CENSUS OF VICTORIA, 1881.

APPROXIMATE RETURNS.—GENERAL SUMMARY.

 The following Tables have been compiled chiefly from the Enumerators' Summaries, which have not been finally checked. Some schedules have been received since the first "Approximate Summary" was published in the Government Gazette on the 4th instant, and in dissecting the Enumerators' Summaries some mistakes have been discovered. From these causes the numbers of population exceed those given in the first summary by 2,786, viz., 1,776 males and 1,010 females, and the number of houses exceeds that then given by 511. Whether these increases will be ultimately sustained, still further added to, or reduced, cannot be known until the first tabulation from the schedules, which is now being rapidly proceeded with, is completed.

NOTE.—This table has been compiled in order to admit of comparison being made between the population in the different divisions in the colony at this and the four former Censuses. The present boundary of the county of Talbot differs from that here given, and the unsettled districts have been divided into counties.

Summary by Counties, 1871 and 1881.

 When the minus sign (—) appears it implies there has been a falling off between 1871 and 1881 by the number against which it is placed.

* The boundaries between Brunswick and Fitzroy, and between St. Kilda and Caulfield shire (situated in "Remainder of district"), have been altered since the last Census within the old boundaries. Brunswick shows an increase of 2,210, viz., 1,084 males and 1,126 females; and Fitzroy only an increase of 7,054, viz., 3,315 males and 3,739 females; St. Kilda shows an increase of 4,195, viz., 1,736 males and 2,460 females; and "Remainder of district" only an increase of 4,756, viz., 2,673 males and 2,083 females. The minus sign (—) placed against two of the numbers in the line above the total indicates the falling off which has taken place in the number of persons in ships.
