VICTORIA.

STANDING ORDERS OF THE
LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

Resolved—

That the following be adopted as a Standing Order of the Legislative Council :—

133A. After any question has been proposed either in the Council or in a Committee of the whole Council, a motion may be made by any Member rising in his place and without notice and whether any other Member is addressing the Chair or not "That the question be now put" and, if six other Members thereupon rise in their places as indicating approval of the motion, the question on such motion shall be put forthwith and decided without amendment or debate, and no other motion shall be made or question of Order raised until such motion has been disposed of.

That Standing Orders 91, 92, 93, and 171 be repealed and the following be adopted as Standing Orders in lieu thereof :—

91. A question may be superseded : (1) By the adjournment of the Council, either on the motion of a Member "That the Council do now adjourn," or on notice being taken and it appearing that a quorum of Members is not present ; (2) By a motion "That the Orders of the Day be now read ;" (3) By the Previous Question, viz. : "That this question be not now put," being proposed and resolved in the affirmative.

92. If the question "That this question be not now put" be resolved in the negative the original question shall be put forthwith, without any amendment or debate.

93. The question "That the Orders of the Day be now read" and also the question "That this question be not now put" may be superseded by the adjournment of the Council upon motion to that effect being carried or for the want of a quorum.

171. No motion "That this question be not now put" shall be made in Committee of the whole Council.

Adopted by the Legislative Council the twenty-first day of September, One thousand nine hundred and twenty-six.

A. H. Newton

Clerk of the Legislative Council.
