Speaker will determine the adequacy of a written response to a question provided under this sessional order. The Speaker may determine that a written response does not appropriately answer the question and may direct that the minister provide another written response by 2.00 pm the next sitting day. The Speaker will forward the written response to the member who asked the question, and a copy will be printed in Hansard.

12 Answers to questions on notice

A reply to a question on notice delivered to the Clerk under SO 54(3) must be submitted within 30 days.

13 Notices of motion

Standing Orders 140(1) and 141 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) A member may only move a motion to discuss a subject if he or she has given notice of that motion on a previous sitting day.
- (2) Copies of all notices, whether to be given verbally or in writing, must be provided to the Clerks at the table before notices are called on by the Speaker.

SCRUTINY OF ACTS AND REGULATIONS (JOINT) — Mr Bull (Sunbury), Ms Blandthorn, Mr Dimopoulos, Ms Kealy, Ms Kilkenny and Mr Pesutto.

SESSIONAL ORDERS

Sessional orders were adopted by the House on 12 February 2015.

1 Days and times of meeting

Unless otherwise ordered, the House will meet each Tuesday at 12.00 pm, and each Wednesday and Thursday at 9.30 am.

2 Incorporation of statements of compatibility

A statement of compatibility tabled under s28 of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 will be incorporated in Hansard, without leave being required.

3 Interruption of business for adjournment

Standing Order 32 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the Speaker will interrupt the business before the House at:
  - (a) 7.00 pm each sitting Tuesday and Wednesday;
  - (b) 5.00 pm on any other sitting day.
- (2) If a division is taking place when the time for the interruption arises, the division will be completed and the result announced. If the division is on a closure motion, and the motion is agreed to, the question or questions then required to be put to close the issue before the House will also be dealt with. The Speaker will then interrupt business.
- (3) If the time for the interruption arises:
  - (a) at the same time as the completion time set by the government business program; or
  - (b) after the interruption for the completion time of the government business program, but before all business on the program has been dealt with —

all business on the government business program will be completed first. The Speaker will then interrupt business for the adjournment.
- (4) After the interruption:
  - (a) before a motion for the adjournment is proposed by the Speaker, a minister may move that the sitting be continued. That motion must be put immediately without amendment or debate. If it is agreed to, the House will resume debate at the point at which it had been interrupted; or
  - (b) if a motion is not moved, the Speaker will immediately propose the question 'That the House now adjourns'. Any business under discussion and any other business not concluded at the time of the adjournment will be listed on the notice paper for the next sitting day. Any member speaking at the time of the interruption may, when debate resumes, continue his or her speech.

4 Condolence motions

Where a condolence motion occurs under SO 42(1)(a), the House may adjourn for a period of one hour at the conclusion of the motion.

5 Who may ask oral questions without notice

Only non-government members may ask questions without notice under Standing Order 55.

6 Supplementary questions without notice

- (1) At the conclusion of each answer to an oral question without notice, the questioning member may ask the responding minister a supplementary question to elucidate or clarify the answer.
- (2) Supplementary questions must actually and accurately relate to the original question and must relate to or arise from the answer.

7 Ministers' statements

After each oral question without notice and any related supplementary questions, any minister may seek the call to make a statement of up to two minutes to advise the House of new government initiatives, projects and achievements.

8 Time limits on answers and questions

- (1) The time limit for each oral question, supplementary question and constituency question is one minute.
- (2) The time limit for the answer to each oral question is three minutes, and for the answer to each supplementary question is one minute.

9 Constituency questions

- (1) At the conclusion of oral questions without notice and ministers' statements, five government members and five non-government members may ask one oral question each to ministers relating to constituency matters.
- (2) Replies to constituency questions must be given in writing within 30 days by delivering a reply to the Clerk. A copy must be given to the member who asked the question, and printed in Hansard.

10 Duration of question time

Standing Order 55(2) is suspended and the following to apply:

Question time will last until five oral questions and related supplementary questions have been answered, and up to five ministers' statements have been made.

11 Content of answers

- (1) Standing Order 58(1)(a) be suspended and all answers to questions must be direct, factual, succinct and relevant.
- (2) The Speaker may determine that an answer to an oral question without notice or supplementary oral question is not responsive to the question, and may accordingly direct the minister to provide a written response to the question and lodge it with the Speaker by 2.00 pm on the next sitting day. A copy of any written response provided under this sessional order must be given to the member who asked the question and printed in Hansard.
- (3) The Speaker will determine the adequacy of a written response to a question provided under this sessional order. The Speaker may determine that a written response does not appropriately answer the question and may direct that the minister provide another written response by 2.00 pm the next sitting day. The Speaker will forward the written response to the member who asked the question, and a copy will be printed in Hansard.

12 Answers to questions on notice

A reply to a question on notice delivered to the Clerk under SO 54(3) must be submitted within 30 days.

13 Notices of motion

Standing Orders 140(1) and 141 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) A member may only move a motion to discuss a subject if he or she has given notice of that motion on a previous sitting day.
- (2) Copies of all notices, whether to be given verbally or in writing, must be provided to the Clerks at the table before notices are called on by the Speaker.
- (3) All notices given by ministers must be verbal.
- (4) Verbal notices must be read to the House. They can only be given before the House proceeds to the business of the day as set out in the notice paper.
- (5) All notices, except notices given under paragraph (6) given by members who are not ministers, must be given in writing. Members may give notice by lodging a copy with the Clerks in accordance with paragraph (2).

- (6) A motion by a member expressing no confidence in the Premier and ministers, in the terms set out in s 8A of the Constitution Act 1975, may only be given verbally or, where a member seeks to move the motion during formal business by leave, and leave is refused, the member may give notice of that motion.
- (7) The Clerk must notify the Speaker of a notice of a motion by a member to disallow a statutory rule to which Standing Order 151 applies, and the Speaker will report details to the House at the first convenient opportunity.

14 Responses to adjournment matters

If the minister responsible is not present in the House to respond to issues raised by members under SO 33, the minister will provide a written response to the member who raised the matter within 30 days.

15 Second reading speeches incorporated in Hansard

A second reading speech for a bill being introduced by a member or minister will be incorporated into Hansard at the request of the member or minister, with the following exceptions:

- (1) Where the speech contains a statement under s 85(5)(c) of the Constitution Act 1975, that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.
- (2) Where a speech contains a statement under s 31(5) of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.

16 Time limit for lead speakers

For the purposes of Standing Order 131, and subject to any agreement to the contrary, additional time provided for the lead speaker of any other party does not apply where such a party has advised the Speaker that it is in a coalition arrangement with another party.

17 Order of business

- (1) So much of standing orders as provide for question time to be held at 2.00 pm on sitting days other than Tuesdays is suspended to allow for question time to be held at 11.00 am on those days.
- (2) In Standing Order No 55, for '2.00 pm', wherever occurring, read '11.00 am'.
- (3) So much of Standing Order Nos 36, 38, 39 and 41 be suspended so as to enable the following order of business on:

Wednesdays

Formal Business
 Disallowance motions
 Statements by members

SESSIONAL ORDERS

Sessional orders were adopted by the House on 12 February 2015.

1 Days and times of meeting

Unless otherwise ordered, the House will meet each Tuesday at 12.00 pm, and each Wednesday and Thursday at 9.30 am.

2 Incorporation of statements of compatibility

A statement of compatibility tabled under s 28 of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 will be incorporated in Hansard, without leave being required.

3 Interruption of business for adjournment

Standing Order 32 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the Speaker will interrupt the business before the House at:
  - (a) 7.00 pm each sitting Tuesday and Wednesday;
  - (b) 5.00 pm on any other sitting day.
- (2) If a division is taking place when the time for the interruption arises, the division will be completed and the result announced. If the division is on a closure motion, and the motion is agreed to, the question or questions then required to be put to close the issue before the House will also be dealt with. The Speaker will then interrupt business.
- (3) If the time for the interruption arises:
  - (a) at the same time as the completion time set by the government business program; or
  - (b) after the interruption for the completion time of the government business program, but before all business on the program has been dealt with —

all business on the government business program will be completed first. The Speaker will then interrupt business for the adjournment.
- (4) After the interruption:
  - (a) before a motion for the adjournment is proposed by the Speaker, a minister may move that the sitting be continued. That motion must be put immediately without amendment or debate. If it is agreed to, the House will resume debate at the point at which it had been interrupted; or
  - (b) if a motion is not moved, the Speaker will immediately propose the question 'That the House now adjourns'. Any business under discussion and any other business not concluded at the time of the adjournment will be listed on the notice paper for the next sitting day. Any member speaking at the time of the interruption may, when debate resumes, continue his or her speech.

4 Condolence motions

Where a condolence motion occurs under SO 42(1)(a), the House may adjourn for a period of one hour at the conclusion of the motion.

5 Who may ask oral questions without notice

Only non-government members may ask questions without notice under Standing Order 55.

6 Supplementary questions without notice

- (1) At the conclusion of each answer to an oral question without notice, the questioning member may ask the responding minister a supplementary question to elucidate or clarify the answer.
- (2) Supplementary questions must actually and accurately relate to the original question and must relate to or arise from the answer.

7 Ministers' statements

After each oral question without notice and any related supplementary questions, any minister may seek the call to make a statement of up to two minutes to advise the House of new government initiatives, projects and achievements.

8 Time limits on answers and questions

- (1) The time limit for each oral question, supplementary question and constituency question is one minute.
- (2) The time limit for the answer to each oral question is three minutes, and for the answer to each supplementary question is one minute.

9 Constituency questions

- (1) At the conclusion of oral questions without notice and ministers' statements, five government members and five non-government members may ask one oral question each to ministers relating to constituency matters.
- (2) Replies to constituency questions must be given in writing within 30 days by delivering a reply to the Clerk. A copy must be given to the member who asked the question, and printed in Hansard.

10 Duration of question time

Standing Order 55(2) is suspended and the following to apply:

Question time will last until five oral questions and related supplementary questions have been answered, and up to five ministers' statements have been made.

11 Content of answers

- (1) Standing Order 58(1)(a) be suspended and all answers to questions must be direct, factual, succinct and relevant.
- (2) The Speaker may determine that an answer to an oral question without notice or supplementary oral question is not responsive to the question, and may accordingly direct the minister to provide a written response to the question and lodge it with the Speaker by 2.00 pm on the next sitting day. A copy of any written response provided under this sessional order must be given to the member who asked the question and printed in Hansard.
- (3) The Speaker will determine the adequacy of a written response to a question provided under this sessional order. The Speaker may determine that a written response does not appropriately answer the question and may direct that the minister provide another written response by 2.00 pm the next sitting day. The Speaker will forward the written response to the member who asked the question, and a copy will be printed in Hansard.

12 Answers to questions on notice

A reply to a question on notice delivered to the Clerk under SO 54(3) must be submitted within 30 days.

13 Notices of motion

Standing Orders 140(1) and 141 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) A member may only move a motion to discuss a subject if he or she has given notice of that motion on a previous sitting day.
- (2) Copies of all notices, whether to be given verbally or in writing, must be provided to the Clerks at the table before notices are called on by the Speaker.
- (3) All notices given by ministers must be verbal.
- (4) Verbal notices must be read to the House. They can only be given before the House proceeds to the business of the day as set out in the notice paper.
- (5) All notices, except notices given under paragraph (6) given by members who are not ministers, must be given in writing. Members may give notice by lodging a copy with the Clerks in accordance with paragraph (2).

- (6) A motion by a member expressing no confidence in the Premier and ministers, in the terms set out in s 8A of the Constitution Act 1975, may only be given verbally or, where a member seeks to move the motion during formal business by leave, and leave is refused, the member may give notice of that motion.
- (7) The Clerk must notify the Speaker of a notice of a motion by a member to disallow a statutory rule to which Standing Order 151 applies, and the Speaker will report details to the House at the first convenient opportunity.

14 Responses to adjournment matters

If the minister responsible is not present in the House to respond to issues raised by members under SO 33, the minister will provide a written response to the member who raised the matter within 30 days.

15 Second reading speeches incorporated in Hansard

A second reading speech for a bill being introduced by a member or minister will be incorporated into Hansard at the request of the member or minister, with the following exceptions:

- (1) Where the speech contains a statement under s 85(5)(c) of the Constitution Act 1975, that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.
- (2) Where a speech contains a statement under s 31(5) of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.

16 Time limit for lead speakers

For the purposes of Standing Order 131, and subject to any agreement to the contrary, additional time provided for the lead speaker of any other party does not apply where such a party has advised the Speaker that it is in a coalition arrangement with another party.

17 Order of business

- (1) So much of standing orders as provide for question time to be held at 2.00 pm on sitting days other than Tuesdays is suspended to allow for question time to be held at 11.00 am on those days.
- (2) In Standing Order No 55, for '2.00 pm', wherever occurring, read '11.00 am'.
- (3) So much of Standing Order Nos 36, 38, 39 and 41 be suspended so as to enable the following order of business on:

Wednesdays

Formal Business
 Disallowance motions

SESSIONAL ORDERS

Sessional orders were adopted by the House on 12 February 2015.

1 Days and times of meeting

Unless otherwise ordered, the House will meet each Tuesday at 12.00 pm, and each Wednesday and Thursday at 9.30 am.

2 Incorporation of statements of compatibility

A statement of compatibility tabled under s28 of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 will be incorporated in Hansard, without leave being required.

3 Interruption of business for adjournment

Standing Order 32 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the Speaker will interrupt the business before the House at:
  - (a) 7.00 pm each sitting Tuesday and Wednesday;
  - (b) 5.00 pm on any other sitting day.
- (2) If a division is taking place when the time for the interruption arises, the division will be completed and the result announced. If the division is on a closure motion, and the motion is agreed to, the question or questions then required to be put to close the issue before the House will also be dealt with. The Speaker will then interrupt business.
- (3) If the time for the interruption arises:
  - (a) at the same time as the completion time set by the government business program; or
  - (b) after the interruption for the completion time of the government business program, but before all business on the program has been dealt with —

all business on the government business program will be completed first. The Speaker will then interrupt business for the adjournment.
- (4) After the interruption:
  - (a) before a motion for the adjournment is proposed by the Speaker, a minister may move that the sitting be continued. That motion must be put immediately without amendment or debate. If it is agreed to, the House will resume debate at the point at which it had been interrupted; or
  - (b) if a motion is not moved, the Speaker will immediately propose the question 'That the House now adjourns'. Any business under discussion and any other business not concluded at the time of the adjournment will be listed on the notice paper for the next sitting day. Any member speaking at the time of the interruption may, when debate resumes, continue his or her speech.

4 Condolence motions

Where a condolence motion occurs under SO 42(1)(a), the House may adjourn for a period of one hour at the conclusion of the motion.

Only non-government members may ask questions without notice under Standing Order 55.

6 Supplementary questions without notice

- (1) At the conclusion of each answer to an oral question without notice, the questioning member may ask the responding minister a supplementary question to elucidate or clarify the answer.
- (2) Supplementary questions must actually and accurately relate to the original question and must relate to or arise from the answer.

7 Ministers' statements

After each oral question without notice and any related supplementary questions, any minister may seek the call to make a statement of up to two minutes to advise the House of new government initiatives, projects and achievements.

8 Time limits on answers and questions

- (1) The time limit for each oral question, supplementary question and constituency question is one minute.
- (2) The time limit for the answer to each oral question is three minutes, and for the answer to each supplementary question is one minute.

9 Constituency questions

- (1) At the conclusion of oral questions without notice and ministers' statements, five government members and five non-government members may ask one oral question each to ministers relating to constituency matters.
- (2) Replies to constituency questions must be given in writing within 30 days by delivering a reply to the Clerk. A copy must be given to the member who asked the question, and printed in Hansard.

10 Duration of question time

Standing Order 55(2) is suspended and the following to apply:

Question time will last until five oral questions and related supplementary questions have been answered, and up to five ministers' statements have been made.

11 Content of answers

- (1) Standing Order 58(1)(a) be suspended and all answers to questions must be direct, factual, succinct and relevant.
- (2) The Speaker may determine that an answer to an oral question without notice or supplementary oral question is not responsive to the question, and may accordingly direct the minister to provide a written response to the question and lodge it with the Speaker by 2.00 pm on the next sitting day. A copy of any written response provided under this sessional order must be given to the member who asked the question and printed in Hansard.
- (3) The Speaker will determine the adequacy of a written response to a question provided under this sessional order. The Speaker may determine that a written response does not appropriately answer the question and may direct that the minister provide another written response by 2.00 pm the next sitting day. The Speaker will forward the written response to the member who asked the question, and a copy will be printed in Hansard.

12 Answers to questions on notice

A reply to a question on notice delivered to the Clerk under SO 54(3) must be submitted within 30 days.

13 Notices of motion

Standing Orders 140(1) and 141 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) A member may only move a motion to discuss a subject if he or she has given notice of that motion on a previous sitting day.
- (2) Copies of all notices, whether to be given verbally or in writing, must be provided to the Clerks at the table before notices are called on by the Speaker.
- (3) All notices given by ministers must be verbal.
- (4) Verbal notices must be read to the House. They can only be given before the House proceeds to the business of the day as set out in the notice paper.
- (5) All notices, except notices given under paragraph (6) given by members who are not ministers, must be given in writing. Members may give notice by lodging a copy with the Clerks in accordance with paragraph (2).

- (6) A motion by a member expressing no confidence in the Premier and ministers, in the terms set out in s 8A of the Constitution Act 1975, may only be given verbally or, where a member seeks to move the motion during formal business by leave, and leave is refused, the member may give notice of that motion.
- (7) The Clerk must notify the Speaker of a notice of a motion by a member to disallow a statutory rule to which Standing Order 151 applies, and the Speaker will report details to the House at the first convenient opportunity.

14 Responses to adjournment matters

If the minister responsible is not present in the House to respond to issues raised by members under SO 33, the minister will provide a written response to the member who raised the matter within 30 days.

15 Second reading speeches incorporated in Hansard

A second reading speech for a bill being introduced by a member or minister will be incorporated into Hansard at the request of the member or minister, with the following exceptions:

- (1) Where the speech contains a statement under s 85(5)(c) of the Constitution Act 1975, that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.
- (2) Where a speech contains a statement under s 31(5) of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.

16 Time limit for lead speakers

For the purposes of Standing Order 131, and subject to any agreement to the contrary, additional time provided for the lead speaker of any other party does not apply where such a party has advised the Speaker that it is in a coalition arrangement with another party.

17 Order of business

- (1) So much of standing orders as provide for question time to be held at 2.00 pm on sitting days other than Tuesdays is suspended to allow for question time to be held at 11.00 am on those days.
- (2) In Standing Order No 55, for '2.00 pm', wherever occurring, read '11.00 am'.
- (3) So much of Standing Order Nos 36, 38, 39 and 41 be suspended so as to enable the following order of business on:

SESSIONAL ORDERS

Sessional orders were adopted by the House on 12 February 2015.

1 Days and times of meeting

Unless otherwise ordered, the House will meet each Tuesday at 12.00 pm, and each Wednesday and Thursday at 9.30 am.

2 Incorporation of statements of compatibility

A statement of compatibility tabled under s28 of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 will be incorporated in Hansard, without leave being required.

3 Interruption of business for adjournment

Standing Order 32 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the Speaker will interrupt the business before the House at:
  - (a) 7.00 pm each sitting Tuesday and Wednesday;
  - (b) 5.00 pm on any other sitting day.
- (2) If a division is taking place when the time for the interruption arises, the division will be completed and the result announced. If the division is on a closure motion, and the motion is agreed to, the question or questions then required to be put to close the issue before the House will also be dealt with. The Speaker will then interrupt business.
- (3) If the time for the interruption arises:
  - (a) at the same time as the completion time set by the government business program; or
  - (b) after the interruption for the completion time of the government business program, but before all business on the program has been dealt with —

all business on the government business program will be completed first. The Speaker will then interrupt business for the adjournment.
- (4) After the interruption:
  - (a) before a motion for the adjournment is proposed by the Speaker, a minister may move that the sitting be continued. That motion must be put immediately without amendment or debate. If it is agreed to, the House will resume debate at the point at which it had been interrupted; or
  - (b) if a motion is not moved, the Speaker will immediately propose the question 'That the House now adjourns'. Any business under discussion and any other business not concluded at the time of the adjournment will be listed on the notice paper for the next sitting day. Any member speaking at the time of the interruption may, when debate resumes, continue his or her speech.

4 Condolence motions

Where a condolence motion occurs under SO 42(1)(a), the House may adjourn for a period of one hour at the conclusion of the motion.

5 Who may ask oral questions without notice

Only non-government members may ask questions without notice under Standing Order 55.

6 Supplementary questions without notice

- (1) At the conclusion of each answer to an oral question without notice, the questioning member may ask the responding minister a supplementary question to elucidate or clarify the answer.
- (2) Supplementary questions must actually and accurately relate to the original question and must relate to or arise from the answer.

7 Ministers' statements

After each oral question without notice and any related supplementary questions, any minister may seek the call to make a statement of up to two minutes to advise the House of new government initiatives, projects and achievements.

8 Time limits on answers and questions

- (1) The time limit for each oral question, supplementary question and constituency question is one minute.
- (2) The time limit for the answer to each oral question is three minutes, and for the answer to each supplementary question is one minute.

9 Constituency questions

- (1) At the conclusion of oral questions without notice and ministers' statements, five government members and five non-government members may ask one oral question each to ministers relating to constituency matters.
- (2) Replies to constituency questions must be given in writing within 30 days by delivering a reply to the Clerk. A copy must be given to the member who asked the question, and printed in Hansard.

10 Duration of question time

Standing Order 55(2) is suspended and the following to apply:

Question time will last until five oral questions and related supplementary questions have been answered, and up to five ministers' statements have been made.

11 Content of answers

- (1) Standing Order 58(1)(a) be suspended and all answers to questions must be direct, factual, succinct and relevant.
- (2) The Speaker may determine that an answer to an oral question without notice or supplementary oral question is not responsive to the question, and may accordingly direct the minister to provide a written response to the question and lodge it with the Speaker by 2.00 pm on the next sitting day. A copy of any written response provided under this sessional order must be given to the member who asked the question and printed in Hansard.
- (3) The Speaker will determine the adequacy of a written response to a question provided under this sessional order. The Speaker may determine that a written response does not appropriately answer the question and may direct that the minister provide another written response by 2.00 pm the next sitting day. The Speaker will forward the written response to the member who asked the question, and a copy will be printed in Hansard.

12 Answers to questions on notice

A reply to a question on notice delivered to the Clerk under SO 54(3) must be submitted within 30 days.

13 Notices of motion

Standing Orders 140(1) and 141 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) A member may only move a motion to discuss a subject if he or she has given notice of that motion on a previous sitting day.
- (2) Copies of all notices, whether to be given verbally or in writing, must be provided to the Clerks at the table before notices are called on by the Speaker.
- (3) All notices given by ministers must be verbal.
- (4) Verbal notices must be read to the House. They can only be given before the House proceeds to the business of the day as set out in the notice paper.
- (5) All notices, except notices given under paragraph (6) given by members who are not ministers, must be given in writing. Members may give notice by lodging a copy with the Clerks in accordance with paragraph (2).

- (6) A motion by a member expressing no confidence in the Premier and ministers, in the terms set out in s 8A of the Constitution Act 1975, may only be given verbally or, where a member seeks to move the motion during formal business by leave, and leave is refused, the member may give notice of that motion.
- (7) The Clerk must notify the Speaker of a notice of a motion by a member to disallow a statutory rule to which Standing Order 151 applies, and the Speaker will report details to the House at the first convenient opportunity.

14 Responses to adjournment matters

If the minister responsible is not present in the House to respond to issues raised by members under SO 33, the minister will provide a written response to the member who raised the matter within 30 days.

15 Second reading speeches incorporated in Hansard

A second reading speech for a bill being introduced by a member or minister will be incorporated into Hansard at the request of the member or minister, with the following exceptions:

- (1) Where the speech contains a statement under s 85(5)(c) of the Constitution Act 1975, that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.
- (2) Where a speech contains a statement under s 31(5) of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.

16 Time limit for lead speakers

For the purposes of Standing Order 131, and subject to any agreement to the contrary, additional time provided for the lead speaker of any other party does not apply where such a party has advised the Speaker that it is in a coalition arrangement with another party.

17 Order of business

- (1) So much of standing orders as provide for question time to be held at 2.00 pm on sitting days other than Tuesdays is suspended to allow for question time to be held at 11.00 am on those days.
- (2) In Standing Order No 55, for '2.00 pm', wherever occurring, read '11.00 am'.

SESSIONAL ORDERS

Sessional orders were adopted by the House on 12 February 2015.

1 Days and times of meeting

Unless otherwise ordered, the House will meet each Tuesday at 12.00 pm, and each Wednesday and Thursday at 9.30 am.

2 Incorporation of statements of compatibility

A statement of compatibility tabled under s28 of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 will be incorporated in Hansard, without leave being required.

3 Interruption of business for adjournment

Standing Order 32 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the Speaker will interrupt the business before the House at:
  - (a) 7.00 pm each sitting Tuesday and Wednesday;
  - (b) 5.00 pm on any other sitting day.
- (2) If a division is taking place when the time for the interruption arises, the division will be completed and the result announced. If the division is on a closure motion, and the motion is agreed to, the question or questions then required to be put to close the issue before the House will also be dealt with. The Speaker will then interrupt business.
- (3) If the time for the interruption arises:
  - (a) at the same time as the completion time set by the government business program; or
  - (b) after the interruption for the completion time of the government business program, but before all business on the program has been dealt with —

all business on the government business program will be completed first. The Speaker will then interrupt business for the adjournment.
- (4) After the interruption:
  - (a) before a motion for the adjournment is proposed by the Speaker, a minister may move that the sitting be continued. That motion must be put immediately without amendment or debate. If it is agreed to, the House will resume debate at the point at which it had been interrupted; or
  - (b) if a motion is not moved, the Speaker will immediately propose the question 'That the House now adjourns'. Any business under discussion and any other business not concluded at the time of the adjournment will be listed on the notice paper for the next sitting day. Any member speaking at the time of the interruption may, when debate resumes, continue his or her speech.

4 Condolence motions

Where a condolence motion occurs under SO 42(1)(a), the House may adjourn for a period of one hour at the conclusion of the motion.

5 Who may ask oral questions without notice

Only non-government members may ask questions without notice under Standing Order 55.

6 Supplementary questions without notice

- (1) At the conclusion of each answer to an oral question without notice, the questioning member may ask the responding minister a supplementary question to elucidate or clarify the answer.
- (2) Supplementary questions must actually and accurately relate to the original question and must relate to or arise from the answer.

7 Ministers' statements

After each oral question without notice and any related supplementary questions, any minister may seek the call to make a statement of up to two minutes to advise the House of new government initiatives, projects and achievements.

8 Time limits on answers and questions

- (1) The time limit for each oral question, supplementary question and constituency question is one minute.
- (2) The time limit for the answer to each oral question is three minutes, and for the answer to each supplementary question is one minute.

9 Constituency questions

- (1) At the conclusion of oral questions without notice and ministers' statements, five government members and five non-government members may ask one oral question each to ministers relating to constituency matters.
- (2) Replies to constituency questions must be given in writing within 30 days by delivering a reply to the Clerk. A copy must be given to the member who asked the question, and printed in Hansard.

10 Duration of question time

Standing Order 55(2) is suspended and the following to apply:

Question time will last until five oral questions and related supplementary questions have been answered, and up to five ministers' statements have been made.

11 Content of answers

- (1) Standing Order 58(1)(a) be suspended and all answers to questions must be direct, factual, succinct and relevant.
- (2) The Speaker may determine that an answer to an oral question without notice or supplementary oral question is not responsive to the question, and may accordingly direct the minister to provide a written response to the question and lodge it with the Speaker by 2.00 pm on the next sitting day. A copy of any written response provided under this sessional order must be given to the member who asked the question and printed in Hansard.
- (3) The Speaker will determine the adequacy of a written response to a question provided under this sessional order. The Speaker may determine that a written response does not appropriately answer the question and may direct that the minister provide another written response by 2.00 pm the next sitting day. The Speaker will forward the written response to the member who asked the question, and a copy will be printed in Hansard.

12 Answers to questions on notice

A reply to a question on notice delivered to the Clerk under SO 54(3) must be submitted within 30 days.

13 Notices of motion

Standing Orders 140(1) and 141 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) A member may only move a motion to discuss a subject if he or she has given notice of that motion on a previous sitting day.
- (2) Copies of all notices, whether to be given verbally or in writing, must be provided to the Clerks at the table before notices are called on by the Speaker.
- (3) All notices given by ministers must be verbal.
- (4) Verbal notices must be read to the House. They can only be given before the House proceeds to the business of the day as set out in the notice paper.
- (5) All notices, except notices given under paragraph (6) given by members who are not ministers, must be given in writing. Members may give notice by lodging a copy with the Clerks in accordance with paragraph (2).

- (6) A motion by a member expressing no confidence in the Premier and ministers, in the terms set out in s 8A of the Constitution Act 1975, may only be given verbally or, where a member seeks to move the motion during formal business by leave, and leave is refused, the member may give notice of that motion.
- (7) The Clerk must notify the Speaker of a notice of a motion by a member to disallow a statutory rule to which Standing Order 151 applies, and the Speaker will report details to the House at the first convenient opportunity.

14 Responses to adjournment matters

If the minister responsible is not present in the House to respond to issues raised by members under SO 33, the minister will provide a written response to the member who raised the matter within 30 days.

15 Second reading speeches incorporated in Hansard

A second reading speech for a bill being introduced by a member or minister will be incorporated into Hansard at the request of the member or minister, with the following exceptions:

- (1) Where the speech contains a statement under s 85(5)(c) of the Constitution Act 1975, that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.
- (2) Where a speech contains a statement under s 31(5) of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.

16 Time limit for lead speakers

For the purposes of Standing Order 131, and subject to any agreement to the contrary, additional time provided for the lead speaker of any other party does not apply where such a party has advised the Speaker that it is in a coalition arrangement with another party.

17 Order of business

- (1) So much of standing orders as provide for question time to be held at 2.00 pm on sitting days other than Tuesdays is suspended to allow for question time to be held at 11.00 am on those days.
- (2) In Standing Order No 55, for '2.00 pm', wherever occurring, read '11.00 am'.

SESSIONAL ORDERS

Sessional orders were adopted by the House on 12 February 2015.

1 Days and times of meeting

Unless otherwise ordered, the House will meet each Tuesday at 12.00 pm, and each Wednesday and Thursday at 9.30 am.

2 Incorporation of statements of compatibility

A statement of compatibility tabled under s28 of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 will be incorporated in Hansard, without leave being required.

3 Interruption of business for adjournment

Standing Order 32 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the Speaker will interrupt the business before the House at:
  - (a) 7.00 pm each sitting Tuesday and Wednesday;
  - (b) 5.00 pm on any other sitting day.
- (2) If a division is taking place when the time for the interruption arises, the division will be completed and the result announced. If the division is on a closure motion, and the motion is agreed to, the question or questions then required to be put to close the issue before the House will also be dealt with. The Speaker will then interrupt business.
- (3) If the time for the interruption arises:
  - (a) at the same time as the completion time set by the government business program; or
  - (b) after the interruption for the completion time of the government business program, but before all business on the program has been dealt with —

all business on the government business program will be completed first. The Speaker will then interrupt business for the adjournment.
- (4) After the interruption:
  - (a) before a motion for the adjournment is proposed by the Speaker, a minister may move that the sitting be continued. That motion must be put immediately without amendment or debate. If it is agreed to, the House will resume debate at the point at which it had been interrupted; or
  - (b) if a motion is not moved, the Speaker will immediately propose the question 'That the House now adjourns'. Any business under discussion and any other business not concluded at the time of the adjournment will be listed on the notice paper for the next sitting day. Any member speaking at the time of the interruption may, when debate resumes, continue his or her speech.

4 Condolence motions

Where a condolence motion occurs under SO 42(1)(a), the House may adjourn for a period of one hour at the conclusion of the motion.

5 Who may ask oral questions without notice

Only non-government members may ask questions without notice under Standing Order 55.

6 Supplementary questions without notice

- (1) At the conclusion of each answer to an oral question without notice, the questioning member may ask the responding minister a supplementary question to elucidate or clarify the answer.
- (2) Supplementary questions must actually and accurately relate to the original question and must relate to or arise from the answer.

7 Ministers' statements

After each oral question without notice and any related supplementary questions, any minister may seek the call to make a statement of up to two minutes to advise the House of new government initiatives, projects and achievements.

8 Time limits on answers and questions

- (1) The time limit for each oral question, supplementary question and constituency question is one minute.
- (2) The time limit for the answer to each oral question is three minutes, and for the answer to each supplementary question is one minute.

9 Constituency questions

- (1) At the conclusion of oral questions without notice and ministers' statements, five government members and five non-government members may ask one oral question each to ministers relating to constituency matters.
- (2) Replies to constituency questions must be given in writing within 30 days by delivering a reply to the Clerk. A copy must be given to the member who asked the question, and printed in Hansard.

10 Duration of question time

Standing Order 55(2) is suspended and the following to apply:

Question time will last until five oral questions and related supplementary questions have been answered, and up to five ministers' statements have been made.

11 Content of answers

- (1) Standing Order 58(1)(a) be suspended and all answers to questions must be direct, factual, succinct and relevant.
- (2) The Speaker may determine that an answer to an oral question without notice or supplementary oral question is not responsive to the question, and may accordingly direct the minister to provide a written response to the question and lodge it with the Speaker by 2.00 pm on the next sitting day. A copy of any written response provided under this sessional order must be given to the member who asked the question and printed in Hansard.
- (3) The Speaker will determine the adequacy of a written response to a question provided under this sessional order. The Speaker may determine that a written response does not appropriately answer the question and may direct that the minister provide another written response by 2.00 pm the next sitting day. The Speaker will forward the written response to the member who asked the question, and a copy will be printed in Hansard.

12 Answers to questions on notice

A reply to a question on notice delivered to the Clerk under SO 54(3) must be submitted within 30 days.

13 Notices of motion

Standing Orders 140(1) and 141 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) A member may only move a motion to discuss a subject if he or she has given notice of that motion on a previous sitting day.
- (2) Copies of all notices, whether to be given verbally or in writing, must be provided to the Clerks at the table before notices are called on by the Speaker.
- (3) All notices given by ministers must be verbal.
- (4) Verbal notices must be read to the House. They can only be given before the House proceeds to the business of the day as set out in the notice paper.
- (5) All notices, except notices given under paragraph (6) given by members who are not ministers, must be given in writing. Members may give notice by lodging a copy with the Clerks in accordance with paragraph (2).

- (6) A motion by a member expressing no confidence in the Premier and ministers, in the terms set out in s 8A of the Constitution Act 1975, may only be given verbally or, where a member seeks to move the motion during formal business by leave, and leave is refused, the member may give notice of that motion.
- (7) The Clerk must notify the Speaker of a notice of a motion by a member to disallow a statutory rule to which Standing Order 151 applies, and the Speaker will report details to the House at the first convenient opportunity.

14 Responses to adjournment matters

If the minister responsible is not present in the House to respond to issues raised by members under SO 33, the minister will provide a written response to the member who raised the matter within 30 days.

15 Second reading speeches incorporated in Hansard

A second reading speech for a bill being introduced by a member or minister will be incorporated into Hansard at the request of the member or minister, with the following exceptions:

- (1) Where the speech contains a statement under s 85(5)(c) of the Constitution Act 1975, that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.
- (2) Where a speech contains a statement under s 31(5) of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.

16 Time limit for lead speakers

For the purposes of Standing Order 131, and subject to any agreement to the contrary, additional time provided for the lead speaker of any other party does not apply where such a party has advised the Speaker that it is in a coalition arrangement with another party.

17 Order of business

- (1) So much of standing orders as provide for question time to be held at 2.00 pm on sitting days other than Tuesdays is suspended to allow for question time to be held at 11.00 am on those days.
- (2) In Standing Order No 55, for '2.00 pm', wherever occurring, read '11.00 am'.
- (3) So much of Standing Order Nos 36, 38, 39 and 41 be suspended so as to enable the following order of business on:

Wednesdays

Formal Business
 Disallowance motions
 Statements by members
 Statements on parliamentary committee reports

SESSIONAL ORDERS

Sessional orders were adopted by the House on 12 February 2015.

1 Days and times of meeting

Unless otherwise ordered, the House will meet each Tuesday at 12.00 pm, and each Wednesday and Thursday at 9.30 am.

2 Incorporation of statements of compatibility

A statement of compatibility tabled under s28 of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 will be incorporated in Hansard, without leave being required.

3 Interruption of business for adjournment

Standing Order 32 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the Speaker will interrupt the business before the House at:
  - (a) 7.00 pm each sitting Tuesday and Wednesday;
  - (b) 5.00 pm on any other sitting day.
- (2) If a division is taking place when the time for the interruption arises, the division will be completed and the result announced. If the division is on a closure motion, and the motion is agreed to, the question or questions then required to be put to close the issue before the House will also be dealt with. The Speaker will then interrupt business.
- (3) If the time for the interruption arises:
  - (a) at the same time as the completion time set by the government business program; or
  - (b) after the interruption for the completion time of the government business program, but before all business on the program has been dealt with —

all business on the government business program will be completed first. The Speaker will then interrupt business for the adjournment.
- (4) After the interruption:
  - (a) before a motion for the adjournment is proposed by the Speaker, a minister may move that the sitting be continued. That motion must be put immediately without amendment or debate. If it is agreed to, the House will resume debate at the point at which it had been interrupted; or
  - (b) if a motion is not moved, the Speaker will immediately propose the question 'That the House now adjourns'. Any business under discussion and any other business not concluded at the time of the adjournment will be listed on the notice paper for the next sitting day. Any member speaking at the time of the interruption may, when debate resumes, continue his or her speech.

4 Condolence motions

Where a condolence motion occurs under SO 42(1)(a), the House may adjourn for a period of one hour at the conclusion of the motion.

5 Who may ask oral questions without notice

Only non-government members may ask questions without notice under Standing Order 55.

6 Supplementary questions without notice

- (1) At the conclusion of each answer to an oral question without notice, the questioning member may ask the responding minister a supplementary question to elucidate or clarify the answer.
- (2) Supplementary questions must actually and accurately relate to the original question and must relate to or arise from the answer.

7 Ministers' statements

After each oral question without notice and any related supplementary questions, any minister may seek the call to make a statement of up to two minutes to advise the House of new government initiatives, projects and achievements.

8 Time limits on answers and questions

- (1) The time limit for each oral question, supplementary question and constituency question is one minute.
- (2) The time limit for the answer to each oral question is three minutes, and for the answer to each supplementary question is one minute.

9 Constituency questions

- (1) At the conclusion of oral questions without notice and ministers' statements, five government members and five non-government members may ask one oral question each to ministers relating to constituency matters.
- (2) Replies to constituency questions must be given in writing within 30 days by delivering a reply to the Clerk. A copy must be given to the member who asked the question, and printed in Hansard.

10 Duration of question time

Standing Order 55(2) is suspended and the following to apply:

Question time will last until five oral questions and related supplementary questions have been answered, and up to five ministers' statements have been made.

11 Content of answers

- (1) Standing Order 58(1)(a) be suspended and all answers to questions must be direct, factual, succinct and relevant.
- (2) The Speaker may determine that an answer to an oral question without notice or supplementary oral question is not responsive to the question, and may accordingly direct the minister to provide a written response to the question and lodge it with the Speaker by 2.00 pm on the next sitting day. A copy of any written response provided under this sessional order must be given to the member who asked the question and printed in Hansard.
- (3) The Speaker will determine the adequacy of a written response to a question provided under this sessional order. The Speaker may determine that a written response does not appropriately answer the question and may direct that the minister provide another written response by 2.00 pm the next sitting day. The Speaker will forward the written response to the member who asked the question, and a copy will be printed in Hansard.

12 Answers to questions on notice

A reply to a question on notice delivered to the Clerk under SO 54(3) must be submitted within 30 days.

13 Notices of motion

Standing Orders 140(1) and 141 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) A member may only move a motion to discuss a subject if he or she has given notice of that motion on a previous sitting day.
- (2) Copies of all notices, whether to be given verbally or in writing, must be provided to the Clerks at the table before notices are called on by the Speaker.
- (3) All notices given by ministers must be verbal.
- (4) Verbal notices must be read to the House. They can only be given before the House proceeds to the business of the day as set out in the notice paper.
- (5) All notices, except notices given under paragraph (6) given by members who are not ministers, must be given in writing. Members may give notice by lodging a copy with the Clerks in accordance with paragraph (2).

- (6) A motion by a member expressing no confidence in the Premier and ministers, in the terms set out in s 8A of the Constitution Act 1975, may only be given verbally or, where a member seeks to move the motion during formal business by leave, and leave is refused, the member may give notice of that motion.
- (7) The Clerk must notify the Speaker of a notice of a motion by a member to disallow a statutory rule to which Standing Order 151 applies, and the Speaker will report details to the House at the first convenient opportunity.

14 Responses to adjournment matters

If the minister responsible is not present in the House to respond to issues raised by members under SO 33, the minister will provide a written response to the member who raised the matter within 30 days.

15 Second reading speeches incorporated in Hansard

A second reading speech for a bill being introduced by a member or minister will be incorporated into Hansard at the request of the member or minister, with the following exceptions:

- (1) Where the speech contains a statement under s 85(5)(c) of the Constitution Act 1975, that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.
- (2) Where a speech contains a statement under s 31(5) of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.

16 Time limit for lead speakers

For the purposes of Standing Order 131, and subject to any agreement to the contrary, additional time provided for the lead speaker of any other party does not apply where such a party has advised the Speaker that it is in a coalition arrangement with another party.

17 Order of business

- (1) So much of standing orders as provide for question time to be held at 2.00 pm on sitting days other than Tuesdays is suspended to allow for question time to be held at 11.00 am on those days.
- (2) In Standing Order No 55, for '2.00 pm', wherever occurring, read '11.00 am'.
- (3) So much of Standing Order Nos 36, 38, 39 and 41 be suspended so as to enable the following order of business on:

SESSIONAL ORDERS

Sessional orders were adopted by the House on 12 February 2015.

1 Days and times of meeting

Unless otherwise ordered, the House will meet each Tuesday at 12.00 pm, and each Wednesday and Thursday at 9.30 am.

2 Incorporation of statements of compatibility

A statement of compatibility tabled under s28 of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 will be incorporated in Hansard, without leave being required.

3 Interruption of business for adjournment

Standing Order 32 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the Speaker will interrupt the business before the House at:
  - (a) 7.00 pm each sitting Tuesday and Wednesday;
  - (b) 5.00 pm on any other sitting day.
- (2) If a division is taking place when the time for the interruption arises, the division will be completed and the result announced. If the division is on a closure motion, and the motion is agreed to, the question or questions then required to be put to close the issue before the House will also be dealt with. The Speaker will then interrupt business.
- (3) If the time for the interruption arises:
  - (a) at the same time as the completion time set by the government business program; or
  - (b) after the interruption for the completion time of the government business program, but before all business on the program has been dealt with —

all business on the government business program will be completed first. The Speaker will then interrupt business for the adjournment.
- (4) After the interruption:
  - (a) before a motion for the adjournment is proposed by the Speaker, a minister may move that the sitting be continued. That motion must be put immediately without amendment or debate. If it is agreed to, the House will resume debate at the point at which it had been interrupted; or
  - (b) if a motion is not moved, the Speaker will immediately propose the question 'That the House now adjourns'. Any business under discussion and any other business not concluded at the time of the adjournment will be listed on the notice paper for the next sitting day. Any member speaking at the time of the interruption may, when debate resumes, continue his or her speech.

4 Condolence motions

Where a condolence motion occurs under SO 42(1)(a), the House may adjourn for a period of one hour at the conclusion of the motion.

5 Who may ask oral questions without notice

Only non-government members may ask questions without notice under Standing Order 55.

6 Supplementary questions without notice

- (1) At the conclusion of each answer to an oral question without notice, the questioning member may ask the responding minister a supplementary question to elucidate or clarify the answer.
- (2) Supplementary questions must actually and accurately relate to the original question and must relate to or arise from the answer.

7 Ministers' statements

After each oral question without notice and any related supplementary questions, any minister may seek the call to make a statement of up to two minutes to advise the House of new government initiatives, projects and achievements.

8 Time limits on answers and questions

- (1) The time limit for each oral question, supplementary question and constituency question is one minute.
- (2) The time limit for the answer to each oral question is three minutes, and for the answer to each supplementary question is one minute.

9 Constituency questions

- (1) At the conclusion of oral questions without notice and ministers' statements, five government members and five non-government members may ask one oral question each to ministers relating to constituency matters.
- (2) Replies to constituency questions must be given in writing within 30 days by delivering a reply to the Clerk. A copy must be given to the member who asked the question, and printed in Hansard.

10 Duration of question time

Standing Order 55(2) is suspended and the following to apply:

Question time will last until five oral questions and related supplementary questions have been answered, and up to five ministers' statements have been made.

11 Content of answers

- (1) Standing Order 58(1)(a) be suspended and all answers to questions must be direct, factual, succinct and relevant.
- (2) The Speaker may determine that an answer to an oral question without notice or supplementary oral question is not responsive to the question, and may accordingly direct the minister to provide a written response to the question and lodge it with the Speaker by 2.00 pm on the next sitting day. A copy of any written response provided under this sessional order must be given to the member who asked the question and printed in Hansard.
- (3) The Speaker will determine the adequacy of a written response to a question provided under this sessional order. The Speaker may determine that a written response does not appropriately answer the question and may direct that the minister provide another written response by 2.00 pm the next sitting day. The Speaker will forward the written response to the member who asked the question, and a copy will be printed in Hansard.

12 Answers to questions on notice

A reply to a question on notice delivered to the Clerk under SO 54(3) must be submitted within 30 days.

13 Notices of motion

Standing Orders 140(1) and 141 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) A member may only move a motion to discuss a subject if he or she has given notice of that motion on a previous sitting day.
- (2) Copies of all notices, whether to be given verbally or in writing, must be provided to the Clerks at the table before notices are called on by the Speaker.
- (3) All notices given by ministers must be verbal.
- (4) Verbal notices must be read to the House. They can only be given before the House proceeds to the business of the day as set out in the notice paper.
- (5) All notices, except notices given under paragraph (6) given by members who are not ministers, must be given in writing. Members may give notice by lodging a copy with the Clerks in accordance with paragraph (2).

- (6) A motion by a member expressing no confidence in the Premier and ministers, in the terms set out in s 8A of the Constitution Act 1975, may only be given verbally or, where a member seeks to move the motion during formal business by leave, and leave is refused, the member may give notice of that motion.
- (7) The Clerk must notify the Speaker of a notice of a motion by a member to disallow a statutory rule to which Standing Order 151 applies, and the Speaker will report details to the House at the first convenient opportunity.

14 Responses to adjournment matters

If the minister responsible is not present in the House to respond to issues raised by members under SO 33, the minister will provide a written response to the member who raised the matter within 30 days.

15 Second reading speeches incorporated in Hansard

A second reading speech for a bill being introduced by a member or minister will be incorporated into Hansard at the request of the member or minister, with the following exceptions:

- (1) Where the speech contains a statement under s 85(5)(c) of the Constitution Act 1975, that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.
- (2) Where a speech contains a statement under s 31(5) of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.

16 Time limit for lead speakers

For the purposes of Standing Order 131, and subject to any agreement to the contrary, additional time provided for the lead speaker of any other party does not apply where such a party has advised the Speaker that it is in a coalition arrangement with another party.

17 Order of business

- (1) So much of standing orders as provide for question time to be held at 2.00 pm on sitting days other than Tuesdays is suspended to allow for question time to be held at 11.00 am on those days.
- (2) In Standing Order No 55, for '2.00 pm', wherever occurring, read '11.00 am'.
- (3) So much of Standing Order Nos 36, 38, 39 and 41 be suspended so as to enable the following order of business on:

Wednesdays

- (2) Replies to constituency questions must be given in writing within 30 days by delivering a reply to the Clerk. A copy must be given to the member who asked the question, and printed in Hansard.

10 Duration of question time

Standing Order 55(2) is suspended and the following to apply:

Question time will last until five oral questions and related supplementary questions have been answered, and up to five ministers' statements have been made.

11 Content of answers

- (1) Standing Order 58(1)(a) be suspended and all answers to questions must be direct, factual, succinct and relevant.
- (2) The Speaker may determine that an answer to an oral question without notice or supplementary oral question is not responsive to the question, and may accordingly direct the minister to provide a written response to the question and lodge it with the Speaker by 2.00 pm on the next sitting day. A copy of any written response provided under this sessional order must be given to the member who asked the question and printed in Hansard.
- (3) The Speaker will determine the adequacy of a written response to a question provided under this sessional order. The Speaker may determine that a written response does not appropriately answer the question and may direct that the minister provide another written response by 2.00 pm the next sitting day. The Speaker will forward the written response to the member who asked the question, and a copy will be printed in Hansard.

12 Answers to questions on notice

A reply to a question on notice delivered to the Clerk under SO 54(3) must be submitted within 30 days.

13 Notices of motion

Standing Orders 140(1) and 141 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) A member may only move a motion to discuss a subject if he or she has given notice of that motion on a previous sitting day.
- (2) Copies of all notices, whether to be given verbally or in writing, must be provided to the Clerks at the table before notices are called on by the Speaker.
- (3) All notices given by ministers must be verbal.
- (4) Verbal notices must be read to the House. They can only be given before the House proceeds to the business of the day as set out in the notice paper.
- (5) All notices, except notices given under paragraph (6) given by members who are not ministers, must be given in writing. Members may give notice by lodging a copy with the Clerks in accordance with paragraph (2).

- (6) A motion by a member expressing no confidence in the Premier and ministers, in the terms set out in s 8A of the Constitution Act 1975, may only be given verbally or, where a member seeks to move the motion during formal business by leave, and leave is refused, the member may give notice of that motion.
- (7) The Clerk must notify the Speaker of a notice of a motion by a member to disallow a statutory rule to which Standing Order 151 applies, and the Speaker will report details to the House at the first convenient opportunity.

14 Responses to adjournment matters

If the minister responsible is not present in the House to respond to issues raised by members under SO 33, the minister will provide a written response to the member who raised the matter within 30 days.

15 Second reading speeches incorporated in Hansard

A second reading speech for a bill being introduced by a member or minister will be incorporated into Hansard at the request of the member or minister, with the following exceptions:

- (1) Where the speech contains a statement under s 85(5)(c) of the Constitution Act 1975, that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.
- (2) Where a speech contains a statement under s 31(5) of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.

16 Time limit for lead speakers

For the purposes of Standing Order 131, and subject to any agreement to the contrary, additional time provided for the lead speaker of any other party does not apply where such a party has advised the Speaker that it is in a coalition arrangement with another party.

17 Order of business

- (1) So much of standing orders as provide for question time to be held at 2.00 pm on sitting days other than Tuesdays is suspended to allow for question time to be held at 11.00 am on those days.

SESSIONAL ORDERS

Sessional orders were adopted by the House on 12 February 2015.

1 Days and times of meeting

Unless otherwise ordered, the House will meet each Tuesday at 12.00 pm, and each Wednesday and Thursday at 9.30 am.

2 Incorporation of statements of compatibility

A statement of compatibility tabled under s28 of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 will be incorporated in Hansard, without leave being required.

3 Interruption of business for adjournment

Standing Order 32 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the Speaker will interrupt the business before the House at:
  - (a) 7.00 pm each sitting Tuesday and Wednesday;
  - (b) 5.00 pm on any other sitting day.
- (2) If a division is taking place when the time for the interruption arises, the division will be completed and the result announced. If the division is on a closure motion, and the motion is agreed to, the question or questions then required to be put to close the issue before the House will also be dealt with. The Speaker will then interrupt business.
- (3) If the time for the interruption arises:
  - (a) at the same time as the completion time set by the government business program; or
  - (b) after the interruption for the completion time of the government business program, but before all business on the program has been dealt with —

all business on the government business program will be completed first. The Speaker will then interrupt business for the adjournment.
- (4) After the interruption:
  - (a) before a motion for the adjournment is proposed by the Speaker, a minister may move that the sitting be continued. That motion must be put immediately without amendment or debate. If it is agreed to, the House will resume debate at the point at which it had been interrupted; or
  - (b) if a motion is not moved, the Speaker will immediately propose the question 'That the House now adjourns'. Any business under discussion and any other business not concluded at the time of the adjournment will be listed on the notice paper for the next sitting day. Any member speaking at the time of the interruption may, when debate resumes, continue his or her speech.

4 Condolence motions

Where a condolence motion occurs under SO 42(1)(a), the House may adjourn for a period of one hour at the conclusion of the motion.

5 Who may ask oral questions without notice

Only non-government members may ask questions without notice under Standing Order 55.

6 Supplementary questions without notice

- (1) At the conclusion of each answer to an oral question without notice, the questioning member may ask the responding minister a supplementary question to elucidate or clarify the answer.
- (2) Supplementary questions must actually and accurately relate to the original question and must relate to or arise from the answer.

7 Ministers' statements

After each oral question without notice and any related supplementary questions, any minister may seek the call to make a statement of up to two minutes to advise the House of new government initiatives, projects and achievements.

8 Time limits on answers and questions

- (1) The time limit for each oral question, supplementary question and constituency question is one minute.
- (2) The time limit for the answer to each oral question is three minutes, and for the answer to each supplementary question is one minute.

9 Constituency questions

- (1) At the conclusion of oral questions without notice and ministers' statements, five government members and five non-government members may ask one oral question each to ministers relating to constituency matters.
- (2) Replies to constituency questions must be given in writing within 30 days by delivering a reply to the Clerk. A copy must be given to the member who asked the question, and printed in Hansard.

10 Duration of question time

Standing Order 55(2) is suspended and the following to apply:

Question time will last until five oral questions and related supplementary questions have been answered, and up to five ministers' statements have been made.

11 Content of answers

- (1) Standing Order 58(1)(a) be suspended and all answers to questions must be direct, factual, succinct and relevant.
- (2) The Speaker may determine that an answer to an oral question without notice or supplementary oral question is not responsive to the question, and may accordingly direct the minister to provide a written response to the question and lodge it with the Speaker by 2.00 pm on the next sitting day. A copy of any written response provided under this sessional order must be given to the member who asked the question and printed in Hansard.
- (3) The Speaker will determine the adequacy of a written response to a question provided under this sessional order. The Speaker may determine that a written response does not appropriately answer the question and may direct that the minister provide another written response by 2.00 pm the next sitting day. The Speaker will forward the written response to the member who asked the question, and a copy will be printed in Hansard.

12 Answers to questions on notice

A reply to a question on notice delivered to the Clerk under SO 54(3) must be submitted within 30 days.

13 Notices of motion

Standing Orders 140(1) and 141 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) A member may only move a motion to discuss a subject if he or she has given notice of that motion on a previous sitting day.
- (2) Copies of all notices, whether to be given verbally or in writing, must be provided to the Clerks at the table before notices are called on by the Speaker.
- (3) All notices given by ministers must be verbal.
- (4) Verbal notices must be read to the House. They can only be given before the House proceeds to the business of the day as set out in the notice paper.
- (5) All notices, except notices given under paragraph (6) given by members who are not ministers, must be given in writing. Members may give notice by lodging a copy with the Clerks in accordance with paragraph (2).

- (6) A motion by a member expressing no confidence in the Premier and ministers, in the terms set out in s 8A of the Constitution Act 1975, may only be given verbally or, where a member seeks to move the motion during formal business by leave, and leave is refused, the member may give notice of that motion.
- (7) The Clerk must notify the Speaker of a notice of a motion by a member to disallow a statutory rule to which Standing Order 151 applies, and the Speaker will report details to the House at the first convenient opportunity.

14 Responses to adjournment matters

If the minister responsible is not present in the House to respond to issues raised by members under SO 33, the minister will provide a written response to the member who raised the matter within 30 days.

15 Second reading speeches incorporated in Hansard

A second reading speech for a bill being introduced by a member or minister will be incorporated into Hansard at the request of the member or minister, with the following exceptions:

- (1) Where the speech contains a statement under s 85(5)(c) of the Constitution Act 1975, that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.
- (2) Where a speech contains a statement under s 31(5) of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.

16 Time limit for lead speakers

For the purposes of Standing Order 131, and subject to any agreement to the contrary, additional time provided for the lead speaker of any other party does not apply where such a party has advised the Speaker that it is in a coalition arrangement with another party.

SESSIONAL ORDERS

Sessional orders were adopted by the House on 12 February 2015.

1 Days and times of meeting

Unless otherwise ordered, the House will meet each Tuesday at 12.00 pm, and each Wednesday and Thursday at 9.30 am.

2 Incorporation of statements of compatibility

A statement of compatibility tabled under s28 of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 will be incorporated in Hansard, without leave being required.

3 Interruption of business for adjournment

Standing Order 32 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the Speaker will interrupt the business before the House at:
  - (a) 7.00 pm each sitting Tuesday and Wednesday;
  - (b) 5.00 pm on any other sitting day.
- (2) If a division is taking place when the time for the interruption arises, the division will be completed and the result announced. If the division is on a closure motion, and the motion is agreed to, the question or questions then required to be put to close the issue before the House will also be dealt with. The Speaker will then interrupt business.
- (3) If the time for the interruption arises:
  - (a) at the same time as the completion time set by the government business program; or
  - (b) after the interruption for the completion time of the government business program, but before all business on the program has been dealt with —

all business on the government business program will be completed first. The Speaker will then interrupt business for the adjournment.
- (4) After the interruption:
  - (a) before a motion for the adjournment is proposed by the Speaker, a minister may move that the sitting be continued. That motion must be put immediately without amendment or debate. If it is agreed to, the House will resume debate at the point at which it had been interrupted; or
  - (b) if a motion is not moved, the Speaker will immediately propose the question 'That the House now adjourns'. Any business under discussion and any other business not concluded at the time of the adjournment will be listed on the notice paper for the next sitting day. Any member speaking at the time of the interruption may, when debate resumes, continue his or her speech.

4 Condolence motions

Where a condolence motion occurs under SO 42(1)(a), the House may adjourn for a period of one hour at the conclusion of the motion.

5 Who may ask oral questions without notice

Only non-government members may ask questions without notice under Standing Order 55.

6 Supplementary questions without notice

- (1) At the conclusion of each answer to an oral question without notice, the questioning member may ask the responding minister a supplementary question to elucidate or clarify the answer.
- (2) Supplementary questions must actually and accurately relate to the original question and must relate to or arise from the answer.

7 Ministers' statements

After each oral question without notice and any related supplementary questions, any minister may seek the call to make a statement of up to two minutes to advise the House of new government initiatives, projects and achievements.

8 Time limits on answers and questions

- (1) The time limit for each oral question, supplementary question and constituency question is one minute.
- (2) The time limit for the answer to each oral question is three minutes, and for the answer to each supplementary question is one minute.

9 Constituency questions

- (1) At the conclusion of oral questions without notice and ministers' statements, five government members and five non-government members may ask one oral question each to ministers relating to constituency matters.
- (2) Replies to constituency questions must be given in writing within 30 days by delivering a reply to the Clerk. A copy must be given to the member who asked the question, and printed in Hansard.

10 Duration of question time

Standing Order 55(2) is suspended and the following to apply:

Question time will last until five oral questions and related supplementary questions have been answered, and up to five ministers' statements have been made.

11 Content of answers

- (1) Standing Order 58(1)(a) be suspended and all answers to questions must be direct, factual, succinct and relevant.
- (2) The Speaker may determine that an answer to an oral question without notice or supplementary oral question is not responsive to the question, and may accordingly direct the minister to provide a written response to the question and lodge it with the Speaker by 2.00 pm on the next sitting day. A copy of any written response provided under this sessional order must be given to the member who asked the question and printed in Hansard.
- (3) The Speaker will determine the adequacy of a written response to a question provided under this sessional order. The Speaker may determine that a written response does not appropriately answer the question and may direct that the minister provide another written response by 2.00 pm the next sitting day. The Speaker will forward the written response to the member who asked the question, and a copy will be printed in Hansard.

12 Answers to questions on notice

SESSIONAL ORDERS

Sessional orders were adopted by the House on 12 February 2015.

1 Days and times of meeting

Unless otherwise ordered, the House will meet each Tuesday at 12.00 pm, and each Wednesday and Thursday at 9.30 am.

2 Incorporation of statements of compatibility

A statement of compatibility tabled under s28 of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 will be incorporated in Hansard, without leave being required.

3 Interruption of business for adjournment

Standing Order 32 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the Speaker will interrupt the business before the House at:
  - (a) 7.00 pm each sitting Tuesday and Wednesday;
  - (b) 5.00 pm on any other sitting day.
- (2) If a division is taking place when the time for the interruption arises, the division will be completed and the result announced. If the division is on a closure motion, and the motion is agreed to, the question or questions then required to be put to close the issue before the House will also be dealt with. The Speaker will then interrupt business.
- (3) If the time for the interruption arises:
  - (a) at the same time as the completion time set by the government business program; or
  - (b) after the interruption for the completion time of the government business program, but before all business on the program has been dealt with —

all business on the government business program will be completed first. The Speaker will then interrupt business for the adjournment.
- (4) After the interruption:
  - (a) before a motion for the adjournment is proposed by the Speaker, a minister may move that the sitting be continued. That motion must be put immediately without amendment or debate. If it is agreed to, the House will resume debate at the point at which it had been interrupted; or
  - (b) if a motion is not moved, the Speaker will immediately propose the question 'That the House now adjourns'. Any business under discussion and any other business not concluded at the time of the adjournment will be listed on the notice paper for the next sitting day. Any member speaking at the time of the interruption may, when debate resumes, continue his or her speech.

4 Condolence motions

Where a condolence motion occurs under SO 42(1)(a), the House may adjourn for a period of one hour at the conclusion of the motion.

5 Who may ask oral questions without notice

Only non-government members may ask questions without notice under Standing Order 55.

6 Supplementary questions without notice

- (1) At the conclusion of each answer to an oral question without notice, the questioning member may ask the responding minister a supplementary question to elucidate or clarify the answer.
- (2) Supplementary questions must actually and accurately relate to the original question and must relate to or arise from the answer.

7 Ministers' statements

After each oral question without notice and any related supplementary questions, any minister may seek the call to make a statement of up to two minutes to advise the House of new government initiatives, projects and achievements.

8 Time limits on answers and questions

- (1) The time limit for each oral question, supplementary question and constituency question is one minute.
- (2) The time limit for the answer to each oral question is three minutes, and for the answer to each supplementary question is one minute.

9 Constituency questions

- (1) At the conclusion of oral questions without notice and ministers' statements, five government members and five non-government members may ask one oral question each to ministers relating to constituency matters.
- (2) Replies to constituency questions must be given in writing within 30 days by delivering a reply to the Clerk. A copy must be given to the member who asked the question, and printed in Hansard.

10 Duration of question time

Standing Order 55(2) is suspended and the following to apply:

Question time will last until five oral questions and related supplementary questions have been answered, and up to five ministers' statements have been made.

11 Content of answers

- (1) Standing Order 58(1)(a) be suspended and all answers to questions must be direct, factual, succinct and relevant.
- (2) The Speaker may determine that an answer to an oral question without notice or supplementary oral question is not responsive to the question, and may accordingly direct the minister to provide a written response to the question and lodge it with the Speaker by 2.00 pm on the next sitting day. A copy of any written response provided under this sessional order must be given to the member who asked the question and printed in Hansard.
- (3) The Speaker will determine the adequacy of a written response to a question provided under this sessional order. The Speaker may determine that a written response does not appropriately answer the question and may direct that the minister provide another written response by 2.00 pm the next sitting day. The Speaker will forward the written response to the member who asked the question, and a copy will be printed in Hansard.

12 Answers to questions on notice

A reply to a question on notice delivered to the Clerk under SO 54(3) must be submitted within 30 days.

13 Notices of motion

Standing Orders 140(1) and 141 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) A member may only move a motion to discuss a subject if he or she has given notice of that motion on a previous sitting day.
- (2) Copies of all notices, whether to be given verbally or in writing, must be provided to the Clerks at the table before notices are called on by the Speaker.
- (3) All notices given by ministers must be verbal.
- (4) Verbal notices must be read to the House. They can only be given before the House proceeds to the business of the day as set out in the notice paper.
- (5) All notices, except notices given under paragraph (6) given by members who are not ministers, must be given in writing. Members may give notice by lodging a copy with the Clerks in accordance with paragraph (2).

- (6) A motion by a member expressing no confidence in the Premier and ministers, in the terms set out in s 8A of the Constitution Act 1975, may only be given verbally or, where a member seeks to move the motion during formal business by leave, and leave is refused, the member may give notice of that motion.
- (7) The Clerk must notify the Speaker of a notice of a motion by a member to disallow a statutory rule to which Standing Order 151 applies, and the Speaker will report details to the House at the first convenient opportunity.

14 Responses to adjournment matters

If the minister responsible is not present in the House to respond to issues raised by members under SO 33, the minister will provide a written response to the member who raised the matter within 30 days.

15 Second reading speeches incorporated in Hansard

A second reading speech for a bill being introduced by a member or minister will be incorporated into Hansard at the request of the member or minister, with the following exceptions:

- (1) Where the speech contains a statement under s 85(5)(c) of the Constitution Act 1975, that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.
- (2) Where a speech contains a statement under s 31(5) of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.

16 Time limit for lead speakers

For the purposes of Standing Order 131, and subject to any agreement to the contrary, additional time provided for the lead speaker of any other party does not apply where such a party has advised the Speaker that it is in a coalition arrangement with another party.

17 Order of business

- (1) So much of standing orders as provide for question time to be held at 2.00 pm on sitting days other than Tuesdays is suspended to allow for question time to be held at 11.00 am on those days.
- (2) In Standing Order No 55, for '2.00 pm', wherever occurring, read '11.00 am'.
- (3) So much of Standing Order Nos 36, 38, 39 and 41 be suspended so as to enable the following order of business on:

Wednesdays

Formal Business
 Disallowance motions
 Statements by members
 Statements on parliamentary committee reports

SESSIONAL ORDERS

Sessional orders were adopted by the House on 12 February 2015.

1 Days and times of meeting

Unless otherwise ordered, the House will meet each Tuesday at 12.00 pm, and each Wednesday and Thursday at 9.30 am.

2 Incorporation of statements of compatibility

A statement of compatibility tabled under s28 of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 will be incorporated in Hansard, without leave being required.

3 Interruption of business for adjournment

Standing Order 32 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the Speaker will interrupt the business before the House at:
  - (a) 7.00 pm each sitting Tuesday and Wednesday;
  - (b) 5.00 pm on any other sitting day.
- (2) If a division is taking place when the time for the interruption arises, the division will be completed and the result announced. If the division is on a closure motion, and the motion is agreed to, the question or questions then required to be put to close the issue before the House will also be dealt with. The Speaker will then interrupt business.
- (3) If the time for the interruption arises:
  - (a) at the same time as the completion time set by the government business program; or
  - (b) after the interruption for the completion time of the government business program, but before all business on the program has been dealt with —

all business on the government business program will be completed first. The Speaker will then interrupt business for the adjournment.
- (4) After the interruption:
  - (a) before a motion for the adjournment is proposed by the Speaker, a minister may move that the sitting be continued. That motion must be put immediately without amendment or debate. If it is agreed to, the House will resume debate at the point at which it had been interrupted; or
  - (b) if a motion is not moved, the Speaker will immediately propose the question 'That the House now adjourns'. Any business under discussion and any other business not concluded at the time of the adjournment will be listed on the notice paper for the next sitting day. Any member speaking at the time of the interruption may, when debate resumes, continue his or her speech.

4 Condolence motions

Where a condolence motion occurs under SO 42(1)(a), the House may adjourn for a period of one hour at the conclusion of the motion.

5 Who may ask oral questions without notice

Only non-government members may ask questions without notice under Standing Order 55.

6 Supplementary questions without notice

- (1) At the conclusion of each answer to an oral question without notice, the questioning member may ask the responding minister a supplementary question to elucidate or clarify the answer.
- (2) Supplementary questions must actually and accurately relate to the original question and must relate to or arise from the answer.

7 Ministers' statements

After each oral question without notice and any related supplementary questions, any minister may seek the call to make a statement of up to two minutes to advise the House of new government initiatives, projects and achievements.

8 Time limits on answers and questions

- (1) The time limit for each oral question, supplementary question and constituency question is one minute.
- (2) The time limit for the answer to each oral question is three minutes, and for the answer to each supplementary question is one minute.

9 Constituency questions

- (1) At the conclusion of oral questions without notice and ministers' statements, five government members and five non-government members may ask one oral question each to ministers relating to constituency matters.
- (2) Replies to constituency questions must be given in writing within 30 days by delivering a reply to the Clerk. A copy must be given to the member who asked the question, and printed in Hansard.

10 Duration of question time

Standing Order 55(2) is suspended and the following to apply:

Question time will last until five oral questions and related supplementary questions have been answered, and up to five ministers' statements have been made.

11 Content of answers

- (1) Standing Order 58(1)(a) be suspended and all answers to questions must be direct, factual, succinct and relevant.
- (2) The Speaker may determine that an answer to an oral question without notice or supplementary oral question is not responsive to the question, and may accordingly direct the minister to provide a written response to the question and lodge it with the Speaker by 2.00 pm on the next sitting day. A copy of any written response provided under this sessional order must be given to the member who asked the question and printed in Hansard.
- (3) The Speaker will determine the adequacy of a written response to a question provided under this sessional order. The Speaker may determine that a written response does not appropriately answer the question and may direct that the minister provide another written response by 2.00 pm the next sitting day. The Speaker will forward the written response to the member who asked the question, and a copy will be printed in Hansard.

12 Answers to questions on notice

A reply to a question on notice delivered to the Clerk under SO 54(3) must be submitted within 30 days.

13 Notices of motion

Standing Orders 140(1) and 141 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) A member may only move a motion to discuss a subject if he or she has given notice of that motion on a previous sitting day.
- (2) Copies of all notices, whether to be given verbally or in writing, must be provided to the Clerks at the table before notices are called on by the Speaker.
- (3) All notices given by ministers must be verbal.
- (4) Verbal notices must be read to the House. They can only be given before the House proceeds to the business of the day as set out in the notice paper.
- (5) All notices, except notices given under paragraph (6) given by members who are not ministers, must be given in writing. Members may give notice by lodging a copy with the Clerks in accordance with paragraph (2).

- (6) A motion by a member expressing no confidence in the Premier and ministers, in the terms set out in s 8A of the Constitution Act 1975, may only be given verbally or, where a member seeks to move the motion during formal business by leave, and leave is refused, the member may give notice of that motion.
- (7) The Clerk must notify the Speaker of a notice of a motion by a member to disallow a statutory rule to which Standing Order 151 applies, and the Speaker will report details to the House at the first convenient opportunity.

14 Responses to adjournment matters

If the minister responsible is not present in the House to respond to issues raised by members under SO 33, the minister will provide a written response to the member who raised the matter within 30 days.

15 Second reading speeches incorporated in Hansard

A second reading speech for a bill being introduced by a member or minister will be incorporated into Hansard at the request of the member or minister, with the following exceptions:

- (1) Where the speech contains a statement under s 85(5)(c) of the Constitution Act 1975, that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.
- (2) Where a speech contains a statement under s 31(5) of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.

16 Time limit for lead speakers

For the purposes of Standing Order 131, and subject to any agreement to the contrary, additional time provided for the lead speaker of any other party does not apply where such a party has advised the Speaker that it is in a coalition arrangement with another party.

17 Order of business

- (1) So much of standing orders as provide for question time to be held at 2.00 pm on sitting days other than Tuesdays is suspended to allow for question time to be held at 11.00 am on those days.
- (2) In Standing Order No 55, for '2.00 pm', wherever occurring, read '11.00 am'.
- (3) So much of Standing Order Nos 36, 38, 39 and 41 be suspended so as to enable the following order of business on:

Wednesdays

Formal Business
 Disallowance motions

SESSIONAL ORDERS

Sessional orders were adopted by the House on 12 February 2015.

1 Days and times of meeting

Unless otherwise ordered, the House will meet each Tuesday at 12.00 pm, and each Wednesday and Thursday at 9.30 am.

2 Incorporation of statements of compatibility

A statement of compatibility tabled under s28 of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 will be incorporated in Hansard, without leave being required.

3 Interruption of business for adjournment

Standing Order 32 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the Speaker will interrupt the business before the House at:
  - (a) 7.00 pm each sitting Tuesday and Wednesday;
  - (b) 5.00 pm on any other sitting day.
- (2) If a division is taking place when the time for the interruption arises, the division will be completed and the result announced. If the division is on a closure motion, and the motion is agreed to, the question or questions then required to be put to close the issue before the House will also be dealt with. The Speaker will then interrupt business.
- (3) If the time for the interruption arises:
  - (a) at the same time as the completion time set by the government business program; or
  - (b) after the interruption for the completion time of the government business program, but before all business on the program has been dealt with —

all business on the government business program will be completed first. The Speaker will then interrupt business for the adjournment.
- (4) After the interruption:
  - (a) before a motion for the adjournment is proposed by the Speaker, a minister may move that the sitting be continued. That motion must be put immediately without amendment or debate. If it is agreed to, the House will resume debate at the point at which it had been interrupted; or
  - (b) if a motion is not moved, the Speaker will immediately propose the question 'That the House now adjourns'. Any business under discussion and any other business not concluded at the time of the adjournment will be listed on the notice paper for the next sitting day. Any member speaking at the time of the interruption may, when debate resumes, continue his or her speech.

4 Condolence motions

Where a condolence motion occurs under SO 42(1)(a), the House may adjourn for a period of one hour at the conclusion of the motion.

5 Who may ask oral questions without notice

Only non-government members may ask questions without notice under Standing Order 55.

6 Supplementary questions without notice

- (1) At the conclusion of each answer to an oral question without notice, the questioning member may ask the responding minister a supplementary question to elucidate or clarify the answer.
- (2) Supplementary questions must actually and accurately relate to the original question and must relate to or arise from the answer.

7 Ministers' statements

After each oral question without notice and any related supplementary questions, any minister may seek the call to make a statement of up to two minutes to advise the House of new government initiatives, projects and achievements.

8 Time limits on answers and questions

- (1) The time limit for each oral question, supplementary question and constituency question is one minute.
- (2) The time limit for the answer to each oral question is three minutes, and for the answer to each supplementary question is one minute.

9 Constituency questions

- (1) At the conclusion of oral questions without notice and ministers' statements, five government members and five non-government members may ask one oral question each to ministers relating to constituency matters.
- (2) Replies to constituency questions must be given in writing within 30 days by delivering a reply to the Clerk. A copy must be given to the member who asked the question, and printed in Hansard.

10 Duration of question time

Standing Order 55(2) is suspended and the following to apply:

Question time will last until five oral questions and related supplementary questions have been answered, and up to five ministers' statements have been made.

11 Content of answers

- (1) Standing Order 58(1)(a) be suspended and all answers to questions must be direct, factual, succinct and relevant.
- (2) The Speaker may determine that an answer to an oral question without notice or supplementary oral question is not responsive to the question, and may accordingly direct the minister to provide a written response to the question and lodge it with the Speaker by 2.00 pm on the next sitting day. A copy of any written response provided under this sessional order must be given to the member who asked the question and printed in Hansard.
- (3) The Speaker will determine the adequacy of a written response to a question provided under this sessional order. The Speaker may determine that a written response does not appropriately answer the question and may direct that the minister provide another written response by 2.00 pm the next sitting day. The Speaker will forward the written response to the member who asked the question, and a copy will be printed in Hansard.

12 Answers to questions on notice

A reply to a question on notice delivered to the Clerk under SO 54(3) must be submitted within 30 days.

13 Notices of motion

Standing Orders 140(1) and 141 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) A member may only move a motion to discuss a subject if he or she has given notice of that motion on a previous sitting day.
- (2) Copies of all notices, whether to be given verbally or in writing, must be provided to the Clerks at the table before notices are called on by the Speaker.
- (3) All notices given by ministers must be verbal.
- (4) Verbal notices must be read to the House. They can only be given before the House proceeds to the business of the day as set out in the notice paper.
- (5) All notices, except notices given under paragraph (6) given by members who are not ministers, must be given in writing. Members may give notice by lodging a copy with the Clerks in accordance with paragraph (2).

- (6) A motion by a member expressing no confidence in the Premier and ministers, in the terms set out in s 8A of the Constitution Act 1975, may only be given verbally or, where a member seeks to move the motion during formal business by leave, and leave is refused, the member may give notice of that motion.
- (7) The Clerk must notify the Speaker of a notice of a motion by a member to disallow a statutory rule to which Standing Order 151 applies, and the Speaker will report details to the House at the first convenient opportunity.

14 Responses to adjournment matters

If the minister responsible is not present in the House to respond to issues raised by members under SO 33, the minister will provide a written response to the member who raised the matter within 30 days.

15 Second reading speeches incorporated in Hansard

A second reading speech for a bill being introduced by a member or minister will be incorporated into Hansard at the request of the member or minister, with the following exceptions:

- (1) Where the speech contains a statement under s 85(5)(c) of the Constitution Act 1975, that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.
- (2) Where a speech contains a statement under s 31(5) of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.

16 Time limit for lead speakers

For the purposes of Standing Order 131, and subject to any agreement to the contrary, additional time provided for the lead speaker of any other party does not apply where such a party has advised the Speaker that it is in a coalition arrangement with another party.

SESSIONAL ORDERS

Sessional orders were adopted by the House on 12 February 2015.

1 Days and times of meeting

Unless otherwise ordered, the House will meet each Tuesday at 12.00 pm, and each Wednesday and Thursday at 9.30 am.

2 Incorporation of statements of compatibility

A statement of compatibility tabled under s28 of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 will be incorporated in Hansard, without leave being required.

3 Interruption of business for adjournment

Standing Order 32 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the Speaker will interrupt the business before the House at:
  - (a) 7.00 pm each sitting Tuesday and Wednesday;
  - (b) 5.00 pm on any other sitting day.
- (2) If a division is taking place when the time for the interruption arises, the division will be completed and the result announced. If the division is on a closure motion, and the motion is agreed to, the question or questions then required to be put to close the issue before the House will also be dealt with. The Speaker will then interrupt business.
- (3) If the time for the interruption arises:
  - (a) at the same time as the completion time set by the government business program; or
  - (b) after the interruption for the completion time of the government business program, but before all business on the program has been dealt with —

all business on the government business program will be completed first. The Speaker will then interrupt business for the adjournment.
- (4) After the interruption:
  - (a) before a motion for the adjournment is proposed by the Speaker, a minister may move that the sitting be continued. That motion must be put immediately without amendment or debate. If it is agreed to, the House will resume debate at the point at which it had been interrupted; or
  - (b) if a motion is not moved, the Speaker will immediately propose the question 'That the House now adjourns'. Any business under discussion and any other business not concluded at the time of the adjournment will be listed on the notice paper for the next sitting day. Any member speaking at the time of the interruption may, when debate resumes, continue his or her speech.

4 Condolence motions

Where a condolence motion occurs under SO 42(1)(a), the House may adjourn for a period of one hour at the conclusion of the motion.

5 Who may ask oral questions without notice

Only non-government members may ask questions without notice under Standing Order 55.

6 Supplementary questions without notice

- (1) At the conclusion of each answer to an oral question without notice, the questioning member may ask the responding minister a supplementary question to elucidate or clarify the answer.
- (2) Supplementary questions must actually and accurately relate to the original question and must relate to or arise from the answer.

7 Ministers' statements

After each oral question without notice and any related supplementary questions, any minister may seek the call to make a statement of up to two minutes to advise the House of new government initiatives, projects and achievements.

8 Time limits on answers and questions

- (1) The time limit for each oral question, supplementary question and constituency question is one minute.
- (2) The time limit for the answer to each oral question is three minutes, and for the answer to each supplementary question is one minute.

9 Constituency questions

- (1) At the conclusion of oral questions without notice and ministers' statements, five government members and five non-government members may ask one oral question each to ministers relating to constituency matters.
- (2) Replies to constituency questions must be given in writing within 30 days by delivering a reply to the Clerk. A copy must be given to the member who asked the question, and printed in Hansard.

10 Duration of question time

Standing Order 55(2) is suspended and the following to apply:

Question time will last until five oral questions and related supplementary questions have been answered, and up to five ministers' statements have been made.

11 Content of answers

- (1) Standing Order 58(1)(a) be suspended and all answers to questions must be direct, factual, succinct and relevant.
- (2) The Speaker may determine that an answer to an oral question without notice or supplementary oral question is not responsive to the question, and may accordingly direct the minister to provide a written response to the question and lodge it with the Speaker by 2.00 pm on the next sitting day. A copy of any written response provided under this sessional order must be given to the member who asked the question and printed in Hansard.
- (3) The Speaker will determine the adequacy of a written response to a question provided under this sessional order. The Speaker may determine that a written response does not appropriately answer the question and may direct that the minister provide another written response by 2.00 pm the next sitting day. The Speaker will forward the written response to the member who asked the question, and a copy will be printed in Hansard.

12 Answers to questions on notice

A reply to a question on notice delivered to the Clerk under SO 54(3) must be submitted within 30 days.

13 Notices of motion

Standing Orders 140(1) and 141 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) A member may only move a motion to discuss a subject if he or she has given notice of that motion on a previous sitting day.
- (2) Copies of all notices, whether to be given verbally or in writing, must be provided to the Clerks at the table before notices are called on by the Speaker.
- (3) All notices given by ministers must be verbal.
- (4) Verbal notices must be read to the House. They can only be given before the House proceeds to the business of the day as set out in the notice paper.
- (5) All notices, except notices given under paragraph (6) given by members who are not ministers, must be given in writing. Members may give notice by lodging a copy with the Clerks in accordance with paragraph (2).

- (6) A motion by a member expressing no confidence in the Premier and ministers, in the terms set out in s 8A of the Constitution Act 1975, may only be given verbally or, where a member seeks to move the motion during formal business by leave, and leave is refused, the member may give notice of that motion.
- (7) The Clerk must notify the Speaker of a notice of a motion by a member to disallow a statutory rule to which Standing Order 151 applies, and the Speaker will report details to the House at the first convenient opportunity.

14 Responses to adjournment matters

If the minister responsible is not present in the House to respond to issues raised by members under SO 33, the minister will provide a written response to the member who raised the matter within 30 days.

15 Second reading speeches incorporated in Hansard

A second reading speech for a bill being introduced by a member or minister will be incorporated into Hansard at the request of the member or minister, with the following exceptions:

- (1) Where the speech contains a statement under s 85(5)(c) of the Constitution Act 1975, that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.
- (2) Where a speech contains a statement under s 31(5) of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.

16 Time limit for lead speakers

For the purposes of Standing Order 131, and subject to any agreement to the contrary, additional time provided for the lead speaker of any other party does not apply where such a party has advised the Speaker that it is in a coalition arrangement with another party.

17 Order of business

- (1) So much of standing orders as provide for question time to be held at 2.00 pm on sitting days other than Tuesdays is suspended to allow for question time to be held at 11.00 am on those days.
- (2) In Standing Order No 55, for '2.00 pm', wherever occurring, read '11.00 am'.
- (3) So much of Standing Order Nos 36, 38, 39 and 41 be suspended so as to enable the following order of business on:

Wednesdays

Formal Business
 Disallowance motions
 Statements by members
 Statements on parliamentary committee reports

- (3) If the time for the interruption arises:
  - (a) at the same time as the completion time set by the government business program; or
  - (b) after the interruption for the completion time of the government business program, but before all business on the program has been dealt with —

all business on the government business program will be completed first. The Speaker will then interrupt business for the adjournment.
- (4) After the interruption:
  - (a) before a motion for the adjournment is proposed by the Speaker, a minister may move that the sitting be continued. That motion must be put immediately without amendment or debate. If it is agreed to, the House will resume debate at the point at which it had been interrupted; or
  - (b) if a motion is not moved, the Speaker will immediately propose the question 'That the House now adjourns'. Any business under discussion and any other business not concluded at the time of the adjournment will be listed on the notice paper for the next sitting day. Any member speaking at the time of the interruption may, when debate resumes, continue his or her speech.

4 Condolence motions

Where a condolence motion occurs under SO 42(1)(a), the House may adjourn for a period of one hour at the conclusion of the motion.

5 Who may ask oral questions without notice

Only non-government members may ask questions without notice under Standing Order 55.

6 Supplementary questions without notice

- (1) At the conclusion of each answer to an oral question without notice, the questioning member may ask the responding minister a supplementary question to elucidate or clarify the answer.
- (2) Supplementary questions must actually and accurately relate to the original question and must relate to or arise from the answer.

7 Ministers' statements

After each oral question without notice and any related supplementary questions, any minister may seek the call to make a statement of up to two minutes to advise the House of new government initiatives, projects and achievements.

8 Time limits on answers and questions

- (1) The time limit for each oral question, supplementary question and constituency question is one minute.
- (2) The time limit for the answer to each oral question is three minutes, and for the answer to each supplementary question is one minute.

9 Constituency questions

- (3) At the conclusion of oral questions without notice and ministers' statements, five government members and five non-government members may ask one oral question each to ministers relating to constituency matters.
- (4) Replies to constituency questions must be given in writing within 30 days by delivering a reply to the Clerk. A copy must be given to the member who asked the question, and printed in Hansard.

10 Duration of question time

Standing Order 55(2) is suspended and the following to apply:

Question time will last until five oral questions and related supplementary questions have been answered, and up to five ministers' statements have been made.

11 Content of answers

- (5) Standing Order 58(1)(a) be suspended and all answers to questions must be direct, factual, succinct and relevant.
- (6) The Speaker may determine that an answer to an oral question without notice or supplementary oral question is not responsive to the question, and may accordingly direct the minister to provide a written response to the question and lodge it with the Speaker by 2.00 pm on the next sitting day. A copy of any written response provided under this sessional order must be given to the member who asked the question and printed in Hansard.
- (7) The Speaker will determine the adequacy of a written response to a question provided under this sessional order. The Speaker may determine that a written response does not appropriately answer the question and may direct that the minister provide another written response by 2.00 pm the next sitting day. The Speaker will forward the written response to the member who asked the question, and a copy will be printed in Hansard.

12 Answers to questions on notice

A reply to a question on notice delivered to the Clerk under SO 54(3) must be submitted within 30 days.

13 Notices of motion

Standing Orders 140(1) and 141 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (8) A member may only move a motion to discuss a subject if he or she has given notice of that motion on a previous sitting day.
- (9) Copies of all notices, whether to be given verbally or in writing, must be provided to the Clerks at the table before notices are called on by the Speaker.
- (10) All notices given by ministers must be verbal.
- (11) Verbal notices must be read to the House. They can only be given before the House proceeds to the business of the day as set out in the notice paper.
- (12) All notices, except notices given under paragraph (6) given by members who are not ministers, must be given in writing. Members may give notice by lodging a copy with the Clerks in accordance with paragraph (2).

- (13) A motion by a member expressing no confidence in the Premier and ministers, in the terms set out in s 8A of the Constitution Act 1975, may only be given verbally or, where a member seeks to move the motion during formal business by leave, and leave is refused, the member may give notice of that motion.
- (14) The Clerk must notify the Speaker of a notice of a motion by a member to disallow a statutory rule to which Standing Order 151 applies, and the Speaker will report details to the House at the first convenient opportunity.

14 Responses to adjournment matters

If the minister responsible is not present in the House to respond to issues raised by members under SO 33, the minister will provide a written response to the member who raised the matter within 30 days.

15 Second reading speeches incorporated in Hansard

A second reading speech for a bill being introduced by a member or minister will be incorporated into Hansard at the request of the member or minister, with the following exceptions:

- (15) Where the speech contains a statement under s 85(5)(c) of the Constitution Act 1975, that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.
- (16) Where a speech contains a statement under s 31(5) of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.

16 Time limit for lead speakers

For the purposes of Standing Order 131, and subject to any agreement to the contrary, additional time provided for the lead speaker of any other party does not apply where such a party has advised the Speaker that it is in a coalition arrangement with another party.

*17 Order of business

- (17) So much of standing orders as provide for question time to be held at 2.00 pm on sitting days other than Tuesdays is suspended to allow for question time to be held at 11.00 am on those days.
- (18) In Standing Order No 55, for '2.00 pm', wherever occurring, read '11.00 am'.
- (19) So much of Standing Order Nos 36, 38, 39 and 41 be suspended so as to enable the following order of business on:

Wednesdays

Formal business
 Disallowance motions
 Statements by members
 Statement on parliamentary committee reports

SESSIONAL ORDERS

Sessional orders were adopted by the House on 12 February 2015 and amended on 6 August 2015.

1 Days and times of meeting

Unless otherwise ordered, the House will meet each Tuesday at 12.00 pm, and each Wednesday and Thursday at 9.30 am.

2 Incorporation of statements of compatibility

A statement of compatibility tabled under s28 of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 will be incorporated in Hansard, without leave being required.

3 Interruption of business for adjournment

Standing Order 32 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the Speaker will interrupt the business before the House at:
  - (a) 7.00 pm each sitting Tuesday and Wednesday;
  - (b) 5.00 pm on any other sitting day.
- (2) If a division is taking place when the time for the interruption arises, the division will be completed and the result announced. If the division is on a closure motion, and the motion is agreed to, the question or questions then required to be put to close the issue before the House will also be dealt with. The Speaker will then interrupt business.
- (3) If the time for the interruption arises:
  - (a) at the same time as the completion time set by the government business program; or
  - (b) after the interruption for the completion time of the government business program, but before all business on the program has been dealt with —

all business on the government business program will be completed first. The Speaker will then interrupt business for the adjournment.
- (4) After the interruption:
  - (a) before a motion for the adjournment is proposed by the Speaker, a minister may move that the sitting be continued. That motion must be put immediately without amendment or debate. If it is agreed to, the House will resume debate at the point at which it had been interrupted; or
  - (b) if a motion is not moved, the Speaker will immediately propose the question 'That the House now adjourns'. Any business under discussion and any other business not concluded at the time of the adjournment will be listed on the notice paper for the next sitting day. Any member speaking at the time of the interruption may, when debate resumes, continue his or her speech.

4 Condolence motions

Where a condolence motion occurs under SO 42(1)(a), the House may adjourn for a period of one hour at the conclusion of the motion.

5 Who may ask oral questions without notice

Only non-government members may ask questions without notice under Standing Order 55.

6 Supplementary questions without notice

- (1) At the conclusion of each answer to an oral question without notice, the questioning member may ask the responding minister a supplementary question to elucidate or clarify the answer.
- (2) Supplementary questions must actually and accurately relate to the original question and must relate to or arise from the answer.

7 Ministers' statements

After each oral question without notice and any related supplementary questions, any minister may seek the call to make a statement of up to two minutes to advise the House of new government initiatives, projects and achievements.

8 Time limits on answers and questions

- (1) The time limit for each oral question, supplementary question and constituency question is one minute.
- (2) The time limit for the answer to each oral question is three minutes, and for the answer to each supplementary question is one minute.

9 Constituency questions

- (3) At the conclusion of oral questions without notice and ministers' statements, five government members and five non-government members may ask one oral question each to ministers relating to constituency matters.
- (4) Replies to constituency questions must be given in writing within 30 days by delivering a reply to the Clerk. A copy must be given to the member who asked the question, and printed in Hansard.

10 Duration of question time

Standing Order 55(2) is suspended and the following to apply:

Question time will last until five oral questions and related supplementary questions have been answered, and up to five ministers' statements have been made.

11 Content of answers

- (5) Standing Order 58(1)(a) be suspended and all answers to questions must be direct, factual, succinct and relevant.
- (6) The Speaker may determine that an answer to an oral question without notice or supplementary oral question is not responsive to the question, and may accordingly direct the minister to provide a written response to the question and lodge it with the Speaker by 2.00 pm on the next sitting day. A copy of any written response provided under this sessional order must be given to the member who asked the question and printed in Hansard.

Standing Order 55(2) is suspended and the following to apply:

Question time will last until five oral questions and related supplementary questions have been answered, and up to five ministers' statements have been made.

11 Content of answers

- (1) Standing Order 58(1)(a) be suspended and all answers to questions must be direct, factual, succinct and relevant.
- (2) The Speaker may determine that an answer to an oral question without notice or supplementary oral question is not responsive to the question, and may accordingly direct the minister to provide a written response to the question and lodge it with the Speaker by 2.00 pm on the next sitting day. A copy of any written response provided under this sessional order must be given to the member who asked the question and printed in Hansard.
- (3) The Speaker will determine the adequacy of a written response to a question provided under this sessional order. The Speaker may determine that a written response does not appropriately answer the question and may direct that the minister provide another written response by 2.00 pm the next sitting day. The Speaker will forward the written response to the member who asked the question, and a copy will be printed in Hansard.

12 Answers to questions on notice

A reply to a question on notice delivered to the Clerk under SO 54(3) must be submitted within 30 days.

13 Notices of motion

Standing Orders 140(1) and 141 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) A member may only move a motion to discuss a subject if he or she has given notice of that motion on a previous sitting day.
- (2) Copies of all notices, whether to be given verbally or in writing, must be provided to the Clerks at the table before notices are called on by the Speaker.
- (3) All notices given by ministers must be verbal.
- (4) Verbal notices must be read to the House. They can only be given before the House proceeds to the business of the day as set out in the notice paper.
- (5) All notices, except notices given under paragraph (6) given by members who are not ministers, must be given in writing. Members may give notice by lodging a copy with the Clerks in accordance with paragraph (2).

- (6) A motion by a member expressing no confidence in the Premier and ministers, in the terms set out in s 8A of the Constitution Act 1975, may only be given verbally or, where a member seeks to move the motion during formal business by leave, and leave is refused, the member may give notice of that motion.
- (7) The Clerk must notify the Speaker of a notice of a motion by a member to disallow a statutory rule to which Standing Order 151 applies, and the Speaker will report details to the House at the first convenient opportunity.

14 Responses to adjournment matters

If the minister responsible is not present in the House to respond to issues raised by members under SO 33, the minister will provide a written response to the member who raised the matter within 30 days.

15 Second reading speeches incorporated in Hansard

A second reading speech for a bill being introduced by a member or minister will be incorporated into Hansard at the request of the member or minister, with the following exceptions:

- (1) Where the speech contains a statement under s 85(5)(c) of the Constitution Act 1975, that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.
- (2) Where a speech contains a statement under s 31(5) of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.

16 Time limit for lead speakers

For the purposes of Standing Order 131, and subject to any agreement to the contrary, additional time provided for the lead speaker of any other party does not apply where such a party has advised the Speaker that it is in a coalition arrangement with another party.

17 Order of business

- (1) So much of standing orders as provide for question time to be held at 2.00 pm on sitting days other than Tuesdays is suspended to allow for question time to be held at 11.00 am on those days.
- (2) In Standing Order No 55, for '2.00 pm', wherever occurring, read '11.00 am'.
- (3) So much of Standing Order Nos 36, 38, 39 and 41 be suspended so as to enable the following order of business on:

Wednesdays

Formal business
 Disallowance motions
 Statements by members
 Statement on parliamentary committee reports

- (4) So much of Standing Orders 38 and 39 be suspended so as to enable:

- (a) at 2.00 pm on Wednesday, unless a division is taking place, the Chair interrupts the business before the House and the bells are then rung for one minute;
  - (b) if a division is taking place at 2.00 pm:
    - (i) it will be completed without interruption and result announced;
    - (ii) if the division is on a closure motion, and the motion is agreed to, the question or questions then required to be put to close the issue before the House will also be dealt with;
    - (iii) business is then interrupted following the procedure in sub-paragraph (a);
  - (c) the Chair announces the grievance debate or matter of public of importance, whichever the case may be;
  - (d) any business under discussion and not completed at the interruption will be resumed immediately at the end of the grievance debate or matter of public importance, whichever the case may be, and any member speaking at the time of the interruption may then continue his or her speech.
- (5) In Standing Order 39(9) for 'statements on parliamentary committee reports under SO 41' read 'government business'.

SESSIONAL ORDERS

Sessional orders were adopted by the House on 12 February 2015 and amended on 6 August 2015.

1 Days and times of meeting

Unless otherwise ordered, the House will meet each Tuesday at 12.00 pm, and each Wednesday and Thursday at 9.30 am.

2 Incorporation of statements of compatibility

A statement of compatibility tabled under s28 of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 will be incorporated in Hansard, without leave being required.

3 Interruption of business for adjournment

Standing Order 32 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the Speaker will interrupt the business before the House at:
  - (a) 7.00 pm each sitting Tuesday and Wednesday;
  - (b) 5.00 pm on any other sitting day.
- (2) If a division is taking place when the time for the interruption arises, the division will be completed and the result announced. If the division is on a closure motion, and the motion is agreed to, the question or questions then required to be put to close the issue before the House will also be dealt with. The Speaker will then interrupt business.
- (3) If the time for the interruption arises:
  - (a) at the same time as the completion time set by the government business program; or
  - (b) after the interruption for the completion time of the government business program, but before all business on the program has been dealt with —

all business on the government business program will be completed first. The Speaker will then interrupt business for the adjournment.
- (4) After the interruption:
  - (a) before a motion for the adjournment is proposed by the Speaker, a minister may move that the sitting be continued. That motion must be put immediately without amendment or debate. If it is agreed to, the House will resume debate at the point at which it had been interrupted; or
  - (b) if a motion is not moved, the Speaker will immediately propose the question 'That the House now adjourns'. Any business under discussion and any other business not concluded at the time of the adjournment will be listed on the notice paper for the next sitting day. Any member speaking at the time of the interruption may, when debate resumes, continue his or her speech.

4 Condolence motions

Where a condolence motion occurs under SO 42(1)(a), the House may adjourn for a period of one hour at the conclusion of the motion.

5 Who may ask oral questions without notice

Only non-government members may ask questions without notice under Standing Order 55.

6 Supplementary questions without notice

- (1) At the conclusion of each answer to an oral question without notice, the questioning member may ask the responding minister a supplementary question to elucidate or clarify the answer.
- (2) Supplementary questions must actually and accurately relate to the original question and must relate to or arise from the answer.

7 Ministers' statements

After each oral question without notice and any related supplementary questions, any minister may seek the call to make a statement of up to two minutes to advise the House of new government initiatives, projects and achievements.

8 Time limits on answers and questions

- (1) The time limit for each oral question, supplementary question and constituency question is one minute.
- (2) The time limit for the answer to each oral question is three minutes, and for the answer to each supplementary question is one minute.

9 Constituency questions

- (1) At the conclusion of oral questions without notice and ministers' statements, five government members and five non-government members may ask one oral question each to ministers relating to constituency matters.
- (2) Replies to constituency questions must be given in writing within 30 days by delivering a reply to the Clerk. A copy must be given to the member who asked the question, and printed in Hansard.

10 Duration of question time

Standing Order 55(2) is suspended and the following to apply:

Question time will last until five oral questions and related supplementary questions have been answered, and up to five ministers' statements have been made.

11 Content of answers

- (1) Standing Order 58(1)(a) be suspended and all answers to questions must be direct, factual, succinct and relevant.
- (2) The Speaker may determine that an answer to an oral question without notice or supplementary oral question is not responsive to the question, and may accordingly direct the minister to provide a written response to the question and lodge it with the Speaker by 2.00 pm on the next sitting day. A copy of any written response provided under this sessional order must be given to the member who asked the question and printed in Hansard.
- (3) The Speaker will determine the adequacy of a written response to a question provided under this sessional order. The Speaker may determine that a written response does not appropriately answer the question and may direct that the minister provide another written response by 2.00 pm the next sitting day. The Speaker will forward the written response to the member who asked the question, and a copy will be printed in Hansard.

12 Answers to questions on notice

A reply to a question on notice delivered to the Clerk under SO 54(3) must be submitted within 30 days.

13 Notices of motion

Standing Orders 140(1) and 141 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) A member may only move a motion to discuss a subject if he or she has given notice of that motion on a previous sitting day.
- (2) Copies of all notices, whether to be given verbally or in writing, must be provided to the Clerks at the table before notices are called on by the Speaker.
- (3) All notices given by ministers must be verbal.
- (4) Verbal notices must be read to the House. They can only be given before the House proceeds to the business of the day as set out in the notice paper.
- (5) All notices, except notices given under paragraph (6) given by members who are not ministers, must be given in writing. Members may give notice by lodging a copy with the Clerks in accordance with paragraph (2).

- (6) A motion by a member expressing no confidence in the Premier and ministers, in the terms set out in s 8A of the Constitution Act 1975, may only be given verbally or, where a member seeks to move the motion during formal business by leave, and leave is refused, the member may give notice of that motion.
- (7) The Clerk must notify the Speaker of a notice of a motion by a member to disallow a statutory rule to which Standing Order 151 applies, and the Speaker will report details to the House at the first convenient opportunity.

14 Responses to adjournment matters

If the minister responsible is not present in the House to respond to issues raised by members under SO 33, the minister will provide a written response to the member who raised the matter within 30 days.

15 Second reading speeches incorporated in Hansard

A second reading speech for a bill being introduced by a member or minister will be incorporated into Hansard at the request of the member or minister, with the following exceptions:

- (1) Where the speech contains a statement under s 85(5)(c) of the Constitution Act 1975, that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.
- (2) Where a speech contains a statement under s 31(5) of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.

16 Time limit for lead speakers

For the purposes of Standing Order 131, and subject to any agreement to the contrary, additional time provided for the lead speaker of any other party does not apply where such a party has advised the Speaker that it is in a coalition arrangement with another party.

17 Order of business

- (1) So much of standing orders as provide for question time to be held at 2.00 pm on sitting days other than Tuesdays is suspended to allow for question time to be held at 11.00 am on those days.
- (2) In Standing Order No 55, for '2.00 pm', wherever occurring, read '11.00 am'.
- (3) So much of Standing Order Nos 36, 38, 39 and 41 be suspended so as to enable the following order of business on:

Wednesdays

Formal business
 Disallowance motions

SESSIONAL ORDERS

Sessional orders were adopted by the House on 12 February 2015 and amended on 6 August 2015.

1 Days and times of meeting

Unless otherwise ordered, the House will meet each Tuesday at 12.00 pm, and each Wednesday and Thursday at 9.30 am.

2 Incorporation of statements of compatibility

A statement of compatibility tabled under s28 of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 will be incorporated in Hansard, without leave being required.

3 Interruption of business for adjournment

Standing Order 32 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the Speaker will interrupt the business before the House at:
  - (a) 7.00 pm each sitting Tuesday and Wednesday;
  - (b) 5.00 pm on any other sitting day.
- (2) If a division is taking place when the time for the interruption arises, the division will be completed and the result announced. If the division is on a closure motion, and the motion is agreed to, the question or questions then required to be put to close the issue before the House will also be dealt with. The Speaker will then interrupt business.
- (3) If the time for the interruption arises:
  - (a) at the same time as the completion time set by the government business program; or
  - (b) after the interruption for the completion time of the government business program, but before all business on the program has been dealt with —

all business on the government business program will be completed first. The Speaker will then interrupt business for the adjournment.
- (4) After the interruption:
  - (a) before a motion for the adjournment is proposed by the Speaker, a minister may move that the sitting be continued. That motion must be put immediately without amendment or debate. If it is agreed to, the House will resume debate at the point at which it had been interrupted; or
  - (b) if a motion is not moved, the Speaker will immediately propose the question 'That the House now adjourns'. Any business under discussion and any other business not concluded at the time of the adjournment will be listed on the notice paper for the next sitting day. Any member speaking at the time of the interruption may, when debate resumes, continue his or her speech.

4 Condolence motions

Where a condolence motion occurs under SO 42(1)(a), the House may adjourn for a period of one hour at the conclusion of the motion.

5 Who may ask oral questions without notice

Only non-government members may ask questions without notice under Standing Order 55.

6 Supplementary questions without notice

- (1) At the conclusion of each answer to an oral question without notice, the questioning member may ask the responding minister a supplementary question to elucidate or clarify the answer.
- (2) Supplementary questions must actually and accurately relate to the original question and must relate to or arise from the answer.

7 Ministers' statements

After each oral question without notice and any related supplementary questions, any minister may seek the call to make a statement of up to two minutes to advise the House of new government initiatives, projects and achievements.

8 Time limits on answers and questions

- (1) The time limit for each oral question, supplementary question and constituency question is one minute.
- (2) The time limit for the answer to each oral question is three minutes, and for the answer to each supplementary question is one minute.

9 Constituency questions

- (1) At the conclusion of oral questions without notice and ministers' statements, five government members and five non-government members may ask one oral question each to ministers relating to constituency matters.
- (2) Replies to constituency questions must be given in writing within 30 days by delivering a reply to the Clerk. A copy must be given to the member who asked the question, and printed in Hansard.

10 Duration of question time

Standing Order 55(2) is suspended and the following to apply:

Question time will last until five oral questions and related supplementary questions have been answered, and up to five ministers' statements have been made.

11 Content of answers

- (1) Standing Order 58(1)(a) be suspended and all answers to questions must be direct, factual, succinct and relevant.
- (2) The Speaker may determine that an answer to an oral question without notice or supplementary oral question is not responsive to the question, and may accordingly direct the minister to provide a written response to the question and lodge it with the Speaker by 2.00 pm on the next sitting day. A copy of any written response provided under this sessional order must be given to the member who asked the question and printed in Hansard.
- (3) The Speaker will determine the adequacy of a written response to a question provided under this sessional order. The Speaker may determine that a written response does not appropriately answer the question and may direct that the minister provide another written response by 2.00 pm the next sitting day. The Speaker will forward the written response to the member who asked the question, and a copy will be printed in Hansard.

12 Answers to questions on notice

A reply to a question on notice delivered to the Clerk under SO 54(3) must be submitted within 30 days.

13 Notices of motion

Standing Orders 140(1) and 141 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) A member may only move a motion to discuss a subject if he or she has given notice of that motion on a previous sitting day.
- (2) Copies of all notices, whether to be given verbally or in writing, must be provided to the Clerks at the table before notices are called on by the Speaker.
- (3) All notices given by ministers must be verbal.
- (4) Verbal notices must be read to the House. They can only be given before the House proceeds to the business of the day as set out in the notice paper.
- (5) All notices, except notices given under paragraph (6) given by members who are not ministers, must be given in writing. Members may give notice by lodging a copy with the Clerks in accordance with paragraph (2).

- (6) A motion by a member expressing no confidence in the Premier and ministers, in the terms set out in s 8A of the Constitution Act 1975, may only be given verbally or, where a member seeks to move the motion during formal business by leave, and leave is refused, the member may give notice of that motion.
- (7) The Clerk must notify the Speaker of a notice of a motion by a member to disallow a statutory rule to which Standing Order 151 applies, and the Speaker will report details to the House at the first convenient opportunity.

14 Responses to adjournment matters

If the minister responsible is not present in the House to respond to issues raised by members under SO 33, the minister will provide a written response to the member who raised the matter within 30 days.

15 Second reading speeches incorporated in Hansard

A second reading speech for a bill being introduced by a member or minister will be incorporated into Hansard at the request of the member or minister, with the following exceptions:

- (1) Where the speech contains a statement under s 85(5)(c) of the Constitution Act 1975, that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.
- (2) Where a speech contains a statement under s 31(5) of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.

16 Time limit for lead speakers

For the purposes of Standing Order 131, and subject to any agreement to the contrary, additional time provided for the lead speaker of any other party does not apply where such a party has advised the Speaker that it is in a coalition arrangement with another party.

17 Order of business

- (1) So much of standing orders as provide for question time to be held at 2.00 pm on sitting days other than Tuesdays is suspended to allow for question time to be held at 11.00 am on those days.
- (2) In Standing Order No 55, for '2.00 pm', wherever occurring, read '11.00 am'.
- (3) So much of Standing Order Nos 36, 38, 39 and 41 be suspended so as to enable the following order of business on:

Wednesdays

SESSIONAL ORDERS

Sessional orders were adopted by the House on 12 February 2015 and amended on 6 August 2015.

1 Days and times of meeting

Unless otherwise ordered, the House will meet each Tuesday at 12.00 pm, and each Wednesday and Thursday at 9.30 am.

2 Incorporation of statements of compatibility

A statement of compatibility tabled under s28 of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 will be incorporated in Hansard, without leave being required.

3 Interruption of business for adjournment

Standing Order 32 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the Speaker will interrupt the business before the House at:
  - (a) 7.00 pm each sitting Tuesday and Wednesday;
  - (b) 5.00 pm on any other sitting day.
- (2) If a division is taking place when the time for the interruption arises, the division will be completed and the result announced. If the division is on a closure motion, and the motion is agreed to, the question or questions then required to be put to close the issue before the House will also be dealt with. The Speaker will then interrupt business.
- (3) If the time for the interruption arises:
  - (a) at the same time as the completion time set by the government business program; or
  - (b) after the interruption for the completion time of the government business program, but before all business on the program has been dealt with —

all business on the government business program will be completed first. The Speaker will then interrupt business for the adjournment.
- (4) After the interruption:
  - (a) before a motion for the adjournment is proposed by the Speaker, a minister may move that the sitting be continued. That motion must be put immediately without amendment or debate. If it is agreed to, the House will resume debate at the point at which it had been interrupted; or
  - (b) if a motion is not moved, the Speaker will immediately propose the question 'That the House now adjourns'. Any business under discussion and any other business not concluded at the time of the adjournment will be listed on the notice paper for the next sitting day. Any member speaking at the time of the interruption may, when debate resumes, continue his or her speech.

4 Condolence motions

Where a condolence motion occurs under SO 42(1)(a), the House may adjourn for a period of one hour at the conclusion of the motion.

5 Who may ask oral questions without notice

Only non-government members may ask questions without notice under Standing Order 55.

6 Supplementary questions without notice

- (1) At the conclusion of each answer to an oral question without notice, the questioning member may ask the responding minister a supplementary question to elucidate or clarify the answer.
- (2) Supplementary questions must actually and accurately relate to the original question and must relate to or arise from the answer.

7 Ministers' statements

After each oral question without notice and any related supplementary questions, any minister may seek the call to make a statement of up to two minutes to advise the House of new government initiatives, projects and achievements.

8 Time limits on answers and questions

- (1) The time limit for each oral question, supplementary question and constituency question is one minute.
- (2) The time limit for the answer to each oral question is three minutes, and for the answer to each supplementary question is one minute.

9 Constituency questions

- (1) At the conclusion of oral questions without notice and ministers' statements, five government members and five non-government members may ask one oral question each to ministers relating to constituency matters.
- (2) Replies to constituency questions must be given in writing within 30 days by delivering a reply to the Clerk. A copy must be given to the member who asked the question, and printed in Hansard.

10 Duration of question time

Standing Order 55(2) is suspended and the following to apply:

Question time will last until five oral questions and related supplementary questions have been answered, and up to five ministers' statements have been made.

11 Content of answers

- (1) Standing Order 58(1)(a) be suspended and all answers to questions must be direct, factual, succinct and relevant.
- (2) The Speaker may determine that an answer to an oral question without notice or supplementary oral question is not responsive to the question, and may accordingly direct the minister to provide a written response to the question and lodge it with the Speaker by 2.00 pm on the next sitting day. A copy of any written response provided under this sessional order must be given to the member who asked the question and printed in Hansard.
- (3) The Speaker will determine the adequacy of a written response to a question provided under this sessional order. The Speaker may determine that a written response does not appropriately answer the question and may direct that the minister provide another written response by 2.00 pm the next sitting day. The Speaker will forward the written response to the member who asked the question, and a copy will be printed in Hansard.

12 Answers to questions on notice

A reply to a question on notice delivered to the Clerk under SO 54(3) must be submitted within 30 days.

13 Notices of motion

Standing Orders 140(1) and 141 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) A member may only move a motion to discuss a subject if he or she has given notice of that motion on a previous sitting day.
- (2) Copies of all notices, whether to be given verbally or in writing, must be provided to the Clerks at the table before notices are called on by the Speaker.
- (3) All notices given by ministers must be verbal.
- (4) Verbal notices must be read to the House. They can only be given before the House proceeds to the business of the day as set out in the notice paper.
- (5) All notices, except notices given under paragraph (6) given by members who are not ministers, must be given in writing. Members may give notice by lodging a copy with the Clerks in accordance with paragraph (2).

- (6) A motion by a member expressing no confidence in the Premier and ministers, in the terms set out in s 8A of the Constitution Act 1975, may only be given verbally or, where a member seeks to move the motion during formal business by leave, and leave is refused, the member may give notice of that motion.
- (7) The Clerk must notify the Speaker of a notice of a motion by a member to disallow a statutory rule to which Standing Order 151 applies, and the Speaker will report details to the House at the first convenient opportunity.

14 Responses to adjournment matters

If the minister responsible is not present in the House to respond to issues raised by members under SO 33, the minister will provide a written response to the member who raised the matter within 30 days.

15 Second reading speeches incorporated in Hansard

A second reading speech for a bill being introduced by a member or minister will be incorporated into Hansard at the request of the member or minister, with the following exceptions:

- (1) Where the speech contains a statement under s 85(5)(c) of the Constitution Act 1975, that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.

SESSIONAL ORDERS

Sessional orders were adopted by the House on 12 February 2015 and amended on 6 August 2015.

1 Days and times of meeting

Unless otherwise ordered, the House will meet each Tuesday at 12.00 pm, and each Wednesday and Thursday at 9.30 am.

2 Incorporation of statements of compatibility

A statement of compatibility tabled under s28 of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 will be incorporated in Hansard, without leave being required.

3 Interruption of business for adjournment

Standing Order 32 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the Speaker will interrupt the business before the House at:
  - (a) 7.00 pm each sitting Tuesday and Wednesday;
  - (b) 5.00 pm on any other sitting day.
- (2) If a division is taking place when the time for the interruption arises, the division will be completed and the result announced. If the division is on a closure motion, and the motion is agreed to, the question or questions then required to be put to close the issue before the House will also be dealt with. The Speaker will then interrupt business.
- (3) If the time for the interruption arises:
  - (a) at the same time as the completion time set by the government business program; or
  - (b) after the interruption for the completion time of the government business program, but before all business on the program has been dealt with —

all business on the government business program will be completed first. The Speaker will then interrupt business for the adjournment.
- (4) After the interruption:
  - (a) before a motion for the adjournment is proposed by the Speaker, a minister may move that the sitting be continued. That motion must be put immediately without amendment or debate. If it is agreed to, the House will resume debate at the point at which it had been interrupted; or
  - (b) if a motion is not moved, the Speaker will immediately propose the question 'That the House now adjourns'. Any business under discussion and any other business not concluded at the time of the adjournment will be listed on the notice paper for the next sitting day. Any member speaking at the time of the interruption may, when debate resumes, continue his or her speech.

4 Condolence motions

Where a condolence motion occurs under SO 42(1)(a), the House may adjourn for a period of one hour at the conclusion of the motion.

5 Who may ask oral questions without notice

Only non-government members may ask questions without notice under Standing Order 55.

6 Supplementary questions without notice

- (1) At the conclusion of each answer to an oral question without notice, the questioning member may ask the responding minister a supplementary question to elucidate or clarify the answer.
- (2) Supplementary questions must actually and accurately relate to the original question and must relate to or arise from the answer.

7 Ministers' statements

After each oral question without notice and any related supplementary questions, any minister may seek the call to make a statement of up to two minutes to advise the House of new government initiatives, projects and achievements.

8 Time limits on answers and questions

- (1) The time limit for each oral question, supplementary question and constituency question is one minute.
- (2) The time limit for the answer to each oral question is three minutes, and for the answer to each supplementary question is one minute.

9 Constituency questions

- (1) At the conclusion of oral questions without notice and ministers' statements, five government members and five non-government members may ask one oral question each to ministers relating to constituency matters.
- (2) Replies to constituency questions must be given in writing within 30 days by delivering a reply to the Clerk. A copy must be given to the member who asked the question, and printed in Hansard.

10 Duration of question time

Standing Order 55(2) is suspended and the following to apply:

Question time will last until five oral questions and related supplementary questions have been answered, and up to five ministers' statements have been made.

11 Content of answers

- (1) Standing Order 58(1)(a) be suspended and all answers to questions must be direct, factual, succinct and relevant.
- (2) The Speaker may determine that an answer to an oral question without notice or supplementary oral question is not responsive to the question, and may accordingly direct the minister to provide a written response to the question and lodge it with the Speaker by 2.00 pm on the next sitting day. A copy of any written response provided under this sessional order must be given to the member who asked the question and printed in Hansard.
- (3) The Speaker will determine the adequacy of a written response to a question provided under this sessional order. The Speaker may determine that a written response does not appropriately answer the question and may direct that the minister provide another written response by 2.00 pm the next sitting day. The Speaker will forward the written response to the member who asked the question, and a copy will be printed in Hansard.

12 Answers to questions on notice

A reply to a question on notice delivered to the Clerk under SO 54(3) must be submitted within 30 days.

13 Notices of motion

Standing Orders 140(1) and 141 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) A member may only move a motion to discuss a subject if he or she has given notice of that motion on a previous sitting day.
- (2) Copies of all notices, whether to be given verbally or in writing, must be provided to the Clerks at the table before notices are called on by the Speaker.
- (3) All notices given by ministers must be verbal.
- (4) Verbal notices must be read to the House. They can only be given before the House proceeds to the business of the day as set out in the notice paper.
- (5) All notices, except notices given under paragraph (6) given by members who are not ministers, must be given in writing. Members may give notice by lodging a copy with the Clerks in accordance with paragraph (2).

- (6) A motion by a member expressing no confidence in the Premier and ministers, in the terms set out in s 8A of the Constitution Act 1975, may only be given verbally or, where a member seeks to move the motion during formal business by leave, and leave is refused, the member may give notice of that motion.
- (7) The Clerk must notify the Speaker of a notice of a motion by a member to disallow a statutory rule to which Standing Order 151 applies, and the Speaker will report details to the House at the first convenient opportunity.

14 Responses to adjournment matters

If the minister responsible is not present in the House to respond to issues raised by members under SO 33, the minister will provide a written response to the member who raised the matter within 30 days.

15 Second reading speeches incorporated in Hansard

A second reading speech for a bill being introduced by a member or minister will be incorporated into Hansard at the request of the member or minister, with the following exceptions:

- (1) Where the speech contains a statement under s 85(5)(c) of the Constitution Act 1975, that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.
- (2) Where a speech contains a statement under s 31(5) of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.

16 Time limit for lead speakers

For the purposes of Standing Order 131, and subject to any agreement to the contrary, additional time provided for the lead speaker of any other party does not apply where such a party has advised the Speaker that it is in a coalition arrangement with another party.

17 Order of business

- (1) So much of standing orders as provide for question time to be held at 2.00 pm on sitting days other than Tuesdays is suspended to allow for question time to be held at 11.00 am on those days.
- (2) In Standing Order No 55, for '2.00 pm', wherever occurring, read '11.00 am'.
- (3) So much of Standing Order Nos 36, 38, 39 and 41 be suspended so as to enable the following order of business on:

Wednesdays

SESSIONAL ORDERS

Sessional orders were adopted by the House on 12 February 2015 and amended on 6 August 2015.

1 Days and times of meeting

Unless otherwise ordered, the House will meet each Tuesday at 12.00 pm, and each Wednesday and Thursday at 9.30 am.

2 Incorporation of statements of compatibility

A statement of compatibility tabled under s28 of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 will be incorporated in Hansard, without leave being required.

3 Interruption of business for adjournment

Standing Order 32 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the Speaker will interrupt the business before the House at:
  - (a) 7.00 pm each sitting Tuesday and Wednesday;
  - (b) 5.00 pm on any other sitting day.
- (2) If a division is taking place when the time for the interruption arises, the division will be completed and the result announced. If the division is on a closure motion, and the motion is agreed to, the question or questions then required to be put to close the issue before the House will also be dealt with. The Speaker will then interrupt business.
- (3) If the time for the interruption arises:
  - (a) at the same time as the completion time set by the government business program; or
  - (b) after the interruption for the completion time of the government business program, but before all business on the program has been dealt with —

all business on the government business program will be completed first. The Speaker will then interrupt business for the adjournment.
- (4) After the interruption:
  - (a) before a motion for the adjournment is proposed by the Speaker, a minister may move that the sitting be continued. That motion must be put immediately without amendment or debate. If it is agreed to, the House will resume debate at the point at which it had been interrupted; or
  - (b) if a motion is not moved, the Speaker will immediately propose the question 'That the House now adjourns'. Any business under discussion and any other business not concluded at the time of the adjournment will be listed on the notice paper for the next sitting day. Any member speaking at the time of the interruption may, when debate resumes, continue his or her speech.

4 Condolence motions

Where a condolence motion occurs under SO 42(1)(a), the House may adjourn for a period of one hour at the conclusion of the motion.

5 Who may ask oral questions without notice

Only non-government members may ask questions without notice under Standing Order 55.

6 Supplementary questions without notice

- (1) At the conclusion of each answer to an oral question without notice, the questioning member may ask the responding minister a supplementary question to elucidate or clarify the answer.
- (2) Supplementary questions must actually and accurately relate to the original question and must relate to or arise from the answer.

7 Ministers' statements

After each oral question without notice and any related supplementary questions, any minister may seek the call to make a statement of up to two minutes to advise the House of new government initiatives, projects and achievements.

8 Time limits on answers and questions

- (1) The time limit for each oral question, supplementary question and constituency question is one minute.
- (2) The time limit for the answer to each oral question is three minutes, and for the answer to each supplementary question is one minute.

9 Constituency questions

- (1) At the conclusion of oral questions without notice and ministers' statements, five government members and five non-government members may ask one oral question each to ministers relating to constituency matters.
- (2) Replies to constituency questions must be given in writing within 30 days by delivering a reply to the Clerk. A copy must be given to the member who asked the question, and printed in Hansard.

10 Duration of question time

Standing Order 55(2) is suspended and the following to apply:

Question time will last until five oral questions and related supplementary questions have been answered, and up to five ministers' statements have been made.

11 Content of answers

- (1) Standing Order 58(1)(a) be suspended and all answers to questions must be direct, factual, succinct and relevant.
- (2) The Speaker may determine that an answer to an oral question without notice or supplementary oral question is not responsive to the question, and may accordingly direct the minister to provide a written response to the question and lodge it with the Speaker by 2.00 pm on the next sitting day. A copy of any written response provided under this sessional order must be given to the member who asked the question and printed in Hansard.
- (3) The Speaker will determine the adequacy of a written response to a question provided under this sessional order. The Speaker may determine that a written response does not appropriately answer the question and may direct that the minister provide another written response by 2.00 pm the next sitting day. The Speaker will forward the written response to the member who asked the question, and a copy will be printed in Hansard.

12 Answers to questions on notice

A reply to a question on notice delivered to the Clerk under SO 54(3) must be submitted within 30 days.

13 Notices of motion

Standing Orders 140(1) and 141 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) A member may only move a motion to discuss a subject if he or she has given notice of that motion on a previous sitting day.
- (2) Copies of all notices, whether to be given verbally or in writing, must be provided to the Clerks at the table before notices are called on by the Speaker.
- (3) All notices given by ministers must be verbal.
- (4) Verbal notices must be read to the House. They can only be given before the House proceeds to the business of the day as set out in the notice paper.
- (5) All notices, except notices given under paragraph (6) given by members who are not ministers, must be given in writing. Members may give notice by lodging a copy with the Clerks in accordance with paragraph (2).

- (6) A motion by a member expressing no confidence in the Premier and ministers, in the terms set out in s 8A of the Constitution Act 1975, may only be given verbally or, where a member seeks to move the motion during formal business by leave, and leave is refused, the member may give notice of that motion.
- (7) The Clerk must notify the Speaker of a notice of a motion by a member to disallow a statutory rule to which Standing Order 151 applies, and the Speaker will report details to the House at the first convenient opportunity.

14 Responses to adjournment matters

If the minister responsible is not present in the House to respond to issues raised by members under SO 33, the minister will provide a written response to the member who raised the matter within 30 days.

15 Second reading speeches incorporated in Hansard

A second reading speech for a bill being introduced by a member or minister will be incorporated into Hansard at the request of the member or minister, with the following exceptions:

- (1) Where the speech contains a statement under s 85(5)(c) of the Constitution Act 1975, that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.
- (2) Where a speech contains a statement under s 31(5) of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.

16 Time limit for lead speakers

For the purposes of Standing Order 131, and subject to any agreement to the contrary, additional time provided for the lead speaker of any other party does not apply where such a party has advised the Speaker that it is in a coalition arrangement with another party.

17 Order of business

- (1) So much of standing orders as provide for question time to be held at 2.00 pm on sitting days other than Tuesdays is suspended to allow for question time to be held at 11.00 am on those days.
- (2) In Standing Order No 55, for '2.00 pm', wherever occurring, read '11.00 am'.
- (3) So much of Standing Order Nos 36, 38, 39 and 41 be suspended so as to enable the following order of business on:

SESSIONAL ORDERS

Sessional orders were adopted by the House on 12 February 2015 and amended on 6 August 2015.

1 Days and times of meeting

Unless otherwise ordered, the House will meet each Tuesday at 12.00 pm, and each Wednesday and Thursday at 9.30 am.

2 Incorporation of statements of compatibility

A statement of compatibility tabled under s28 of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 will be incorporated in Hansard, without leave being required.

3 Interruption of business for adjournment

Standing Order 32 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the Speaker will interrupt the business before the House at:
  - (a) 7.00 pm each sitting Tuesday and Wednesday;
  - (b) 5.00 pm on any other sitting day.
- (2) If a division is taking place when the time for the interruption arises, the division will be completed and the result announced. If the division is on a closure motion, and the motion is agreed to, the question or questions then required to be put to close the issue before the House will also be dealt with. The Speaker will then interrupt business.
- (3) If the time for the interruption arises:
  - (a) at the same time as the completion time set by the government business program; or
  - (b) after the interruption for the completion time of the government business program, but before all business on the program has been dealt with —

all business on the government business program will be completed first. The Speaker will then interrupt business for the adjournment.
- (4) After the interruption:
  - (a) before a motion for the adjournment is proposed by the Speaker, a minister may move that the sitting be continued. That motion must be put immediately without amendment or debate. If it is agreed to, the House will resume debate at the point at which it had been interrupted; or
  - (b) if a motion is not moved, the Speaker will immediately propose the question 'That the House now adjourns'. Any business under discussion and any other business not concluded at the time of the adjournment will be listed on the notice paper for the next sitting day. Any member speaking at the time of the interruption may, when debate resumes, continue his or her speech.

4 Condolence motions

Where a condolence motion occurs under SO 42(1)(a), the House may adjourn for a period of one hour at the conclusion of the motion.

5 Who may ask oral questions without notice

Only non-government members may ask questions without notice under Standing Order 55.

6 Supplementary questions without notice

- (1) At the conclusion of each answer to an oral question without notice, the questioning member may ask the responding minister a supplementary question to elucidate or clarify the answer.
- (2) Supplementary questions must actually and accurately relate to the original question and must relate to or arise from the answer.

7 Ministers' statements

After each oral question without notice and any related supplementary questions, any minister may seek the call to make a statement of up to two minutes to advise the House of new government initiatives, projects and achievements.

8 Time limits on answers and questions

- (1) The time limit for each oral question, supplementary question and constituency question is one minute.
- (2) The time limit for the answer to each oral question is three minutes, and for the answer to each supplementary question is one minute.

9 Constituency questions

- (1) At the conclusion of oral questions without notice and ministers' statements, five government members and five non-government members may ask one oral question each to ministers relating to constituency matters.
- (2) Replies to constituency questions must be given in writing within 30 days by delivering a reply to the Clerk. A copy must be given to the member who asked the question, and printed in Hansard.

10 Duration of question time

Standing Order 55(2) is suspended and the following to apply:

Question time will last until five oral questions and related supplementary questions have been answered, and up to five ministers' statements have been made.

11 Content of answers

- (1) Standing Order 58(1)(a) be suspended and all answers to questions must be direct, factual, succinct and relevant.
- (2) The Speaker may determine that an answer to an oral question without notice or supplementary oral question is not responsive to the question, and may accordingly direct the minister to provide a written response to the question and lodge it with the Speaker by 2.00 pm on the next sitting day. A copy of any written response provided under this sessional order must be given to the member who asked the question and printed in Hansard.
- (3) The Speaker will determine the adequacy of a written response to a question provided under this sessional order. The Speaker may determine that a written response does not appropriately answer the question and may direct that the minister provide another written response by 2.00 pm the next sitting day. The Speaker will forward the written response to the member who asked the question, and a copy will be printed in Hansard.

12 Answers to questions on notice

A reply to a question on notice delivered to the Clerk under SO 54(3) must be submitted within 30 days.

13 Notices of motion

Standing Orders 140(1) and 141 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) A member may only move a motion to discuss a subject if he or she has given notice of that motion on a previous sitting day.
- (2) Copies of all notices, whether to be given verbally or in writing, must be provided to the Clerks at the table before notices are called on by the Speaker.
- (3) All notices given by ministers must be verbal.
- (4) Verbal notices must be read to the House. They can only be given before the House proceeds to the business of the day as set out in the notice paper.
- (5) All notices, except notices given under paragraph (6) given by members who are not ministers, must be given in writing. Members may give notice by lodging a copy with the Clerks in accordance with paragraph (2).

- (6) A motion by a member expressing no confidence in the Premier and ministers, in the terms set out in s 8A of the Constitution Act 1975, may only be given verbally or, where a member seeks to move the motion during formal business by leave, and leave is refused, the member may give notice of that motion.
- (7) The Clerk must notify the Speaker of a notice of a motion by a member to disallow a statutory rule to which Standing Order 151 applies, and the Speaker will report details to the House at the first convenient opportunity.

14 Responses to adjournment matters

If the minister responsible is not present in the House to respond to issues raised by members under SO 33, the minister will provide a written response to the member who raised the matter within 30 days.

15 Second reading speeches incorporated in Hansard

A second reading speech for a bill being introduced by a member or minister will be incorporated into Hansard at the request of the member or minister, with the following exceptions:

- (1) Where the speech contains a statement under s 85(5)(c) of the Constitution Act 1975, that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.
- (2) Where a speech contains a statement under s 31(5) of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.

16 Time limit for lead speakers

For the purposes of Standing Order 131, and subject to any agreement to the contrary, additional time provided for the lead speaker of any other party does not apply where such a party has advised the Speaker that it is in a coalition arrangement with another party.

17 Order of business

- (1) So much of standing orders as provide for question time to be held at 2.00 pm on sitting days other than Tuesdays is suspended to allow for question time to be held at 11.00 am on those days.
- (2) In Standing Order No 55, for '2.00 pm', wherever occurring, read '11.00 am'.
- (3) So much of Standing Order Nos 36, 38, 39 and 41 be suspended so as to enable the following order of business on:

Wednesdays

Formal business
 Disallowance motions
 Statements by members
 Statements on parliamentary committee reports

SESSIONAL ORDERS

Sessional orders were adopted by the House on 12 February 2015 and amended on 6 August 2015.

1 Days and times of meeting

Unless otherwise ordered, the House will meet each Tuesday at 12.00 pm, and each Wednesday and Thursday at 9.30 am.

2 Incorporation of statements of compatibility

A statement of compatibility tabled under s28 of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 will be incorporated in Hansard, without leave being required.

3 Interruption of business for adjournment

Standing Order 32 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the Speaker will interrupt the business before the House at:
  - (a) 7.00 pm each sitting Tuesday and Wednesday;
  - (b) 5.00 pm on any other sitting day.
- (2) If a division is taking place when the time for the interruption arises, the division will be completed and the result announced. If the division is on a closure motion, and the motion is agreed to, the question or questions then required to be put to close the issue before the House will also be dealt with. The Speaker will then interrupt business.
- (3) If the time for the interruption arises:
  - (a) at the same time as the completion time set by the government business program; or
  - (b) after the interruption for the completion time of the government business program, but before all business on the program has been dealt with —all business on the government business program will be completed first. The Speaker will then interrupt business for the adjournment.
- (4) After the interruption:
  - (a) before a motion for the adjournment is proposed by the Speaker, a minister may move that the sitting be continued. That motion must be put immediately without amendment or debate. If it is agreed to, the House will resume debate at the point at which it had been interrupted; or
  - (b) if a motion is not moved, the Speaker will immediately propose the question 'That the House now adjourns'. Any business under discussion and any other business not concluded at the time of the adjournment will be listed on the notice paper for the next sitting day. Any member speaking at the time of the interruption may, when debate resumes, continue his or her speech.

4 Condolence motions

Where a condolence motion occurs under SO 42(1)(a), the House may adjourn for a period of one hour at the conclusion of the motion.

5 Who may ask oral questions without notice

Only non-government members may ask questions without notice under Standing Order 55.

6 Supplementary questions without notice

- (1) At the conclusion of each answer to an oral question without notice, the questioning member may ask the responding minister a supplementary question to elucidate or clarify the answer.
- (2) Supplementary questions must actually and accurately relate to the original question and must relate to or arise from the answer.

7 Ministers' statements

After each oral question without notice and any related supplementary questions, any minister may seek the call to make a statement of up to two minutes to advise the House of new government initiatives, projects and achievements.

8 Time limits on answers and questions

- (1) The time limit for each oral question, supplementary question and constituency question is one minute.
- (2) The time limit for the answer to each oral question is three minutes, and for the answer to each supplementary question is one minute.

9 Constituency questions

- (1) At the conclusion of oral questions without notice and ministers' statements, five government members and five non-government members may ask one oral question each to ministers relating to constituency matters.
- (2) Replies to constituency questions must be given in writing within 30 days by delivering a reply to the Clerk. A copy must be given to the member who asked the question, and printed in Hansard.

10 Duration of question time

Standing Order 55(2) is suspended and the following to apply:

Question time will last until five oral questions and related supplementary questions have been answered, and up to five ministers' statements have been made.

11 Content of answers

- (1) Standing Order 58(1)(a) be suspended and all answers to questions must be direct, factual, succinct and relevant.
- (2) The Speaker may determine that an answer to an oral question without notice or supplementary oral question is not responsive to the question, and may accordingly direct the minister to provide a written response to the question and lodge it with the Speaker by 2.00 pm on the next sitting day. A copy of any written response provided under this sessional order must be given to the member who asked the question and printed in Hansard.
- (3) The Speaker will determine the adequacy of a written response to a question provided under this sessional order. The Speaker may determine that a written response does not appropriately answer the question and may direct that the minister provide another written response by 2.00 pm the next sitting day. The Speaker will forward the written response to the member who asked the question, and a copy will be printed in Hansard.

12 Answers to questions on notice

A reply to a question on notice delivered to the Clerk under SO 54(3) must be submitted within 30 days.

13 Notices of motion

Standing Orders 140(1) and 141 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) A member may only move a motion to discuss a subject if he or she has given notice of that motion on a previous sitting day.
- (2) Copies of all notices, whether to be given verbally or in writing, must be provided to the Clerks at the table before notices are called on by the Speaker.
- (3) All notices given by ministers must be verbal.
- (4) Verbal notices must be read to the House. They can only be given before the House proceeds to the business of the day as set out in the notice paper.

- (5) All notices, except notices given under paragraph (6) given by members who are not ministers, must be given in writing. Members may give notice by lodging a copy with the Clerks in accordance with paragraph (2).
- (6) A motion by a member expressing no confidence in the Premier and ministers, in the terms set out in s 8A of the Constitution Act 1975, may only be given verbally or, where a member seeks to move the motion during formal business by leave, and leave is refused, the member may give notice of that motion.
- (7) The Clerk must notify the Speaker of a notice of a motion by a member to disallow a statutory rule to which Standing Order 151 applies, and the Speaker will report details to the House at the first convenient opportunity.

14 Responses to adjournment matters

If the minister responsible is not present in the House to respond to issues raised by members under SO 33, the minister will provide a written response to the member who raised the matter within 30 days.

15 Second reading speeches incorporated in Hansard

A second reading speech for a bill being introduced by a member or minister will be incorporated into Hansard at the request of the member or minister, with the following exceptions:

- (1) Where the speech contains a statement under s 85(5)(c) of the Constitution Act 1975, that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.
- (2) Where a speech contains a statement under s 31(5) of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.

16 Time limit for lead speakers

For the purposes of Standing Order 131, and subject to any agreement to the contrary, additional time provided for the lead speaker of any other party does not apply where such a party has advised the Speaker that it is in a coalition arrangement with another party.

17 Order of business

- (1) So much of standing orders as provide for question time to be held at 2.00 pm on sitting days other than Tuesdays is suspended to allow for question time to be held at 11.00 am on those days.
- (2) In Standing Order No 55, for '2.00 pm', wherever occurring, read '11.00 am'.
- (3) So much of Standing Order Nos 36, 38, 39 and 41 be suspended so as to enable the following order of business on:

Wednesdays

Formal business
 Disallowance motions
 Statements by members
 Statements on parliamentary committee reports
 Government business

SESSIONAL ORDERS

Sessional orders were adopted by the House on 12 February 2015 and amended on 6 August 2015.

1 Days and times of meeting

Unless otherwise ordered, the House will meet each Tuesday at 12.00 pm, and each Wednesday and Thursday at 9.30 am.

2 Incorporation of statements of compatibility

A statement of compatibility tabled under s28 of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 will be incorporated in Hansard, without leave being required.

3 Interruption of business for adjournment

Standing Order 32 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the Speaker will interrupt the business before the House at:
  - (a) 7.00 pm each sitting Tuesday and Wednesday;
  - (b) 5.00 pm on any other sitting day.
- (2) If a division is taking place when the time for the interruption arises, the division will be completed and the result announced. If the division is on a closure motion, and the motion is agreed to, the question or questions then required to be put to close the issue before the House will also be dealt with. The Speaker will then interrupt business.
- (3) If the time for the interruption arises:
  - (a) at the same time as the completion time set by the government business program; or
  - (b) after the interruption for the completion time of the government business program, but before all business on the program has been dealt with —all business on the government business program will be completed first. The Speaker will then interrupt business for the adjournment.
- (4) After the interruption:
  - (a) before a motion for the adjournment is proposed by the Speaker, a minister may move that the sitting be continued. That motion must be put immediately without amendment or debate. If it is agreed to, the House will resume debate at the point at which it had been interrupted; or
  - (b) if a motion is not moved, the Speaker will immediately propose the question 'That the House now adjourns'. Any business under discussion and any other business not concluded at the time of the adjournment will be listed on the notice paper for the next sitting day. Any member speaking at the time of the interruption may, when debate resumes, continue his or her speech.

4 Condolence motions

Where a condolence motion occurs under SO 42(1)(a), the House may adjourn for a period of one hour at the conclusion of the motion.

5 Who may ask oral questions without notice

Only non-government members may ask questions without notice under Standing Order 55.

6 Supplementary questions without notice

- (1) At the conclusion of each answer to an oral question without notice, the questioning member may ask the responding minister a supplementary question to elucidate or clarify the answer.
- (2) Supplementary questions must actually and accurately relate to the original question and must relate to or arise from the answer.

7 Ministers' statements

After each oral question without notice and any related supplementary questions, any minister may seek the call to make a statement of up to two minutes to advise the House of new government initiatives, projects and achievements.

8 Time limits on answers and questions

- (1) The time limit for each oral question, supplementary question and constituency question is one minute.
- (2) The time limit for the answer to each oral question is three minutes, and for the answer to each supplementary question is one minute.

9 Constituency questions

- (1) At the conclusion of oral questions without notice and ministers' statements, five government members and five non-government members may ask one oral question each to ministers relating to constituency matters.
- (2) Replies to constituency questions must be given in writing within 30 days by delivering a reply to the Clerk. A copy must be given to the member who asked the question, and printed in Hansard.

10 Duration of question time

Standing Order 55(2) is suspended and the following to apply:

Question time will last until five oral questions and related supplementary questions have been answered, and up to five ministers' statements have been made.

11 Content of answers

- (1) Standing Order 58(1)(a) be suspended and all answers to questions must be direct, factual, succinct and relevant.
- (2) The Speaker may determine that an answer to an oral question without notice or supplementary oral question is not responsive to the question, and may accordingly direct the minister to provide a written response to the question and lodge it with the Speaker by 2.00 pm on the next sitting day. A copy of any written response provided under this sessional order must be given to the member who asked the question and printed in Hansard.
- (3) The Speaker will determine the adequacy of a written response to a question provided under this sessional order. The Speaker may determine that a written response does not appropriately answer the question and may direct that the minister provide another written response by 2.00 pm the next sitting day. The Speaker will forward the written response to the member who asked the question, and a copy will be printed in Hansard.

12 Answers to questions on notice

A reply to a question on notice delivered to the Clerk under SO 54(3) must be submitted within 30 days.

13 Notices of motion

Standing Orders 140(1) and 141 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) A member may only move a motion to discuss a subject if he or she has given notice of that motion on a previous sitting day.
- (2) Copies of all notices, whether to be given verbally or in writing, must be provided to the Clerks at the table before notices are called on by the Speaker.
- (3) All notices given by ministers must be verbal.
- (4) Verbal notices must be read to the House. They can only be given before the House proceeds to the business of the day as set out in the notice paper.
- (5) All notices, except notices given under paragraph (6) given by members who are not ministers, must be given in writing. Members may give notice by lodging a copy with the Clerks in accordance with paragraph (2).

- (6) A motion by a member expressing no confidence in the Premier and ministers, in the terms set out in s 8A of the Constitution Act 1975, may only be given verbally or, where a member seeks to move the motion during formal business by leave, and leave is refused, the member may give notice of that motion.
- (7) The Clerk must notify the Speaker of a notice of a motion by a member to disallow a statutory rule to which Standing Order 151 applies, and the Speaker will report details to the House at the first convenient opportunity.

14 Responses to adjournment matters

If the minister responsible is not present in the House to respond to issues raised by members under SO 33, the minister will provide a written response to the member who raised the matter within 30 days.

15 Second reading speeches incorporated in Hansard

A second reading speech for a bill being introduced by a member or minister will be incorporated into Hansard at the request of the member or minister, with the following exceptions:

- (1) Where the speech contains a statement under s 85(5)(c) of the Constitution Act 1975, that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.
- (2) Where a speech contains a statement under s 31(5) of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.

16 Time limit for lead speakers

For the purposes of Standing Order 131, and subject to any agreement to the contrary, additional time provided for the lead speaker of any other party does not apply where such a party has advised the Speaker that it is in a coalition arrangement with another party.

17 Order of business

- (1) So much of standing orders as provide for question time to be held at 2.00 pm on sitting days other than Tuesdays is suspended to allow for question time to be held at 11.00 am on those days.
- (2) In Standing Order No 55, for '2.00 pm', wherever occurring, read '11.00 am'.
- (3) So much of Standing Order Nos 36, 38, 39 and 41 be suspended so as to enable the following order of business on:

Wednesdays

SESSIONAL ORDERS

Sessional orders were adopted by the House on 12 February 2015 and amended on 6 August 2015.

1 Days and times of meeting

Unless otherwise ordered, the House will meet each Tuesday at 12.00 pm, and each Wednesday and Thursday at 9.30 am.

2 Incorporation of statements of compatibility

A statement of compatibility tabled under s28 of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 will be incorporated in Hansard, without leave being required.

3 Interruption of business for adjournment

Standing Order 32 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the Speaker will interrupt the business before the House at:
  - (a) 7.00 pm each sitting Tuesday and Wednesday;
  - (b) 5.00 pm on any other sitting day.
- (2) If a division is taking place when the time for the interruption arises, the division will be completed and the result announced. If the division is on a closure motion, and the motion is agreed to, the question or questions then required to be put to close the issue before the House will also be dealt with. The Speaker will then interrupt business.
- (3) If the time for the interruption arises:
  - (a) at the same time as the completion time set by the government business program; or
  - (b) after the interruption for the completion time of the government business program, but before all business on the program has been dealt with —all business on the government business program will be completed first. The Speaker will then interrupt business for the adjournment.
- (4) After the interruption:
  - (a) before a motion for the adjournment is proposed by the Speaker, a minister may move that the sitting be continued. That motion must be put immediately without amendment or debate. If it is agreed to, the House will resume debate at the point at which it had been interrupted; or
  - (b) if a motion is not moved, the Speaker will immediately propose the question 'That the House now adjourns'. Any business under discussion and any other business not concluded at the time of the adjournment will be listed on the notice paper for the next sitting day. Any member speaking at the time of the interruption may, when debate resumes, continue his or her speech.

4 Condolence motions

Where a condolence motion occurs under SO 42(1)(a), the House may adjourn for a period of one hour at the conclusion of the motion.

5 Who may ask oral questions without notice

Only non-government members may ask questions without notice under Standing Order 55.

6 Supplementary questions without notice

- (1) At the conclusion of each answer to an oral question without notice, the questioning member may ask the responding minister a supplementary question to elucidate or clarify the answer.
- (2) Supplementary questions must actually and accurately relate to the original question and must relate to or arise from the answer.

7 Ministers' statements

After each oral question without notice and any related supplementary questions, any minister may seek the call to make a statement of up to two minutes to advise the House of new government initiatives, projects and achievements.

8 Time limits on answers and questions

- (1) The time limit for each oral question, supplementary question and constituency question is one minute.
- (2) The time limit for the answer to each oral question is three minutes, and for the answer to each supplementary question is one minute.

9 Constituency questions

- (1) At the conclusion of oral questions without notice and ministers' statements, five government members and five non-government members may ask one oral question each to ministers relating to constituency matters.
- (2) Replies to constituency questions must be given in writing within 30 days by delivering a reply to the Clerk. A copy must be given to the member who asked the question, and printed in Hansard.

10 Duration of question time

Standing Order 55(2) is suspended and the following to apply:

Question time will last until five oral questions and related supplementary questions have been answered, and up to five ministers' statements have been made.

11 Content of answers

- (1) Standing Order 58(1)(a) be suspended and all answers to questions must be direct, factual, succinct and relevant.
- (2) The Speaker may determine that an answer to an oral question without notice or supplementary oral question is not responsive to the question, and may accordingly direct the minister to provide a written response to the question and lodge it with the Speaker by 2.00 pm on the next sitting day. A copy of any written response provided under this sessional order must be given to the member who asked the question and printed in Hansard.
- (3) The Speaker will determine the adequacy of a written response to a question provided under this sessional order. The Speaker may determine that a written response does not appropriately answer the question and may direct that the minister provide another written response by 2.00 pm the next sitting day. The Speaker will forward the written response to the member who asked the question, and a copy will be printed in Hansard.

12 Answers to questions on notice

A reply to a question on notice delivered to the Clerk under SO 54(3) must be submitted within 30 days.

13 Notices of motion

Standing Orders 140(1) and 141 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) A member may only move a motion to discuss a subject if he or she has given notice of that motion on a previous sitting day.
- (2) Copies of all notices, whether to be given verbally or in writing, must be provided to the Clerks at the table before notices are called on by the Speaker.
- (3) All notices given by ministers must be verbal.
- (4) Verbal notices must be read to the House. They can only be given before the House proceeds to the business of the day as set out in the notice paper.
- (5) All notices, except notices given under paragraph (6) given by members who are not ministers, must be given in writing. Members may give notice by lodging a copy with the Clerks in accordance with paragraph (2).

- (6) A motion by a member expressing no confidence in the Premier and ministers, in the terms set out in s 8A of the Constitution Act 1975, may only be given verbally or, where a member seeks to move the motion during formal business by leave, and leave is refused, the member may give notice of that motion.
- (7) The Clerk must notify the Speaker of a notice of a motion by a member to disallow a statutory rule to which Standing Order 151 applies, and the Speaker will report details to the House at the first convenient opportunity.

14 Responses to adjournment matters

If the minister responsible is not present in the House to respond to issues raised by members under SO 33, the minister will provide a written response to the member who raised the matter within 30 days.

15 Second reading speeches incorporated in Hansard

A second reading speech for a bill being introduced by a member or minister will be incorporated into Hansard at the request of the member or minister, with the following exceptions:

- (1) Where the speech contains a statement under s 85(5)(c) of the Constitution Act 1975, that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.
- (2) Where a speech contains a statement under s 31(5) of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.

16 Time limit for lead speakers

For the purposes of Standing Order 131, and subject to any agreement to the contrary, additional time provided for the lead speaker of any other party does not apply where such a party has advised the Speaker that it is in a coalition arrangement with another party.

17 Order of business

- (1) So much of standing orders as provide for question time to be held at 2.00 pm on sitting days other than Tuesdays is suspended to allow for question time to be held at 11.00 am on those days.
- (2) In Standing Order No 55, for '2.00 pm', wherever occurring, read '11.00 am'.
- (3) So much of Standing Order Nos 36, 38, 39 and 41 be suspended so as to enable the following order of business on:

Wednesdays

Formal business
 Disallowance motions
 Statements by members
 Statements on parliamentary committee reports

A copy of any written response provided under this sessional order must be given to the member who asked the question and printed in Hansard.
- (3) The Speaker will determine the adequacy of a written response to a question provided under this sessional order. The Speaker may determine that a written response does not appropriately answer the question and may direct that the minister provide another written response by 2.00 pm the next sitting day. The Speaker will forward the written response to the member who asked the question, and a copy will be printed in Hansard.

12 Answers to questions on notice

A reply to a question on notice delivered to the Clerk under SO 54(3) must be submitted within 30 days.

13 Notices of motion

Standing Orders 140(1) and 141 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) A member may only move a motion to discuss a subject if he or she has given notice of that motion on a previous sitting day.
- (2) Copies of all notices, whether to be given verbally or in writing, must be provided to the Clerks at the table before notices are called on by the Speaker.
- (3) All notices given by ministers must be verbal.
- (4) Verbal notices must be read to the House. They can only be given before the House proceeds to the business of the day as set out in the notice paper.
- (5) All notices, except notices given under paragraph (6) given by members who are not ministers, must be given in writing. Members may give notice by lodging a copy with the Clerks in accordance with paragraph (2).

- (6) A motion by a member expressing no confidence in the Premier and ministers, in the terms set out in s 8A of the Constitution Act 1975, may only be given verbally or, where a member seeks to move the motion during formal business by leave, and leave is refused, the member may give notice of that motion.
- (7) The Clerk must notify the Speaker of a notice of a motion by a member to disallow a statutory rule to which Standing Order 151 applies, and the Speaker will report details to the House at the first convenient opportunity.

14 Responses to adjournment matters

If the minister responsible is not present in the House to respond to issues raised by members under SO 33, the minister will provide a written response to the member who raised the matter within 30 days.

15 Second reading speeches incorporated in Hansard

A second reading speech for a bill being introduced by a member or minister will be incorporated into Hansard at the request of the member or minister, with the following exceptions:

- (1) Where the speech contains a statement under s 85(5)(c) of the Constitution Act 1975, that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.
- (2) Where a speech contains a statement under s 31(5) of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.

16 Time limit for lead speakers

For the purposes of Standing Order 131, and subject to any agreement to the contrary, additional time provided for the lead speaker of any other party does not apply where such a party has advised the Speaker that it is in a coalition arrangement with another party.

SESSIONAL ORDERS

Sessional orders were adopted by the House on 12 February 2015 and amended on 6 August 2015.

1 Days and times of meeting

Unless otherwise ordered, the House will meet each Tuesday at 12.00 pm, and each Wednesday and Thursday at 9.30 am.

2 Incorporation of statements of compatibility

A statement of compatibility tabled under s28 of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 will be incorporated in Hansard, without leave being required.

3 Interruption of business for adjournment

Standing Order 32 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the Speaker will interrupt the business before the House at:
  - (a) 7.00 pm each sitting Tuesday and Wednesday;
  - (b) 5.00 pm on any other sitting day.
- (2) If a division is taking place when the time for the interruption arises, the division will be completed and the result announced. If the division is on a closure motion, and the motion is agreed to, the question or questions then required to be put to close the issue before the House will also be dealt with. The Speaker will then interrupt business.
- (3) If the time for the interruption arises:
  - (a) at the same time as the completion time set by the government business program; or
  - (b) after the interruption for the completion time of the government business program, but before all business on the program has been dealt with —

all business on the government business program will be completed first. The Speaker will then interrupt business for the adjournment.
- (4) After the interruption:
  - (a) before a motion for the adjournment is proposed by the Speaker, a minister may move that the sitting be continued. That motion must be put immediately without amendment or debate. If it is agreed to, the House will resume debate at the point at which it had been interrupted; or
  - (b) if a motion is not moved, the Speaker will immediately propose the question 'That the House now adjourns'. Any business under discussion and any other business not concluded at the time of the adjournment will be listed on the notice paper for the next sitting day. Any member speaking at the time of the interruption may, when debate resumes, continue his or her speech.

4 Condolence motions

Where a condolence motion occurs under SO 42(1)(a), the House may adjourn for a period of one hour at the conclusion of the motion.

5 Who may ask oral questions without notice

Only non-government members may ask questions without notice under Standing Order 55.

6 Supplementary questions without notice

- (1) At the conclusion of each answer to an oral question without notice, the questioning member may ask the responding minister a supplementary question to elucidate or clarify the answer.
- (2) Supplementary questions must actually and accurately relate to the original question and must relate to or arise from the answer.

7 Ministers' statements

After each oral question without notice and any related supplementary questions, any minister may seek the call to make a statement of up to two minutes to advise the House of new government initiatives, projects and achievements.

8 Time limits on answers and questions

- (1) The time limit for each oral question, supplementary question and constituency question is one minute.
- (2) The time limit for the answer to each oral question is three minutes, and for the answer to each supplementary question is one minute.

9 Constituency questions

- (1) At the conclusion of oral questions without notice and ministers' statements, five government members and five non-government members may ask one oral question each to ministers relating to constituency matters.
- (2) Replies to constituency questions must be given in writing within 30 days by delivering a reply to the Clerk. A copy must be given to the member who asked the question, and printed in Hansard.

10 Duration of question time

Standing Order 55(2) is suspended and the following to apply:

Question time will last until five oral questions and related supplementary questions have been answered, and up to five ministers' statements have been made.

11 Content of answers

- (1) Standing Order 58(1)(a) be suspended and all answers to questions must be direct, factual, succinct and relevant.
- (2) The Speaker may determine that an answer to an oral question without notice or supplementary oral question is not responsive to the question, and may accordingly direct the minister to provide a written response to the question and lodge it with the Speaker by 2.00 pm on the next sitting day. A copy of any written response provided under this sessional order must be given to the member who asked the question and printed in Hansard.
- (3) The Speaker will determine the adequacy of a written response to a question provided under this sessional order. The Speaker may determine that a written response does not appropriately answer the question and may direct that the minister provide another written response by 2.00 pm the next sitting day. The Speaker will forward the written response to the member who asked the question, and a copy will be printed in Hansard.

12 Answers to questions on notice

A reply to a question on notice delivered to the Clerk under SO 54(3) must be submitted within 30 days.

13 Notices of motion

Standing Orders 140(1) and 141 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) A member may only move a motion to discuss a subject if he or she has given notice of that motion on a previous sitting day.
- (2) Copies of all notices, whether to be given verbally or in writing, must be provided to the Clerks at the table before notices are called on by the Speaker.
- (3) All notices given by ministers must be verbal.
- (4) Verbal notices must be read to the House. They can only be given before the House proceeds to the business of the day as set out in the notice paper.
- (5) All notices, except notices given under paragraph (6) given by members who are not ministers, must be given in writing. Members may give notice by lodging a copy with the Clerks in accordance with paragraph (2).

- (6) A motion by a member expressing no confidence in the Premier and ministers, in the terms set out in s 8A of the Constitution Act 1975, may only be given verbally or, where a member seeks to move the motion during formal business by leave, and leave is refused, the member may give notice of that motion.
- (7) The Clerk must notify the Speaker of a notice of a motion by a member to disallow a statutory rule to which Standing Order 151 applies, and the Speaker will report details to the House at the first convenient opportunity.

14 Responses to adjournment matters

If the minister responsible is not present in the House to respond to issues raised by members under SO 33, the minister will provide a written response to the member who raised the matter within 30 days.

- (2) The Speaker may determine that an answer to an oral question without notice or supplementary oral question is not responsive to the question, and may accordingly direct the minister to provide a written response to the question and lodge it with the Speaker by 2.00 pm on the next sitting day. A copy of any written response provided under this sessional order must be given to the member who asked the question and printed in Hansard.
- (3) The Speaker will determine the adequacy of a written response to a question provided under this sessional order. The Speaker may determine that a written response does not appropriately answer the question and may direct that the minister provide another written response by 2.00 pm the next sitting day. The Speaker will forward the written response to the member who asked the question, and a copy will be printed in Hansard.

12 Answers to questions on notice

A reply to a question on notice delivered to the Clerk under SO 54(3) must be submitted within 30 days.

13 Notices of motion

Standing Orders 140(1) and 141 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) A member may only move a motion to discuss a subject if he or she has given notice of that motion on a previous sitting day.
- (2) Copies of all notices, whether to be given verbally or in writing, must be provided to the Clerks at the table before notices are called on by the Speaker.
- (3) All notices given by ministers must be verbal.
- (4) Verbal notices must be read to the House. They can only be given before the House proceeds to the business of the day as set out in the notice paper.
- (5) All notices, except notices given under paragraph (6) given by members who are not ministers, must be given in writing. Members may give notice by lodging a copy with the Clerks in accordance with paragraph (2).

- (6) A motion by a member expressing no confidence in the Premier and ministers, in the terms set out in s 8A of the Constitution Act 1975, may only be given verbally or, where a member seeks to move the motion during formal business by leave, and leave is refused, the member may give notice of that motion.
- (7) The Clerk must notify the Speaker of a notice of a motion by a member to disallow a statutory rule to which Standing Order 151 applies, and the Speaker will report details to the House at the first convenient opportunity.

14 Responses to adjournment matters

If the minister responsible is not present in the House to respond to issues raised by members under SO 33, the minister will provide a written response to the member who raised the matter within 30 days.

15 Second reading speeches incorporated in Hansard

A second reading speech for a bill being introduced by a member or minister will be incorporated into Hansard at the request of the member or minister, with the following exceptions:

- (1) Where the speech contains a statement under s 85(5)(c) of the Constitution Act 1975, that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.
- (2) Where a speech contains a statement under s 31(5) of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.

16 Time limit for lead speakers

SESSIONAL ORDERS

Sessional orders were adopted by the House on 12 February 2015 and amended on 6 August 2015.

1 Days and times of meeting

Unless otherwise ordered, the House will meet each Tuesday at 12.00 pm, and each Wednesday and Thursday at 9.30 am.

2 Incorporation of statements of compatibility

A statement of compatibility tabled under s28 of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 will be incorporated in Hansard, without leave being required.

3 Interruption of business for adjournment

Standing Order 32 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the Speaker will interrupt the business before the House at:
  - (a) 7.00 pm each sitting Tuesday and Wednesday;
  - (b) 5.00 pm on any other sitting day.
- (2) If a division is taking place when the time for the interruption arises, the division will be completed and the result announced. If the division is on a closure motion, and the motion is agreed to, the question or questions then required to be put to close the issue before the House will also be dealt with. The Speaker will then interrupt business.
- (3) If the time for the interruption arises:
  - (a) at the same time as the completion time set by the government business program; or
  - (b) after the interruption for the completion time of the government business program, but before all business on the program has been dealt with —all business on the government business program will be completed first. The Speaker will then interrupt business for the adjournment.
- (4) After the interruption:
  - (a) before a motion for the adjournment is proposed by the Speaker, a minister may move that the sitting be continued. That motion must be put immediately without amendment or debate. If it is agreed to, the House will resume debate at the point at which it had been interrupted; or
  - (b) if a motion is not moved, the Speaker will immediately propose the question 'That the House now adjourns'. Any business under discussion and any other business not concluded at the time of the adjournment will be listed on the notice paper for the next sitting day. Any member speaking at the time of the interruption may, when debate resumes, continue his or her speech.

4 Condolence motions

Where a condolence motion occurs under SO 42(1)(a), the House may adjourn for a period of one hour at the conclusion of the motion.

5 Who may ask oral questions without notice

Only non-government members may ask questions without notice under Standing Order 55.

6 Supplementary questions without notice

- (1) At the conclusion of each answer to an oral question without notice, the questioning member may ask the responding minister a supplementary question to elucidate or clarify the answer.
- (2) Supplementary questions must actually and accurately relate to the original question and must relate to or arise from the answer.

7 Ministers' statements

After each oral question without notice and any related supplementary questions, any minister may seek the call to make a statement of up to two minutes to advise the House of new government initiatives, projects and achievements.

8 Time limits on answers and questions

- (1) The time limit for each oral question, supplementary question and constituency question is one minute.
- (2) The time limit for the answer to each oral question is three minutes, and for the answer to each supplementary question is one minute.

9 Constituency questions

- (1) At the conclusion of oral questions without notice and ministers' statements, five government members and five non-government members may ask one oral question each to ministers relating to constituency matters.
- (2) Replies to constituency questions must be given in writing within 30 days by delivering a reply to the Clerk. A copy must be given to the member who asked the question, and printed in Hansard.

10 Duration of question time

Standing Order 55(2) is suspended and the following to apply:

Question time will last until five oral questions and related supplementary questions have been answered, and up to five ministers' statements have been made.

11 Content of answers

- (1) Standing Order 58(1)(a) be suspended and all answers to questions must be direct, factual, succinct and relevant.
- (2) The Speaker may determine that an answer to an oral question without notice or supplementary oral question is not responsive to the question, and may accordingly direct the minister to provide a written response to the question and lodge it with the Speaker by 2.00 pm on the next sitting day. A copy of any written response provided under this sessional order must be given to the member who asked the question and printed in Hansard.
- (3) The Speaker will determine the adequacy of a written response to a question provided under this sessional order. The Speaker may determine that a written response does not appropriately answer the question and may direct that the minister provide another written response by 2.00 pm the next sitting day. The Speaker will forward the written response to the member who asked the question, and a copy will be printed in Hansard.

12 Answers to questions on notice

A reply to a question on notice delivered to the Clerk under SO 54(3) must be submitted within 30 days.

13 Notices of motion

Standing Orders 140(1) and 141 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) A member may only move a motion to discuss a subject if he or she has given notice of that motion on a previous sitting day.
- (2) Copies of all notices, whether to be given verbally or in writing, must be provided to the Clerks at the table before notices are called on by the Speaker.
- (3) All notices given by ministers must be verbal.
- (4) Verbal notices must be read to the House. They can only be given before the House proceeds to the business of the day as set out in the notice paper.
- (5) All notices, except notices given under paragraph (6) given by members who are not ministers, must be given in writing. Members may give notice by lodging a copy with the Clerks in accordance with paragraph (2).

- (6) A motion by a member expressing no confidence in the Premier and ministers, in the terms set out in s 8A of the Constitution Act 1975, may only be given verbally or, where a member seeks to move the motion during formal business by leave, and leave is refused, the member may give notice of that motion.
- (7) The Clerk must notify the Speaker of a notice of a motion by a member to disallow a statutory rule to which Standing Order 151 applies, and the Speaker will report details to the House at the first convenient opportunity.

14 Responses to adjournment matters

If the minister responsible is not present in the House to respond to issues raised by members under SO 33, the minister will provide a written response to the member who raised the matter within 30 days.

15 Second reading speeches incorporated in Hansard

A second reading speech for a bill being introduced by a member or minister will be incorporated into Hansard at the request of the member or minister, with the following exceptions:

  - (a) 7.00 pm each sitting Tuesday and Wednesday;
  - (b) 5.00 pm on any other sitting day.
- (2) If a division is taking place when the time for the interruption arises, the division will be completed and the result announced. If the division is on a closure motion, and the motion is agreed to, the question or questions then required to be put to close the issue before the House will also be dealt with. The Speaker will then interrupt business.
- (3) If the time for the interruption arises:
  - (a) at the same time as the completion time set by the government business program; or
  - (b) after the interruption for the completion time of the government business program, but before all business on the program has been dealt with —all business on the government business program will be completed first. The Speaker will then interrupt business for the adjournment.
- (4) After the interruption:
  - (a) before a motion for the adjournment is proposed by the Speaker, a minister may move that the sitting be continued. That motion must be put immediately without amendment or debate. If it is agreed to, the House will resume debate at the point at which it had been interrupted; or
  - (b) if a motion is not moved, the Speaker will immediately propose the question 'That the House now adjourns'. Any business under discussion and any other business not concluded at the time of the adjournment will be listed on the notice paper for the next sitting day. Any member speaking at the time of the interruption may, when debate resumes, continue his or her speech.

4 Condolence motions

Where a condolence motion occurs under SO 42(1)(a), the House may adjourn for a period of one hour at the conclusion of the motion.

5 Who may ask oral questions without notice

Only non-government members may ask questions without notice under Standing Order 55.

6 Supplementary questions without notice

- (1) At the conclusion of each answer to an oral question without notice, the questioning member may ask the responding minister a supplementary question to elucidate or clarify the answer.
- (2) Supplementary questions must actually and accurately relate to the original question and must relate to or arise from the answer.

7 Ministers' statements

After each oral question without notice and any related supplementary questions, any minister may seek the call to make a statement of up to two minutes to advise the House of new government initiatives, projects and achievements.

8 Time limits on answers and questions

- (1) The time limit for each oral question, supplementary question and constituency question is one minute.
- (2) The time limit for the answer to each oral question is three minutes, and for the answer to each supplementary question is one minute.

9 Constituency questions

- (1) At the conclusion of oral questions without notice and ministers' statements, five government members and five non-government members may ask one oral question each to ministers relating to constituency matters.
- (2) Replies to constituency questions must be given in writing within 30 days by delivering a reply to the Clerk. A copy must be given to the member who asked the question, and printed in Hansard.

10 Duration of question time

Standing Order 55(2) is suspended and the following to apply:

Question time will last until five oral questions and related supplementary questions have been answered, and up to five ministers' statements have been made.

11 Content of answers

- (1) Standing Order 58(1)(a) be suspended and all answers to questions must be direct, factual, succinct and relevant.
- (2) The Speaker may determine that an answer to an oral question without notice or supplementary oral question is not responsive to the question, and may accordingly direct the minister to provide a written response to the question and lodge it with the Speaker by 2.00 pm on the next sitting day. A copy of any written response provided under this sessional order must be given to the member who asked the question and printed in Hansard.
- (3) The Speaker will determine the adequacy of a written response to a question provided under this sessional order. The Speaker may determine that a written response does not appropriately answer the question and may direct that the minister provide another written response by 2.00 pm the next sitting day. The Speaker will forward the written response to the member who asked the question, and a copy will be printed in Hansard.

12 Answers to questions on notice

A reply to a question on notice delivered to the Clerk under SO 54(3) must be submitted within 30 days.

13 Notices of motion

Standing Orders 140(1) and 141 be suspended and the following to apply:

- (1) A member may only move a motion to discuss a subject if he or she has given notice of that motion on a previous sitting day.
- (2) Copies of all notices, whether to be given verbally or in writing, must be provided to the Clerks at the table before notices are called on by the Speaker.
- (3) All notices given by ministers must be verbal.
- (4) Verbal notices must be read to the House. They can only be given before the House proceeds to the business of the day as set out in the notice paper.
- (5) All notices, except notices given under paragraph (6) given by members who are not ministers, must be given in writing. Members may give notice by lodging a copy with the Clerks in accordance with paragraph (2).

- (6) A motion by a member expressing no confidence in the Premier and ministers, in the terms set out in s 8A of the Constitution Act 1975, may only be given verbally or, where a member seeks to move the motion during formal business by leave, and leave is refused, the member may give notice of that motion.
- (7) The Clerk must notify the Speaker of a notice of a motion by a member to disallow a statutory rule to which Standing Order 151 applies, and the Speaker will report details to the House at the first convenient opportunity.

14 Responses to adjournment matters

If the minister responsible is not present in the House to respond to issues raised by members under SO 33, the minister will provide a written response to the member who raised the matter within 30 days.

15 Second reading speeches incorporated in Hansard

A second reading speech for a bill being introduced by a member or minister will be incorporated into Hansard at the request of the member or minister, with the following exceptions:

- (1) Where the speech contains a statement under s 85(5)(c) of the Constitution Act 1975, that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.
- (2) Where a speech contains a statement under s 31(5) of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 that statement must be delivered verbally to the House.

16 Time limit for lead speakers

For the purposes of Standing Order 131, and subject to any agreement to the contrary, additional time provided for the lead speaker of any other party does not apply where such a party has advised the Speaker that it is in a coalition arrangement with another party.

17 Order of business

- (1) So much of standing orders as provide for question time to be held at 2.00 pm on sitting days other than Tuesdays is suspended to allow for question time to be held at 11.00 am on those days.
- (2) In Standing Order No 55, for '2.00 pm', wherever occurring, read '11.00 am'.
